

CHURCH WANTS PASTOR TO STAY

Members to Consider Offer Made Rev. Dunkel.

Members of the Tabernacle Presbyterian Church will meet Thursday evening to consider an offer made to the pastor, the Rev. J. Ambrose Dunkel, from the Fourth St. Presbyterian Church, Detroit, Mich. Letters announcing the meeting were sent to members today following a conference of officers of the church Tuesday evening when resolutions asking Rev. Dunkel to remain in Indianapolis were adopted.

The Detroit church is considered one of the best in that city, but has been without a minister for some time. Since the Rev. Dunkel came to the local church eight years ago from Saginaw, Mich., it has increased its membership, and a new Sunday school unit has been added.

HEAVY GUARD ON DUTY

Police at Judge's Home and His 135 Tenements After Threats.

NEW YORK, March 2.—The largest extra guard ever summoned to protect an individual and his property in this city has been assigned by Police Commissioner McLaughlin to the home of Judge John Palmer and his 135 tenement houses scattered through Brooklyn and Manhattan.

Palmer, former city court judge, has received several threatening letters demanding $50,000. A week ago a bomb exploded at the front of his Brooklyn home.

How to Reduce Varicose Veins

Rub Gently and Upward Toward the Heart as Blood in Veins Flows That Way

Many people have become despondent because they have been led to believe that there is no remedy that will help reduce swollen veins and bunches. If you will get a two-ounce original bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) at any first class drug store and apply it night and morning as directed you will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and bunches are reduced to normal.

Moore's Emerald Oil is a harmless, yet most powerful germicide and two ounces last a very long time. Indeed, so powerful is Emerald Oil that old chronic cases of Piles are often entirely absorbed and anyone who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded. Hook Drug Co., Haag Drug Co., sell lots of it.—Advertisement.

AUTO KILLS BOY, 9, GUARDED BY MOTHER

Joseph De Witt and his dog, Teddie

After closely guarding nearly every movement of her only son, Joseph, 9, since birth, Mrs. Alice DeWitt of Beech Grove today was hysterical after seeing an auto fatally injure him while returning from school late Tuesday.

For three years Mrs. DeWitt had accompanied her son to and from school at morning, noon and night. While returning Tuesday afternoon from school, four blocks from the DeWitt home at First Ave. near Churchman Ave., the boy broke away from his mother's grasp.

Darts Across Street Mrs. DeWitt, who was driving a Buick, was struck by a machine driven by Claude Regan, R. R. 5, Box 37, Regan, held by Coroner Paul F. Robinson, declared he swerved in an effort to avoid striking the lad. But his effort was futile.

SPEECHES BOOST BUDGET $205,000

'Fourth of July' Oratory Used in Senate.

"Fourth of July" speeches by Lieutenant Governor F. Harold Van Orman, Senator Edward O'Rourke, Jr. (Rep.), Ft. Wayne, and others, boosted the biennial budget $205,000 before the Senate committee of the whole Tuesday. Reading of the bill and additional amendments were considered today.

Amendments adopted Tuesday added $80,000 to the adjutant general's fund for building armories throughout the State; $125,000 for a new school building at the Soldiers and Sailors Orphans' Home, Knights-town; provide for financing any additional courts that may be created by the present assembly and insure the feeble minded will share in funds appropriated for both it and the Ft. Wayne school. Court costs are estimated at $100,000, making the total increase for Tuesday amount to $305,000. Adding of the Senate amendments will mean that the bill must again return to the House for approval and consume time that otherwise would be given to passing of bills.

TOUSLED HEADS AT BAR

Boy Chums of Slain Lad Testify Against Croarkin

CHICAGO, March 2.—Evidence by which the State expects to send Harold J. Croarkin to the gallows for the murder of Walter Schmitt, Jr., probably will be completed this afternoon.

Yesterday, Walter Schmitt's "game" testified. Tousled heads of youngsters of 12 and 14 years old recalled in the dim court room, boyhood scenes of the little "kid" as they referred to Walter.

They told how he had been playing in the neighborhood the afternoon he had seen Walter go to the riding academy barn—where his body was found—with a man and later heard screams.

Wrappers, which witnesses claimed were around candy that Croarkin used to lure young Schmitt to the riding academy were identified as having been purchased by Croarkin.

FAMILY QUARREL CAUSES SHOOTING

Frank Stone, 20, Is Critical at City Hospital.

A family quarrel led to the shooting of Frank Stone, 20, of 3935 Harvest Ave., Tuesday night, police said. He is at the city hospital today in a critical condition from bullet wounds in the mouth, shoulder and arm.

John Rairidon, 42, of 640 Collier Ave., brother-in-law of Stone, is held in the city prison charged with shooting with intent to kill. It was at his home the affray took place, according to Lieut. Fred Drinkut and emergency squad, who investigated.

Drinkut said Rairidon and his wife had quarreled last week, and Rairidon left home Saturday. Tuesday, Mrs. Rairidon and her two brothers, Frank and Mark Stone, went downtown and Rairidon returned to his home in their absence.

As soon as they entered the house he fired at Frank, who was in the lead, it is said. All grappled with Rairidon and obtained the gun. Leslie Stone, father of the injured man, held Rairidon for police.

'LAZY' HOLD-UP MAN TAKES $37

Two Filling Stations Robbed by Same Bandit.

Another "lazy" bandit was in action Tuesday night. He obtained but $37 in two filling station hold-ups, police said. He used a stolen auto.

While hundreds of persons entered a nearby theater he drove into the Standard Oil station at Central Ave. and Fall Creek Blvd. When F. C. Davis, 29, of 2514 E. Seventeenth St., attendant came to the car he thrust a gun at him and demanded money. When handed $12, he demanded that Davis go into the station and return with the contents of the safe, Davis told police.

Davis went into the station. When he saw the bandit remained in the car he slammed the door and jumped through a back window. Running to a nearby store he summoned police, but the bandit fled.

At Fourteenth and Illinois Sts., the same bandit held up L. J. Jones, 135 N. Sheffield Ave., attendant of a Western Oil station, but got out of his auto to do it. As they stood at g side the auto the bandit searched his pockets, Jones said. When told he did not carry money the bandit ordered Jones back into the station and took a total of $25 from the safe and cash register the attendant said. Squads headed by Lieutenants Winkler and Drinkut failed to find any trace of the bandit.

LITA TURNS DOWN $2,500 A WEEK SALARY TO CARE FOR HER BABIES

Editor's Note: This is the fourth and concluding article of a series by Dan Thomas, staff writer for The Times and NEA Service, giving an intimate picture of how Lita Grey Chaplin is living in the Chaplin mansion near Hollywood, waiting for a settlement of her divorce suit against the famous screen comedian.

By Dan Thomas NEA Service Writer (Copyright, 1927, NEA Service, Inc.) HOLLYWOOD, Cal., March 2.—Mrs. Charlie Chaplin has refused stardom because of her baby sons. She has refused two contracts which would start her with a salary of $2,500 a week and publicity which might make her a real star overnight.

"I will never return to the screen unless I must in order to support myself and babies," she told me as we talked together in the bright living-room of the Chaplin mansion.

"Besides, since I am the wife of the world's greatest comedian, they would expect me to be funny, too. But I couldn't bear it. It would remind me too much of Charlie, which is just what I don't want."

It is not generally known that Lita was also a "kid" in Chaplin's picture "The Kid." As a result of this picture, Jackie Coogan was made a star overnight and Chaplin met a girl of 12, who was to become his wife less than four years later.

Lita's part was small and the picture was not a success.

Know Your City

"Make a Friend for Indianapolis"

$500.00 in Cash Prizes To the School Teachers and Parents of Indianapolis:

Do you know that Indianapolis stands well near the top in the list of American cities as an art, educational and literary center?

Every school child in the city should be urged to enter our Letter-Writing Contest in the "KNOW YOUR CITY MOVEMENT TO MAKE FRIENDS FOR INDIANAPOLIS." The plan will arouse a spirit of civic pride in the minds of our future citizens. It will mean AN EDUCATION WITHIN ITSELF—a practical knowledge of the city in which they live.

Indianapolis has eighty-three public schools, four high schools and forty-seven free kindergartens. The new school building program includes the erection of several new grade schools and two more high schools. There are about twenty-two Catholic parochial high schools, grade schools and academies. Several nationally known colleges and universities. The John Herron Art Institute is one of the most noted art museums in the United States. Our Public Library is recognized as one of the most beautiful structures of Grecian architecture in the country. It contains over 225,000 volumes and maintains sixteen branches throughout the city.

These and other easily available worthwhile facts would help to attract the right kind of people to Indianapolis, if presented in an interesting way through friendly personal letters. Simply follow the contest rules, and

HOUSE SCORES BARRETT 'GRAB'

Bill Now Goes to Senate for Final Action.

The practice of retaining some $80,000 annually in Barrett law interest by Marion County treasurers was frowned on in the House of Representatives Tuesday when the Babcock-Borns bill passed, 83 to 0. It now goes to the Senate for final action.

The bill, which was amended on second reading to include only that part written by Alvah Rucker, former city corporation counsel, declares that interest on Barrett law funds shall be held in trust for the city by county treasurers and not put in the treasurers' pockets.

A Senate bill aimed at the same abuse is pending action by the House. The latter is said to contain a "joker clause," however, in the fact that interest for ten years in advance must be paid by property owners wishing to remove Barrett law liens from their property.

lie may remember only Jackie Coogan and Charlie. But those who really know say that he few scenes which Lita had in the picture showed rare talent.

She danced up and down, only a happy child, when Chaplin engaged her for leading lady in his great picture, "The Gold Rush." No one but Charlie and the studio employees ever saw her work in this, for the picture was only half completed when the leading lady gave up her job because she had married the leading man.

But these few on the inside of the job said that Lita, playing the role of a lovely girl in the frozen north-land, was exquisitely lovely, and a very capable actress.

Averts Stroke of Paralysis

Just the usual story of unselfish devotion to duty and neglected health—of utter disregard of Nature's danger signals, backache, fatigue, dizziness—these petty ailments that point to disordered kidneys and increasing blood pressure. Don't let the dread of apoplexy haunt your declining years. Take precaution before it is too late. Physicians for over half a century have prescribed Mountain Valley Mineral Water from Hot Springs, Ark., as an aid in the treatment and prevention of diseases resulting from kidney disorders.

Mr. Irving Lemaux Says: (President, Indianapolis Brush & Broom Co.) "Mountain Valley Water was, in my opinion, responsible for restoring our young son to good health, and is now contributing largely to the recovery of my aunt from high blood pressure and a stroke of paralysis."
