

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN — PICTURES BY KNICK

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The mouse that scampered down the clock, was likely now more than a block away, for when the Tines yelled it ran right out of sight. The Tines then all stopped right short. Said Clowdy, "I don't like this sport. Although that thing was just a mouse, it filled me up with fright."

Oh Mother Hubbard laughed away and said, "It won't be back today. I think the way you Tines screamed will make it quite afraid. And now that it is safely gone, why don't you play out on the lawn?" The Tines thought that would be nice, so that's right where they played.

The grass was soft and very green. The Tines enjoyed the scene. They played a game of hop and skip and jump for about an hour. Then Mother Hubbard loudly cried, "You'd better hurry here, inside. It's getting dark right over head. I think it's going to shower."

The Tines figured she was right, and so they scrambled out of sight. From window panes they watched the rain which started in to fall. It wasn't very long until the grass and trees had had their fill. Then Clowdy glanced outside and said, "It's stopped. I guess that's all."

Then they decided they should leave, and Copy said, "Say, I believe I saw a funny looking sheep down by that winding brook." The others cried, "We saw it, too. The very thing that we should do is ramble down the grassy hill and take a real good look."

The sheep they found was black as coal, and Copy said, "Well, bless my soul, it's surely Ba-Ba-Black Sheep that we have read about. And say, it surely has enough for everyone who wants a bit. Of that there is no doubt."

WHAT SHOULD BE DONE FOR RADIO FANS?

The Federal Radio Commission has asked for the views of listeners on the proposed broadcast regulations and the questions on which information from the public is sought have been summarized so as to require a "yes" or "no" answer. However, space has been provided for remarks that are informative.

Should this prove inadequate, they may be written on a special separate sheet and attached to the coupon. These will be welcomed by the Radio Editor, who will see to it that all coupons and letters are forwarded to the Federal commission.

For convenience it is suggested that readers use the attached ballot.

DETENTION HOME DELAY NEAR END

Lease Holder Agrees to Bear Repair Expense.

Agreement whereby the new County Detention Home, 225 E. Michigan St., will be repaired to meet approval of the board of State charities and the State fire marshal was understood to be near today.

It was reported at the courthouse that through James M. Davis, holder of a 99-year lease on the property, County Attorney Clinton H. Glavin, representing county commissioners, was successful in a proposal that the county make the repairs at the expense of the owner of the property.

Since modification of recommendations by the fire marshal's office, the building will need a fire escape, reinforcement of the interior stairway, fire-proof jacket around the furnace and an entire new rear stairway. The present rear stairway is of wood and in poor condition.

Givan said Davis was not in Indianapolis and nothing will be done until Davis confers with county officials.

CAMPAIGN FOR NURSERY

Drive Seeks to Raise Money for Needed Repairs.

The Indianapolis Day Nursery is conducting a campaign to raise $24,000 to pay for remodeling the nursery at 523 Lockerbie St. Forty-six business men have been organized into teams, with campaign headquarters at 106 English Hotel Bldg.

Miss Dorothy Cunningham is executive secretary of the fund campaign and today reported gifts of money from several Indianapolis clubs. The nursery takes care of children whose mothers are employed. Those older than 6 years are sent to the public school in the district.

Harper Ransberg is chairman of the campaign committee, and Mrs. Grace Urbahn, State treasurer, is treasurer of the campaign funds.

HOLDS CITY CAN BE MADE TO PAY

Barrett Law Bonds Must Be Redeemed, Rucker.

The city of Indianapolis can be held to pay all Barrett law bonds at the date of maturity, according to Alvah J. Rucker, former corporation counsel.

R. O. Scott, chief Barrett law clerk, has refused to pay bonds which matured June 1, 1922, because he said the city cannot collect money from the property against which these bonds were issued.

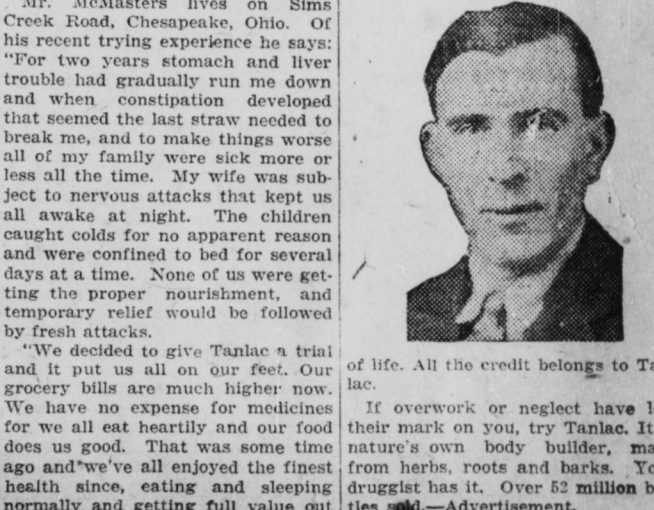

"In 28 Cyc. section 1609, it says very plainly that the city is responsible as a corporation to preserve and enforce lawful assessments and liens," Rucker declared. "If any person who holds such bonds wishes they can sue the city corporately and get judgment against it."

"We decided to give Tanlac a trial and it put us all on our feet. Our grocery bills are much higher now. We have no expense for medicines for we all eat heartily and our food does us good. That was some time ago and we've all enjoyed the finest health since, eating and sleeping normally and getting full value out of life. All the credit belongs to Tanlac."

If overwork or neglect have left their mark on you, try Tanlac. It is nature's own body builder, made from herbs, roots and barks. Your druggist has it. Over 52 million bottles sold.—Advertisement.

Whole Chesapeake Family Built to Rugged Health

L. M. McMasters, his wife and three children, all ill. Entire family used Tanlac and grew back to vigorous health. Give full credit to Tanlac for quick recovery.
