

LIBERALISM IN RELIGION TODAY FORUM SUBJECT

Chicago Rabbi Asserts There Is Lack of Virility.

That modern religious liberalism lacks virility was the charge made by Rabbi S. B. Freehof, Chicago, in the first of the open forum lectures delivered Sunday night at the Kirshbaum Community Center.

Religious liberalism is ideal in theory, he declared, but as practiced today it is "namby-pamby" and consists of making "rose-water speeches." He termed it "a gentle exercise for kindly men" and said that it was "based on blunders."

Differences Do Matter

"Because religions have a common origin is not sufficient cause for brotherhood," Rabbi Freehof continued. "It is simply to say like the modern liberal that 'differences do not matter.' Differences in religion do matter tremendously."

He then pointed out how fundamental were the differences between Judaism, "the religion of a people," Christianity, "the religion of a personality," and Islam, "the religion of discipline."

Urges Respect

The subject of the address was "Can Religion Ever Be Liberal?" and the speaker concluded that it could, by teaching respect for the other religion while retaining your own. This, he said, was much better than trying to gloss over glaring differences.

Following the address, questions were written out and answers given in true open forum style. The speech was broadcast over WFBM.

Rabbi Morris Feuerlicht introduced the speaker.

JAIL IS JAMMED

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 25.—Prisoners had to take their turn to get cells here as the police made a week-end drive against drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

By afternoon some of those arrested earlier had to be released to make room for others.

QUICK QUAKER, savory and delicious, takes less time to prepare than plain toast. This provides a hot and nourishing breakfast in a hurry.

That is how every day should be started. With the ideal food balance of protein, carbohydrates and vitamins—plus the "bulk" to make laxatives less often needed—that leading dietary authorities now so widely urge.

Start your days and your children's in that way. No need now, simply to save time, to deny them the supreme strength food of the world.

THIEF GETS $50 FROM REGISTER AT OIL STATION

Takes Money While Attendant Is Busy Outside—Other Thefts Reported.

A clever thief made $50 in a few minutes Sunday, taking the money from the cash register at a filling station while the attendant was putting gas in his car outside. Police today had no trace of the robber.

George E. Lorentz, who operates a filling station at Sixteenth St. and Roosevelt Ave., told officers that the man, of gentlemanly appearance, drove in and asked for gas and oil. He also inquired about the operation of such a station, saying he was going to build one soon at Broad Rtp. Walking about the place, he went inside, opened the cash register, and took the $50, while Lorentz was busy filling the gasoline tank.

Edward Lawrence, parole officer for the State of Indiana, reported that his wife's grip was switched on a traction car. The bag left contained nothing, but the one taken had two dresses and $35.

Dr. John Leach, 205 W. Twenty-Sixth St., told police he was the victim of an inconsiderate thief. A woman victim of an auto accident was brought to St. Vincent's Hospital, Leach said, and he was called to attend her. Leach removed his wrist watch and laid it on a table. Two men who brought the woman there were in the room and after they left he missed the watch, valued at $50.

C. J. Blackmore, 1806 N. Arsenal Ave., said a burglar had little trouble entering his home through an unlocked door while the family was away and taking four dresses valued at $100.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membrane and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory disease, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist—Advertisement.

Skeletons Found on Indian Battle Site

Skeletons of eight persons, believed Indians, unearthed by workmen on the farm of John Smock, west of Edgewood, south of the city, confirmed an old tradition that an Indian battle had been fought on that site.

No relics were found with the skeletons, placed radially with skulls touching, bearing out the idea that they were buried hurriedly under conditions such as those following a bloody battle.

Woman Reports Loss While En Route From Detroit.

Detectives today sought to solve the theft of gems valued at $1,000 Sunday night from Mrs. Daley Nesbit, 2041 N. Delaware St., while she was asleep in a Pullman car en route from Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Nesbit called officers to the Union Station when the train arrived, and said that she was awakened at Anderson, Ind., and found her purse missing. Besides a $1,000 diamond ring and a $20 sapphire ring, $30 in cash was in the purse. The car was searched, but there was no trace of the missing gems.

Mrs. Nesbit was a member of a party sponsored by the C. E. Taylor Real Estate Company, Chamber of Commerce Bldg., which had been viewing some Detroit real estate. Detectives are seeking a woman said to have occupied the berth next to Mrs. Nesbit and who called a porter to raise the window during the night. Police believe the purse was tossed out the open window. The company gave officers a complete list of passengers on the car.

RUIN FOR WORLD SEEN BY MELLON IN LOW TARIFF

G. O. P. Policy Justified as Insurance for Property.

By United Press WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—A new broader justification of the Republican high tariff policy as national and world prosperity insurance was issued today by the Coolidge Administration through Secretary of the Treasury Mellon.

In an official statement discussing the anti-tariff manifesto of the "Gold International"—American and other international leading world bankers—Mellon asserted that a high tariff, maintaining a high standard of living and buying in this country, was essential to prosperity and a large volume of world trade, in which the United States is the greatest consumer.

Would Ruin Farmers

Tariff reduction would bring the American standard of living down to a level with that of Europe, would decrease the national buying power and would ruin the farmers, he said.

Mellon did not discuss the old time argument of a tariff for protection of infant industries, but asserted that millions of dollars of industrial money, including much of his own aluminum company of America, will be spent in developments abroad, where labor and other production costs are cheaper, if the tariff is lowered.

The bankers' manifesto, Mellon said, seeks only "to bring about in Europe a condition similar to that in the United States."

"It is inconceivable to me that American labor will ever consent to the abolition of protection which would bring the American standard of living down to the level in Europe, or that the American farmer could survive if the enormous consuming power of the people of this country was curtailed and his market at home destroyed."

Emulation, Not Criticism

"It is not criticism of us, but emulation," he said, after explaining that the present European political barriers created a situation analogous to that created in New York City, southern New York State, Connecticut and Rhode Island were made a separate country.

Mellon listed huge gains in American imports, especially in crude materials, such as rubber, coffee, silk and shellac, under the protection policy to show that the purchasing power of the United States governs world prosperity.

Mellon's 3,000-word statement was given out simultaneously with a commerce department release by Everett G. Holt, rubber expert, denouncing "unreasonable prices" charged American consumers by foreign monopolists.

ORCHARD KILLING PROBED BY JURY

Farmer Held for Shooting Man Who Took Apples.

By Times Special ANDERSON, Ind., Oct. 25.—The Madison County jury today began an investigation into the death of Alva Pine, 24, shot and killed by Joseph Dunham, 53, wealthy farmer, Saturday afternoon, when he caught Pine taking apples from his orchard.

Dunham surrendered to the sheriff and is being held in county jail. Howard Lawson, Pine's companion and a witness, said he had gone to the orchard to pick apples off the ground when told by another farmer that the owner did not care. Dunham appeared with a shotgun, Lawson said, and ordered them to return the apples. Lawson said they obeyed and climbed a fence to an adjoining field. Lawson said that Dunham followed them and said to Pine: "I have a notion to kill you," and that Pine replied: "Your powder will not burn." Lawson said that Dunham then raised his gun and fired point-blank at Pine, killing him instantly.

Mary Lawson, 15, Mrs. Martha Strohman and Hazel and Ada Strohman also were witnesses.
