

JUDGES CHOSEN IN OPPORTUNITY REVUE CONTEST

Artist, Pastor and Woman
President of College to Pick Winner.

Judges for The Indianapolis Times and Public Theaters Opportunity Contest were announced today. Three were named, as follows:

Dr. Frank S. C. Wicks, pastor of All Souls Unitarian Church.

Mrs. Henry Schurmann, president Indiana College of Music and Fine Arts, former president of the Indiana Federation of Music Clubs.

Randolph L. Coats, Indiana artist. This completes arrangements for the contest in which an Indianapolis girl, to be known as Miss Indianapolis, in a stage revue, will be chosen.

Tryouts Next Week

Tryouts and auditions will begin at the Circle Theater next Monday evening, June 6, and continue the entire week. From the winners each night Miss Indianapolis will be chosen on June 14.

Contestants will be notified of the hour at which the tryouts will take place.

If you can sing, dance or play some musical instrument and have personality and talent, you can become Miss Indianapolis. A contract for nineteen to twenty-one weeks at a salary of $75 a week and railroad fares awaits the winner.

"Young America," the new personality revue, in which Miss Indianapolis will have a part and be starred when the show comes to Indianapolis—opens at the Paramount Theater, New York, on July 9. A tour of America's largest cities has been booked.

New York Trip Included

Miss Indianapolis will report in New York on June 24 for rehearsals. A wonderful program of entertainment has been arranged for the girls chosen from the various cities. They will be entertained by stage and screen stars, have their work watched by producers who ever are seeking new faces for their productions and make trips to points of interest about New York.

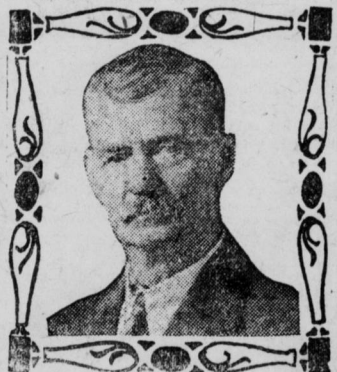

While on tour many of the hotels will have the "personality" girls as their guests. Newspapers will play host in some of the cities. It is an opportunity that does not come often.

Photographs must be submitted before midnight, June 4. If you do not have a photograph, Dexheimer will make one free for this contest.

KIDNEY TROUBLE BROUGHT PAINS OF RHEUMATISM

He Got the New Konjola.

This celebrated new Konjola compound has become the most highly recommended medicine in the State of Indiana and all other States, wherever introduced. The people of

MR. DENNIS A. MURPHY

Indianapolis are strongly endorsing Konjola in cases of stomach, liver, kidney and bowel disorders or rheumatic troubles.

Just a few days ago, Mr. Dennis A. Murphy, well-known Indianapolis citizen, living at 815 Indiana Ave., this city, made the following statement in a signed report which he gave to the Konjola Man at Hook's Drug Store, Pennsylvania and Market Sts., who is meeting the public daily and explaining this medicine.

"I had kidney trouble for several years," said Mr. Murphy, "and I was never able to find anything to help me, so in recent years the kidney trouble brought on rheumatism. My knees and ankles were swollen and my back was sore and aching at all times. I was told that my kidneys had poisoned my whole system. This led to rheumatism and the pains were getting worse all the time. Finally I was taken down in bed and for six weeks I could barely move myself. The pains were sharp and terrific.

"I had been hearing about Konjola and so I sent for this medicine. It seemed to drive all kinds of poisons from my system and improved my kidneys the first week. I was able to get out of bed and my rheumatism was beginning to ease up. I kept right on with Konjola and now I am able to go down town. The pains in my back are gone, and my kidneys never give me any trouble. I also notice that I am free of indigestion and stomach trouble. My appetite is increased.

"I think Konjola is a wonderful medicine to bring all this relief and I strongly endorse it."

The Konjola Man is at Hook's Drug Store, Pennsylvania and Market Sts., Indianapolis, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Konjola is sold in every hook drug store in this city and all druggists throughout this section.—Advertisement.

BRITISH BREAK AIDS U. S. TRADE

Rush of Orders Reported for American Goods.

By Times Special—WASHINGTON, June 2.—The break in British-Russian relations is booming United States trade with Russia.

Since the "Arcos" smashup in London, there has been a great increase in Russian orders for American goods, according to Harold Kellogg of the Russian Soviet Information Bureau here.

All Soviet trading companies which handle Russian purchases here, he said, report marked increases in orders.

It is understood that one of the important shifts will be in machinery, to equip the rapidly expanding Russian textile industry. During the period of Russian recognition by England, textile machinery was purchased there. Now, it is reported, the purchases will be made in the United States.

It is expected that the volume of Russian trade with the United States substantially will exceed last year's total of approximately $75,000,000.

Last year's United States-Russian trade, although affected by the lack of diplomatic accord between the two countries, was almost twice as great as the total in 1913, the year before the World War. Cotton accounted for almost half of the total trade.

Survivor of 133 Wounds at Veterans' Reunion

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Veterans of the fighting 2nd Division, who swapped tales at their convention here today of ghastly hours in Belleau Wood nine years ago, saw many changes in comrades of those days, but had most difficulty recognizing Private Wallace H. Smith, "the most wounded man in the A. E. F."

Smith, who lives here, came back from France almost a skeleton, weighing ninety-five pounds, his body shot through with shrapnel, suffering from 133 wounds incurred in the battle of Belleau Wood, where the Second helped stop a mighty German drive for Paris in June, 1918.

The man who called old buddies today by their first names weighed 245 pounds, and did not look like one who was given up by physicians and underwent forty operations. He was once reported dead by the War Department.

Two officers of the division have since gained literary fame with graphic pen pictures of war days. Capt. Laurence Stallings, author of "What Price Glory," and Capt. John W. Thomason, Jr., author of "Fix Bayonets," still in the service and now stationed here.

But these men told no stories so horrible as the experience of Smith, only survivor of a party of replacement troops which lost its way one night and found itself at dawn in "no man's" land, a half-mile from the German lines.

"When the Germans saw us they let us have everything they had," he said today.
