POLICE SEEK RAIL EMPLOYE IN PROBE OF FATAL ATTACK

Workman Disappears After Alleged Scrap—Victim Dies in Hospital.

Police today are searching for Harry Prather, 35, of 1448 Fletcher Ave., alleged to be the assailant of William A. Scholer, 35, of 212 E. Twelfth St., Apt. 12, who died Tuesday night at the city hospital. Scholer received a fractured skull in a fight in the Shelby St. roundhouse of the Big Four railroad Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. Both men were employees and are married.

The dead man's father, Lawrence Scholer, 3140 Graceland Ave., former United States marshal here, and Police Sergeant John Volderauer are investigating the affair in an effort to learn the truth, as the elder Scholer explained.

Police Called Late

The younger Scholer was first taken to the office of Dr. L. A. Ensminger, company physician, and at 3:30 p. m. to the hospital. He died at 7 p. m. Police were not notified, it is said, until Dr. William A. Doepers, city hospital superintendent, called them at 4:45 p. m. Lieut. O. D. Thomas and emergency squad then investigated.

Mrs. Prather told police her husband came home after the attack and left, telling her he was going downtown to arrange bond. He has disappeared.

Orders Probe

C. A. Sherwood, foreman, told police Prather said he struck Scholer on the head with his fist in an argument over the use of some wood blocks. Dr. Doepers said Scholer was injured with a sharp instrument. Dr. Paul F. Robinson, coroner, today ordered a post-mortem examination and a thorough investigation of the affair. Scholer never regained consciousness.

He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Cressie Scholer; his parents, and a brother, Mack, of Memphis. Word of the tragedy was not brought to the family until 5 p. m., it is said.

Many have overlooked the letters sent out in the annual appeal, officials stated.

CONSTIPATION MADE BOY AN INVALID

Parents say Milk's Emulsion gave real relief. Gaining weight and strength.

"Our 15-year-old boy hadn't been strong since he was 9 years old, when he had whooping cough and scarlet fever. He had constipation terribly. The only thing that would give relief was injections of warm water, and finally we used olive oil injections.

"Last August we started giving him Milk's Emulsion. After taking three bottles, he hasn't to this day had to have another injection. He goes to school every day, eats his Emulsion right along, and is gaining weight and doing fine. We can't praise Milk's Emulsion enough, and will be glad to tell other parents just what it has done for our boy."

—Mr. and Mrs. Jim Williams, Route 3, Kellerton, Iowa.

Milk's Emulsion restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food, thus building flesh and strength, which are Nature's only aids in conquering germs and repairing the effects of wasting diseases.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Wonderful for weak sickly children. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milk's Emulsion. If not satisfied with results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Kokomo Factory Head Buried

J. W. Johnson

By Times Special

KOKOMO, Ind., Feb. 2.—Seven factories, of which he had been president, closed today for the funeral of J. W. Johnson, Kokomo industrial leader, who died Sunday, following an operation.

Supper was over for most of the more than 1,800 prisoners at the place when the Legislators, wives and guests arrived in the huge dining hall. Only a small number of inmates could be glimpsed by the visitors in passing through the large halls, bordering on the cell rooms.

During a wait at the dock station platform for the homeward trip many comments were heard, including one of a woman who was sorry she came because "she didn't see anything."

Several members of the House of Representatives quizzed guides and officials at the place regarding the proposed expenditures.

One of the requests which drew special attention was that for $30,000 for a new chapel at the place. It was explained that the present chapel, in the new cell room wing of the main building, is to be used for motion pictures and assembly, until it is needed for housing purposes.

Her Asthma and Cough Are Gone

Suffered 15 Years. Found Quick Relief. No Sign of It Now.

Readers who have been tortured by asthma or bronchial trouble, will be glad to know how Mrs. Amanda Kincade, 2221 Monroe St., Detroit, Mich., ended the disease. She says:

"I had asthma for fifteen years. I was very weak, had no appetite, and my cough was awful. It smothered me so I had to sit up 48 hours, to get my breath. I am 69 years old, and had almost given up hope of ever being well. I read in the paper what Nator had done for another lady, and decided to try it. After the first few doses, I began feeling better and kept right on getting better, gaining in weight and strength. My asthma is gone. I have no cough, and am feeling fine in every way."

This remarkable letter is just one of hundreds received from sufferers from asthma, bronchitis, and severe chronic coughs, telling how their trouble left and never returned. Their letters and a booklet full of vital information about these stubborn diseases, will be sent free by Nator Medicine Co., 415 State Life Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind. JUNKET TO STATE INSTITUTION MAY AFFECT BUDGET

Legislators Get Late Start on Tuesday Reformatory Trip.

Indiana legislators made a junket to the State reformatory, Pendleton, Tuesday afternoon, which may not prove beneficial for the $318,000 budget request of that institution. It already has suffered several cuts by the budget committee.

Getting away to a late but hurried start, the law makers arrived at the institution at dark over the Union Traction Company line. Shops at the institution were closed. A hurried trip was made through the corridors and about the lawn, where the numerous new buildings are under construction.

Woman Disappointed

Supper was over for most of the more than 1,800 prisoners at the place when the Legislators, wives and guests arrived in the huge dining hall. Only a small number of inmates could be glimpsed by the visitors in passing through the large halls, bordering on the cell rooms.

During a wait at the dock station platform for the homeward trip many comments were heard, including one of a woman who was sorry she came because "she didn't see anything."

Several members of the House of Representatives quizzed guides and officials at the place regarding the proposed expenditures.

One of the requests which drew special attention was that for $30,000 for a new chapel at the place. It was explained that the present chapel, in the new cell room wing of the main building, is to be used for motion pictures and assembly, until it is needed for housing purposes.

Chapel Fund Asked

The proposed chapel budget was cut to $75,000 by the budget committee.

All of the new buildings are being built with supervised prison labor, the former cost plus system of contracting having been abandoned.

Other new buildings and improvements asked for this session include a hospital addition, outside dormitory, trade school, reservoir for fire protection, emergency electric line, chair factory, residences, highways and landscaping.

A school addition recently completed drew $21,000 from Governor Jackson's contingent fund. The sum was turned over to the building committee at the institution Sept. 30, the last day of the last fiscal year.

The governor is now asking $35,000 additional from the Legislature to make up an anticipated deficit in the present fiscal year, as well as $160,000 for the biennial appropriation for the contingent fund.

'CLARK'S FOLLY' SOLD

Mansion That Cost Late Senator $7,000,000 Brings Only $3,000,000.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—"Clark's Folly," the mansion on Fifth Ave., which cost the late Senator William A. Clark of Montana $7,000,000 to build, has been sold for $3,000,000.

The buyer said he would have paid at least $100,000 more for the property had there been no building on it. Which means that in twenty-five years the mass of brick and stone which Clark gathered from the corners of the earth and piled up on Manhattan, has become worth considerably less than nothing.

The building will be torn down and make way for apartments which will be sold on a cooperative basis at approximately $20,000 a room. Anthony Compagna is the buyer of the property and will build the apartments.

Plans were laid at the meeting to send a large delegation to the Ft. Wayne district conference Feb. 21 and 22. Several new members were introduced.

'DADDY' BACK TO WORK; 'PEACHES' PLANS REST

Brownings Prepare to Wait for Separation Suit Decision, Probably Four Weeks Away.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—For "Peaches" it will be rest and respite; for "Daddy" work and more work.

Those programs for the next month were announced today by Edward West Browning, 52, and Frances Heenan Browning, 16, whose combined suits for separation now are before Supreme Court Justice A. H. F. Seeger. It probably will be four weeks before a decision is given.

"I want to go away somewhere with my mother," said the pretty, underdeveloped school girl. "I don't know just where. Do you know of some place that is remote, I mean remote?"

"What am I going to do? Lord, I'm so far behind at the office I'll never catch up. I've got to put this trial out of my mind and get down to business," was the comment from Browning.

The wealthy real estate dealer, incidentally, was not pleased with conduct of his case.

"I have a hundred more witnesses who would have testified to the truth about our marriage," he said. "There were a dozen more witnesses right here in court who should have been called, but they weren't. Then there were a lot better questions my attorneys could have asked me, but they didn't."

"Are you going to bring an annulment suit?"

"Maybe I don't know. How can I tell what I am going to do? I'm sick of all these questions."

To what the law is pleased to call "the infant defendant" there were no such regrets as characterized her husband's attitude.

"I'm sure I'll win," she said. "And indeed I should, not only for my own sake but for all other young girls tempted to marry rich old men. I've not even considered going in the movies or on the stage, although I've had offers."

FORD REFUSES BILLION

Offer for Auto Plant Revealed at Tax Case Hearing.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—An offer of $1,000,000,000 for the Ford plant was made within the past thirty days by Horblower Weeks, New York, according to John W. Prentiss of the concern, testifying today in the $26,000,000 Couzens tax appeal case here.

Prentiss revealed his company had sought four times since 1916 to acquire the mammoth auto works. In 1916 Ford was offered $500,000,000. In 1924, 1925 and 1927 the offer was increased to $1,000,000,000, but each time was rejected.

Republican Bill Introduced—Teachers' Measure Amended.

Repeal of the sections of the present primary law which permit voters to nominate party candidates for Governor, United States Senator and express a preference on presidential nominations at the primary, was introduced in the Indiana House of Representatives today.

This was the first attack on the present primary system in the House this session.

The bill was submitted by Representative Lemuel A. Pittenger, majority floor leader.

Backed By G. O. P.

Although in opposition to the wishes of the Governor as outlined in his message to the Legislature, the measure is said to have the favor of Republican leaders.

The bill is similar to one introduced in the Senate recently by Senators O'Rourke and Shank.

A fight made on the bill in the Senate eliminated the gubernatorial feature and now calls for repeal of the presidential preference and United States senatorial sections only.

In discussing the bill before the House, Representative J. W. Ebaugh, Republican, Indianapolis, remarked that in his opinion the primary was here to stay.

Teachers' Bill

The "teachers' tenure" bill was amended in the House so that the period of tenure is made five years instead of three. By agreement proponents of the measure accepted an amendment by Representative Delph L. McKesson (Dem.), Plymouth, whereby a teacher cannot resign during the term of contract unless agree to by the employing official.

Revocation of license is permitted if this provision is violated.

The levy for public park purposes in Marion County will be increased from one-half of 1 percent to 1 percent, if a bill submitted by Representative Ebaugh survives.

DETECTIVES SEEK CONFESSION FROM ALLEGED BANDIT

Carl Jennings, Indicted in Bank Robbery Case, Returned to City.

Detectives today grilled Carl Jennings, 21, of 130 S. Bancroft St., indicted in connection with the Livestock Exchange Bank $5,500 robbery, Jan. 21, in hopes of obtaining a confession from the alleged bandit.

Jennings was returned by Detective Charles Golinich from Opelika, Ala. Detectives recovered about $612, said to be part of Jennings' share of the loot, and merchandise said to have been purchased with the remainder of Jennings' share.

Bought Auto

Jennings purchased an auto for $616 in Chattanooga, Tenn., and gave away money, clothing and jewelry totalling about $1,000 to Mr. and Mrs. William H. Denham, with whom he roomed, it was said. Jennings gave a girl friend $50 with which to buy a ukulele, Golinich said.

Jennings denied any part in the robbery. Detectives hoped to find a clew to the $182,000 in canceled checks which were taken from Paul Tolman, 18, of 830 Bates St., bank messenger who was robbed on a stockyard street car.

Jennings Identified

Tolman said Jennings drove the bandit car, according to detectives. Tolman was indicted on a grand larceny charge.

President Adelbert S. Benson of the Livestock Bank declared duplicate checks had been issued and payment stopped on all of the original checks.

"It has meant a lot of work checking back through the various banks," Benson stated.

SURRENDER IN SLAYING

Mother and Daughter, 13, Give Up After Man Is Found Dead.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Feb. 2.—Anna Lista, 36, and her 13-year-old daughter, Elizabeth, were held by the police of Euclid Village, a suburb, today, following the murder of Anthony Lista, slain in bed.

Police say the victim's head had been horribly battered by two heavy hatchets, found beside the bed.

Mrs. Lista and her daughter walked into a Cleveland police station today and surrendered, calmly saying they had killed a man, the officials said. While they gave no motive for the alleged murder, police say a family quarrel had taken place and expressed belief that the woman had killed the man after he had threatened their lives.

FOUR SKELETONS MAKE TOTAL OF KILLER THIRTEEN

Bodies Found With Aid of Diagram Provided by George Hassel.

WHITTIER, Cal., Feb. 2.—Work of assembling a pile of human bones—remains of four persons murdered ten years ago by George J. Hassel, the "Texas wholesale murderer"—started today in preparation for a coroner's inquest. Hassel is now awaiting execution in Texas for the slaying of his wife and eight children.

The skeletons, found in Whittier, those of Mrs. Marie Vogel, Pittsburgh, and her three adopted children, were uncovered yesterday beneath the dining room floor of the house in which Hassel and his Texas authorities he had lived as "George Baker."

In a pit, which had been dug under the residence, officers found the skeletons, piled one on the other, with the bones of Mrs. Vogel on the bottom. That Hassel either choked his victims to death or used a rope to drag their bodies under the floor of the house was indicated by fragments of rope found around the necks of three of the slain persons.

A bit of rotted cloth adhered to the neck of the fourth skeleton.

Location of the pit, found by aid of a chart Hassel furnished authorities, revealed that he had to crawl fifteen feet to a point beneath the dining room to bury the bodies. The grave was five feet deep.

Neighbors recalled today that suspicion was directed to "Baker" when Mrs. Vogel and her children disappeared. The neighbors, who knew Mrs. Vogel and the children as "Baker's" family, said that "Baker" told confiding stories concerning their absence.

First, neighbors asserted, "Baker" said "his wife" had gone to San Francisco in response to a telephone call from her sister. Later, they said, he expressed the opinion that "his wife" had eloped with another man. Authorities at that time searched the house, but failed to find any evidence of the suspected murders. Soon after they gave up the search, Hassel disappeared.

Shoots Bride, Slays Self, After Quarrel

CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—After leaving a note bitterly denouncing his father, Harold Dickerson, son of a wealthy Springfield (Mo.) sportsman and rancher, last night shot and dangerously wounded his wife and then committed suicide.

The note said in part: "I am killing myself tonight, and I hope you are satisfied. I, too, was your son, but for any help I ever got from you I might as well have been a stranger. I'm through with life. It has held nothing for me but disappointment."

His bride, former clerk in a local hospital, said, however, that the shooting followed a jealous quarrel. She claims Dickerson accused her of thinking more of a former suitor than of him.
