DEFENDS SECRECY PLAN

Federal Trade Commissioner Addresses Kiwanis Club.

Policy of the Federal Trade Commission in not making public complaints which are received before the cases are heard, was defended by Commissioner William E. Humphrey at Kiwanis Club luncheon Wednesday at the Claypool.

"The commission is no longer actuated by the policy that 'whatever is, is wrong' or that success in business is synonymous with dishonesty," said Humphrey.

D., will visit Indianapolis Friday for the first time since that session. He will be here for three days in connection with affairs of the Episcopal church in the Indianapolis diocese.

SEEKS ARMISTICE IN TRUCK STRIFE

Schortemeier Calls Committee for Meeting.

Meeting of the reciprocal relations committee of the National Association of State of State was called today by Frederick E. Schortemeier, secretary of the State of Indiana, to be held at Chicago, Dec. 2, to consider the matter of an armistice in the interstate motor truck war.

Schortemeier's action followed notic that the Kentucky court of appeals has upheld a law of that State requiring the licensing of out-of-State commercial automobiles. Trouble between Kentucky and Indiana and other neighboring States continued unabated several months when local officials of Kentucky waged a campaign to enforce the statute. Predictions that the temporary truce, instituted when constitutionality of the Kentucky statute was assailed, would fail were made today.

HEREVER there are Kroger Stores Kroger's coffee is recognized as being the utmost in quality and value. Such a reputation does not come by chance. It is the result of years of experience in preparing coffee for consumption plus a constant determination to and facilities for maintaining high quality. But few coffees receive the same care from plantation to table as Kroger Coffees. Every operation is under Kroger supervision. Green coffees are imported direct from plantation to Kroger warehouses in large quantities. Scales that measure the secret blends must balance to the ounce.

The roasting is done to just that fraction of a second that brings out every bit of rich flavor oil from the bean. Cup tests are made of each shipment in comparison with all other brands. Stores receive a new supply fresh from the roaster twice each week.
