

SEEK TO PREVENT DOUBLE TAXATION

Introduce Measure Which Would List Shareholders.

A bill to amend the tax law so as to require every company incorporated under the laws of other States and doing business in Indiana to report names and addresses of their Indiana shareholders to the State tax board has been introduced in the House at the request of the Indiana State Chamber of Commerce.

The amendment is designed to prevent the taxation of the property and the shares of the corporation owned in Indiana at the same time, as well as to remove the incentive for the sequestering of such shares. It provides that the shares of such company's stock shall not be taxed when the amount held in the State does not exceed the value of the corporation's property which is taxed in Indiana, and that the shares shall only be taxed the percentage that they exceed the valuation on the corporation's Indiana property.

In offering the amendment, the legislative committee of the State chamber points out that under the present law both the property and the stock of corporations of other States are taxed in Indiana, thereby bringing about double taxation that tends to encourage sequestering of stock to discourage corporations of other States from investing in property located in Indiana.

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

While Clowny drifted on the ice, I me out. Go over to the other side a voice from near at hand, yelled twice, "Hurrah! Hurrah!" And they all turned and saw the Eskimo. He'd run to get a piece of twine, which surely would come in real fine, but what he planned to do with it the Tinies didn't know.

"Just watch me close and you will see that I'm as smart as I can be," their friend the furry Eskimo announced in boastful tone. "I may want help, but not just now. I guess I'll get along, somehow, if I just try to work my plan, and work it all alone."

He took the twine and spread it out. Then wrapped it 'round and 'round about. And then 'twas in a circle, they began to see his scheme. He then held one end in his hand, and swung the rest to beat the band. Then, when they least expected it, 'twas hurled across the stream.

"And now," the Tinies heard him shout, "the rest of you can help

(The Tinymites discover a wooden shack in the next story.)

If Weak, Nervous and Run Down, You Too Can Be Benefited the Same As This Gentleman

Mr. G. E. Herman, Retired, of Indianapolis, Ind., Says, That Although Seventy-Five Years Old, Todd's Tonic Did Wonders For Him. It Is Made of Finest California Wine.

"I have suffered with Constipation, nervousness, loss of sleep and a general run-down condition for quite a few years; I simply lost my former pep. This was a puzzle to me because even at my age I have always had wonderful vitality. I mentioned this to one of my neighbors and he told me about Todd's Tonic—told me to try a bottle, that was quite sure that I would not make a mistake, as it had greatly benefited him. I took his word for it and bought a bottle. I am not sorry that I started on Todd's Tonic. I have so far used four bottles, and can truthfully say that it has done wonders for me, and will do the same for anybody who will give it a trial." —G. E. HERMAN, 945 32nd Street, Indianapolis, Ind.

Todd's Tonic, made of finest California wine, is pleasant to take. Unlike ordinary Tonics, Todd's Tonic is a reconstructive Tonic and not a mere laxative. Therefore its results are greater and more lasting.
