

ZONING DECISION OF NATION-WIDE SCOPE IMPENDS

Indianapolis Would Be Affected by Result.

Times Washington Bureau.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—A little village, Euclid, Ohio, has raised one of the most important constitutional questions of this decade.

Thus James Metzbaum, prominent Ohio attorney, summed up today the village's test zoning case now before the United States Supreme Court for final decision.

"The big point at issue," he explained, "is whether a zoning ordinance, as adopted by Euclid four years ago, is basically unconstitutional and violative of both State and Federal constitutions. The decision will affect 30,000,000 Americans now living in zoned communities, or more than half the total urban population of this nation. It will affect some 448 towns and cities in forty-one States."

History of Case

History of the Euclid case is this:
A Euclid real estate company assailed the village's zoning ordinance and brought suit for a perpetual injunction against any enforcement.
The United States District Court at Cleveland ruled that the ordinance was unconstitutional in that it "takes property without compensation." Metzbaum, representing the village, appealed to the United States Supreme Court, arguing his case in Washington last January.
The higher court asked for a complete reargument, which was delivered.

Possible Effect

"If the Supreme Court upholds the decision of the trial court all zoning ordinances throughout the United States will necessarily fall, the Federal constitution extending to all States," Metzbaum said.

The decision will affect Baltimore, Denver, San Francisco, San Diego, Indianapolis, Evansville, Terre Haute, Akron, Cincinnati, Toledo, Oklahoma City, Memphis, Omaha, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Seattle, Portland and the District of Columbia, according to Metzbaum.

"Robin Hood's Larder" is a giant tree in Sherwood forest in which, according to tradition, Robin Hood used to hide the deer he had slain.

COULD NOT PUT ON HER SHOES

Mrs. Daugherty Was so Weak

In a little town of the Middle West, was a discouraged woman. For four months she had been in such poor health that she could not stoop to put on her own shoes.
Unable to do her work, unable to go out of doors or enjoy a friendly chat with her neighbors, life seemed dark indeed to Mrs.
Daugherty.

Then one day, a booklet was left at her front door. Laid she turned the pages. Soon she was reading with quickened interest. The little booklet was filled with letters from women in conditions similar to hers who had found better health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I began taking the Vegetable Compound," Mrs. Daugherty writes, "and after I took the third bottle, I found relief. I am on my eleventh bottle and I don't have that trouble any more, and feel like a different woman. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to everyone I see who has trouble like mine. I am willing to answer any letters from women asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. E. D. DAUGHERTY, 1308 Orchard Ave., Muscatine, Iowa.

SEVERAL INJURED IN TRAIN WRECK

Fast Gulf Special Derailed in Alabama.

By United Press
MOBILE, Ala., Nov. 23.—The speeding southbound Gulf Special of the Mobile & Ohio Railroad was derailed near Oak Grove, Ala., early today.

Several passengers were injured, but early reports said no one had been killed.
Reports reaching here said the entire train, which was en route from St. Louis to Mobile, left the tracks with the exception of the observation dining car.

The Queen was especially gratified with the display of her country's flags, and inquired as to who superintended the arrangement. Her sentiments were conveyed to Pierce in a letter from Kershner.

ACCUSE LEOPOLD IN PRISON BREAK

Convicts Turn on Slayer of Franks Boy.

By United Press
JOLIET, Ill., Nov. 23.—Nathan Leopold, partner of Richard Loeb in the sensational murder of little Bobby Franks, more than two years ago, today was the center of an investigation to determine the authenticity of rumors that he was the "master mind" who engineered the escape of six prisoners from Joliet penitentiary a few months ago.

The rumors started here after Leopold had taken the witness stand in the trial of the six prisoners who escaped and were captured after they had killed Deputy Warden Peter Klein.

The youthful slayer was excused from testifying after he had pleaded with the judge that he knew nothing of the murder, and that any testimony given by him would go against him with other prisoners in the penitentiary, "where I've got to stay a long time." He is serving life and ninety-nine years.

Immediately after Leopold had been excused, according to the rumors, the six on trial for Klein's murder went to their attorneys with a story that it was Leopold who engineered the escape.

KEEP COUGHS OUT OF "DANGER ZONE"

Coughing irritates the throat and makes you cough more. The more you cough, the harder it is to stop. And a cough threatens serious trouble if you let inflammation get into the bronchial tubes.
It may spread into the "danger zone"—for these tubes lead directly into your lungs.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops coughs quickly—almost instantly in spasmodic attacks. And it does far more; it brings lasting relief as its soothing, healing powers are absorbed deep down in the bronchial tubes, penetrating thru and thru the irritated membranes.

With the first swallow of Cherry Pectoral you feel its comforting warmth as it loosens up the tightness of congestion. It stimulates expectoration—Nature's helpful plan for getting rid of phlegm and germs. Absorbed into the membranes themselves, this concentrated, hospital-proved medicine not only stops your cough promptly, but it also corrects the cause.
And that is why relief is immediate and lasting.

Cherry Pectoral is pleasant, safe and dependable—for children and grown people. At all druggists—60c; twice as much, $1.00. 4b39a
