Twice Honored 'FIRST CITIZEN' IN LOS ANGELES USURY SCANDAL

Uplifters' Head One of 15 Eminent Men to Charge 228 Per Cent.

LOS ANGELES, June 10.—The authorities' first fishing trip into the California bankers' pools, involved in the $50,000,000 Julian Petroleum Company scandal, has resulted in hooking one of America's leading patriots.

He is Harry M. Haldeman, founder and first president of the Better America Federation, defender of the Constitution and the flag, and Star-Spangled scourge of all reds, pinks, liberals, etc.

He is accused in a complaint by City Prosecutor E. J. Lickley of being a member of a bankers' pool, which loaned $1,000,000 to wreckers of Julian Petroleum Company, at rates so far above the legal rate of interest as to make one dizzy.

Pool No. 1, to which Haldeman and fifteen other eminent citizens belonged, charged E. C. Lewis, Julian Petroleum's manager, a total of $760,000 for the use of $1,000,000 for four months. That was at the rate of 228 per cent annual interest.

Haldeman has returned his usury share but the complaint charging him with violating the State's usury law remains. His name being the first to break into the newspapers' great consternation followed. He has led in all patriotic drives here. He is Unifirst's Club president. Recently he was awarded a gold watch by booster bodies as the city's "most useful citizen."

He and his better American federation have purged the colleges of "radicalism." They have outlawed the nation and new republic from school libraries. They have hunted the "parlor pinks." They even attacked the Y. W. C. A. as radical.

Motor of Lindy's Plane Revolution in Science

Uplifters' Head One of 15 Eminent Men to Charge 228 Per Cent.

This is the Wright Whirlwind motor which took Captain Lindbergh to Paris. Insert shows details of crankcase. A, the crankshaft; B, "mother bearing"; C, piston rod.

BY ISRAEL KLEIN Science Editor, N.E.A. Service The motor that speeded Captain Lindbergh and his airplane across the American continent and the Atlantic in three giant hops is the latest development in aviation.

Simple as it is, it has caused a revolution in airplane design. Its remarkable success in making a trip of more than 6,500 miles, at a pace of 100 miles an hour and without a hitch, is bound to make a profound impression on future aviation.

The engine is what is called an air-cooled, radial motor. The one Lindbergh used was a Wright Whirlwind, made by the Wright Aeronautical Corporation, a pioneer in this type of engine design.

Two essential facts make this motor different from others. First, it is air cooled. Second, and more significant, its nine cylinders are arranged in a circle around a crankshaft with only one throw.

ADVERTISING IS PRAISED Chicagoans Say It Made Living Standards Better. Bettered standards of living were credited to modern advertising methods by W. Frank McClure, Chicago, before the Indianapolis Advertising Club Thursday night.

"Most modern advertising will stand on its merits because most advertisers have learned that it pays to tell the truth," McClure said.

ARMY, NAVY IN ROW OVER LINDY'S PLANE

Gobs Apparently Will Assemble Machine—Doughboys Indignant.

This is the Wright Whirlwind motor which took Captain Lindbergh to Paris. Insert shows details of crankcase. A, the crankshaft; B, "mother bearing"; C, piston rod.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The simple but honorable task of assembling the mechanical half of the combination "we" which bridged the Atlantic from New York to Paris is destined to cause bitter feeling here between Uncle Sam's gobs and doughboys at the navy and army air stations.

Each group is fighting for the job, but as matters now stand mechanics at the navy station will uncrate the "Spirit of St. Louis" and put the plane in condition for Col. Charles Lindbergh's flight Monday morning to New York City.

Army Protests The army doughboys are making a vociferous protest over these arrangements, contending the plane should be turned over to them for assembly because Lindbergh is an army reserve pilot.

"The army," said one high army air service officer today, "is not in accord with arrangements for assembling Lindbergh's plane. Lindbergh is one of our crack Kelly Field products and the army feels its mechanics should have the privilege of fixing his plane."

Naval Viewpoint As arrangements now stand, the "Spirit of St. Louis" will be taken from the cruiser Memphis tomorrow noon, placed on a navy tug or ferry and carried down the Anacostia River to the navy air station for uncrating and setting up. The army assembling shops are located on the same field with the navy's, but lie some two miles away. Navy fliers say there is danger of smashing the plane's wings if it were transported to the army shops on a truck.

So many shillings are put into London gas meters that a coin shortage often exists until the meters can be cleared and the coins put into circulation again.

Indicted

Former Chief of Police Lengel of Canton, Ohio, is the fifth man to be indicted in connection with the murder of Don Mellett crusading editor.

Superintendent E. S. Shumaker will not accept challenge of the Rev. Joseph F. Weber, rector of Assumption Church, to debate the merits or demerits of the Wright bone-dry law. The challenge was hurled at a meeting at the Athenaeum Thursday night, where modification of the Indiana prohibition laws to permit medicinal whiskey was urged.

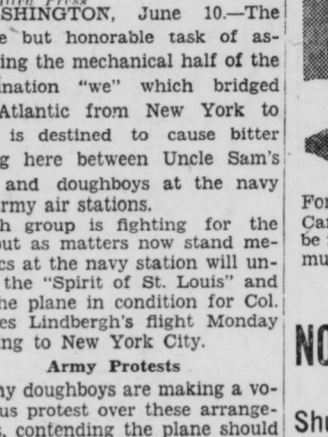

Father Weber flayed Shumaker and offered to debate him "at any time and any place."

"Shumaker is living an dthriving upon a false justice, taking money from poor widows," he said. "I'm for light wines and beers."

"I have no desire to enter into any personal altercation with Father Weber," Shumaker said today. "I will present our side before the Newcastle Rotary Club this month and Attorney General Arthur L. Gilliom later will present the argument for medicinal whiskey. I understand. That is the sort of debate I favor."

TECHNICAL AND CATHEDRAL PUT ON EXERCISES

Nearly Eight Hundred Graduate From Two High Schools.

This is the Wright Whirlwind motor which took Captain Lindbergh to Paris. Insert shows details of crankcase. A, the crankshaft; B, "mother bearing"; C, piston rod.

Thirty Cathedral High School graduates and 755 Technical High School graduates received diplomas at commencement Thursday night. Bishop Joseph Chartrand presented the diplomas at the Cathedral exercises at the school. Edward A. Comes, 1038 Harland St., winner of gold medal for having the highest scholastic record for the four-year course, was valedictorian. Comes received a gold medal from Bishop Chartrand and Edward J. Meunier, 1634 N. Alabama St., received a Knights of Columbus medal for having the second highest record.

The Rev. Dr. Richard Collentine, Notre Dame University, delivered the commencement address. Pioneers Studied The first concern of early American settlers was education, declared Dr. Herbert L. Willis, professor of Oriental languages, University of Chicago, at the Technical exercises at the Cathedral.

Although schools were organized in Europe at the time of settlement in America, we are entitled to our claim of being pioneers in the public school system, Dr. Willis said.

Bishop Joseph M. Francis delivered the invocation, following an exhortation by Miss Sarah Elizabeth Miller and numbers by the school orchestra.

Scholarships Given The boys glee club and Miss Mary Alice McCarty sang. Faculty scholarship medals were awarded Ezra Blount and Marion White. James Whitcomb Riley scholarship medal was given Gladys Hawickhorst.

The Marie E. Benninger medal for the student who has exerted the most wholesome influence on the student body was awarded Stanfield Krueger.

The annual alumni reunion and dance will be held in the school gymnasium tonight.
