

CONSTITUTION CAN NOT BE BARTERED, ASSERTS GILLIOM

Attacks Ewbank's Answer in Lawmaker Pay Rehearing.

"The constitution cannot be thus bartered away."

This is the challenge of Attorney General Arthur L. Gilliom in an answer before the Supreme Court in defense of his petition for rehearing of the Legislative pay case. The new brief was brought out by an answer to the rehearing petition urging its denial, which was filed Tuesday by former Supreme Court Judge Louis B. Ewbank.

Brief Ignored

The Ewbank answer ignored a ninety-page brief prepared by the attorney general and filed with the rehearing petition.

Ewbank represents Senator James J. Nejd in an injunction suit to force State Auditor L. S. Bowman to pay the members of the 1927 Legislature $10 a day, which they voted themselves, rather than the $6 which they received and which Gilliom contends is legal. The injunction was refused by the Maron County Circuit Court, judges reversed the decision.

Attacking the Ewbank answer,

Gilliom's reply in part was as follows: "Appellants' brief is no more than a general denial to the charges of error assigned in the petition for rehearing. The petition contains more than ten printed pages, stating twelve causes for error. Appellants' brief contains less than ten typewritten pages and is addressed exclusively to the petition, taking up serially the twelve causes in the petition, and it does no more than to deny that the causes exist. It contains no reasons, authorities or argument, and ignores completely appellee's ninety-page brief.

Already Decided
"It should be said, however, that twelve times appellants' brief reminds the court that by a majority vote the court has already decided the questions presented by the petition. If there ever was a begging of the questions, appellants are doing that begging. Certainly the court decided the case, but the inquiry here is whether the decision is correct.

"Appellants' brief gives one the impression that it is considered either unsafe or else unnecessary for him to discuss the questions."

Pointing out that attention was called to the fact that Legislatures in the past raised officials salaries, the Gilliom answer states that such a suggestion is "out of place."

Reminded of Increase

It continues: "What appellants obviously sought to do was by that means to remind the court that the seventy-fifth session increased the salaries of the judges of the Supreme Court, who are now to decide this case, from $7,500 to $10,000 per year. No such increases to the Governor, to the attorney general or to the judges of the Supreme Court afford

Huge Embezzlement Charged

Charged with embezzlement of $516,322.16 either from the State of Nevada or the Carson Valley bank, Ed Malley, State treasurer; George A. Cole, former State controller and H. C. Clapp, former cashier of the bank, were arrested and held for examination. Malley is pictured above.

any legal or proper reason for sustaining the increase which the members of the Legislature provided unto themselves. The constitution cannot be thus bartered away.

"It is not a question of policy or reciprocity here. It is a question of power under the constitution. The reasonableness of the amount of compensation which the Legislature may fix for its members can never be a question for this court."

BEDFORD WINS CONFAB

Owls War on Rats

WASHINGTON—Cats, traps and poison have failed to end the plague of rats that infest Lord Howe Island in the South Seas. The Australian government sent an expert to see what could be done to relieve the eleven inhabitants, who threatened to quit the island. The expert sent for two cases of California barn owls, most persistent of all enemies of rats.

HAIR CURLS COLLECTED BY 'SHEIK'

Missouri Man Has Relics of Buggy Riding Days With Girls.

FULTON, Mo., May 19.—There was a time when girls thanked their escorts for Sunday buggy rides with a lock of hair, according to J. Roy Tucker, sometimes called 'Fulton's original sheik.'

But that was when they had enough hair to spare a curl once a week and never miss it.

Once popular with the girls, Tucker has attracted renewed interest with the revelation of a collection of 100 curls from as many heads buried in a trunk full of relics for thirty years and treasured as priceless memories of his youth.

Tucker was a student in Westminster college thirty years ago, owned an English phaeton buggy and two horses and spent his Sundays buggy-riding and curl collecting.

Won on Bet

He accumulated the curls as the result of a bet with a fellow student that he could take fifty girls buggy riding on fifty successive days without having the same girl twice. He got so much fun out of the variety that he continued the sport until he acquired 100 curls.

Since then Tucker's horses have died, ninety-four of the 100 girls have married and "jellybeans" in noise-making flippers take girls auto riding who haven't a lock of hair to spare.

One of the girls who contributed a curl to Tucker's collection still lives in Fulton and remembers the buggy ride.

"Roy was just grand," she said.

The first cast-iron gun, made in England, was produced in 1543 at the village of Buxted.

FOR Sour Stomach PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

Hereafter instead of soda take a little "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

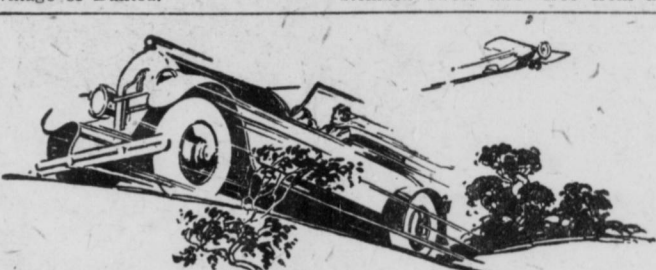

Better Than Soda

For fifty years genuine "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. Besides, it neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges this souring waste from the system without purging. It is far more pleasant to take than soda.

Try a 25c Bottle

Insist upon "Phillips." Twenty-five cent and fifty cent bottles, any drug store. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.—Advertisement.
