

tioners are elected on a non-partisan ticket.

The manager leaders will have a ticket of leading citizens which they will seek to put in office. Although Republican County Chairman George V. Coffin made no open effort to defeat the manager form, it is believed political factions will seek control of the commission.

Manager leaders will direct educational activities at the Negro voters, who cast a light vote Tuesday.

The victory at the polls Tuesday is culmination of nearly three years' effort on the part of leading business and professional men.

Vote About Duvall 1935 Total
While the number of votes cast Tuesday was far below the 95,024 of the 1925 municipal election, more persons voted Tuesday to repudiate Mayor John L. Duvall than voted for his election two years ago.

Duvall received 52,280 votes as against the 53,862 for the manager form Tuesday.

The manager movement carried every ward and all but three precincts, these in Negro districts.

Mayor Loses Own Precinct
Duvall lost his home precinct, the Forty-Sixth of the Fourth, the vote being 263 for the manager to 65 against. Republican County Chairman George V. Coffin was given an even greater blow in his home precinct, the Ninth of the Fourth ward. The vote there was 465 for the manager to 23 against.

As was predicted, the heaviest votes for the manager plan were in the north side and Irvington wards, but the south and west side wards, while not piling up as large totals, gave the manager form almost as great a percentage as the other sections.

MILE-LONG PLEA IN SACCO CASE
Petition of 500,000 Names Sent to Governor Fuller.

By United Press
BOSTON, June 22.—Nearly a mile long and containing approximately half a million names, an international petition asking a public investigation of the Sacco-Vanzetti murder case was presented to Governor Alvan T. Fuller's office today.

The petition, consisting of two paper rolls each about two and a half feet in diameter, was taken to the Statehouse in an automobile by Gardner Jackson and Joseph Moro of the Sacco-Vanzetti defense committee.

It was believed the petition might be viewed at today's meeting of the executive council.

Signers of the petition included almost every class of person from the humblest to the highest, the names of eminent educators and captains of industry being sandwiched among those of common laborers.

Governor Fuller now is reviewing the sensational case of Sacco and Vanzetti, who, unless he intervenes, probably will die in the electric chair the week of July 10 for two murders committed more than seven years ago.

BANK HAS LONE COIN
Close Doors, Vaults Contain Only Six-Cent Piece.

By United Press
NAPLES, June 22.—The equivalent of six cents, in the form of a one-cent coin, was the total found in the vaults of the Bank of Vico Equense, near here, when it failed.

The bank, a small rural one serving the peninsula of Sorrento, had been thought sound, and it closed without warning.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Alton Barbou, colored, was arrested going thirty-eight miles an hour. "I was in a funeral procession, your honor," he said. "I was trying to keep up with the hearse."

VERY WEAK AND EASILY UPSET
Lady Says She Could Scarcely Drag Around Until She Took Cardui. Tells How She Got Well and Strong.

"I was very much run down—my strength seemed to have all left me," says Miss Grace L. Smith of Exeter, Mo. "I was so weak and depressed, I had almost given up hope of ever being well again."

"At times I suffered with spells of severe headache. I hadn't enough strength to throw these off. I was very nervous. The least little thing would upset me. I could not stand any noise, and sometimes I was on the verge of hysterics. I did not sleep well at night."

"The extreme weakness which troubled me was my greatest ailment. I could not find anything that would help it until I began taking Cardui. I had known about Cardui for some time, and when I found I wasn't getting any better, I tried it."

"Cardui proved to be a wonderful friend, for after I had taken it a short time I was decidedly better. I kept up the tonic for several months, as I wanted my improvement to be permanent."

"All the aches and pains I had disappeared, and I was feeling well and strong again. Before I took Cardui I could scarcely drag around, but it is not that way now. I feel better than I have felt in two years."

Cardui is sold by all druggists.

328 CONVICTS RIOT, RETREAT TO COAL MINE

Guard Stabbed in Cell Fight During Mutiny at Kansas Prison.

By United Press
LANSING, Kas., June 22.—Officials of the Kansas Penitentiary today still were without word from 328 convicts barricaded within a mine shaft of the prison.

The men mutinied yesterday noon, overpowered fourteen guards, whom they are holding prisoners, and announced they would not surrender unless granted permission to receive cigarettes from friends outside.

Last night other prisoners in the big institution noted within their cells. J. F. Thomas, a guard, was stabbed and is in a serious condition today.

Disturbances leading to the riot began last Sunday when the repeal of the Kansas anti-cigarette bill went into effect, prisoners demanded permission to receive cigarettes. This was refused and threats of mutiny were whispered.

Cry Was Ignored
Monday men in the mines beat on metal buckets and cars, shouting, "No cigarettes, no coal." No attention was paid to them.

Shortly before noon the open break came. How the men gained command of the situation is not known as no communication has been established. Guards in the mine were armed only with clubs. It is assumed they were rushed from behind before they could give warning.

The prisoners have blocked the cage to their level, 720 feet below the surface, and refuse to answer the telephone.

The attitude of officials is expressed by a statement made by Warden Mackey in San Antonio last night. He said he "hoped the animals were safe."

Cell Riot Short
The riot in the cellhouse was of short duration. As the prisoners fled to their cells after being counted in, eleven of them formed a group near one of the inner doors and attacked the guards as they followed at the rear of the line. J. F. Thomas was the last guard in.

"You'll play hell locking me in a cell," he told the men.

A scuffle ensued and Thomas was stabbed. R. H. Hudspeth, acting warden in the absence of Warden W. H. Mackey, hastily summoned all remaining guards.

Breaking in a window, Hudspeth fired two shots and one prisoner fell, shot through the leg. The others surrendered.

No action is to be taken by authorities in connection with the men in the mine. There is no food and little water available for them and it is only a question of time until they will be forced to surrender, it was said.

32 Prisoners Sought
By United Press
HOUSTON, Texas, June 22.—A posse of 400, composed of 300 citizens and 100 officers, aided by several packs of bloodhounds, today searched the thickets of the Trinity river bottoms for thirty-two escaped prisoners who last night executed a break from the Ferguson prison farm at Bay City.

Only three of the thirty-five who made the break by saving their way through steel bars of the farm had been captured at noon today. The others had scattered through the dense willow and cottonwood groves of the river bottom.

CHICAGO PLANS 'WAR'
Lindbergh May See Windy City Military Maneuvers.

By United Press
CHICAGO, June 22.—Whether or not Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, America's greatest flier, can attend, Chicago will have its greatest war show in Grant Park next Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

With seven squadrons of airplanes, two dirigibles, regiments from Ft. Sheridan and the 33rd Tank Company, 131st, 132nd Infantry, 122nd Field Artillery and 202nd Anti-Aircraft, Illinois National Guard, Col. T. A. Siqueland, officer in charge, has arranged a program that will show every device and method used in modern war.

NEW PLANES BY FORD

One for Light Transport—Second Is Air Filiver.

By United Press
DETROIT, Mich., June 22.—A new type, light weight, all metal monoplane, less expensive and more durable than the present transport plane, will be completed within two weeks by the Ford Motor Company, it was learned today. The wing span of the transport plane, fifty-eight feet in single motor and sixty-eight feet in tri-motored machines, will be reduced to forty-five feet in the new model. The new plane will be built for passenger service on small lines not requiring the larger transport plane.

Ford also has constructed a tiny, single-seated monoplane with a wing span of only twenty-two feet, but has not yet started producing them.

LINDBERGH TO GIVE AIR DATA

Called to Washington for Conference.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, June 22.—Charles Lindbergh's proposed Washington visit is designed to give the Army, Navy and Commerce Department air chiefs the advantage of his views on European aviation and to assist him, if he desires, in making plans for his future. This developed here today following word from St. Louis that he proposed to fly to the capital.

Col. Lindbergh virtually has decided to turn orator for two months and make a nation-wide lecture tour, the United Press was informed today by a usually reliable authority.

The proposed lecture tour would take him to nearly every large city in the country. There is a strong possibility he would make his jumps in the Spirit of St. Louis.

Lindbergh wants to acquire a working capital before entering business, and he wants to earn it "by the sweat of his own brow." This he could do on the lecture platform. He also believes his speaking program would aid aviation.

FIRST SUMMER DAY PLEASANT

Nature's Prank Sends Cool Winds Over City.
Nature did trick stuff today to give Indianapolis sunshine and not too hot weather for the first day of summer.

If it were not for the cool breezes, seemingly from the south, the temperatures would be above the point that most people consider comfortable according to J. H. Armstrong, United States Weather Bureau head.

But the cool winds are not from the south, according to Armstrong. By a not uncommon freak of nature, the winds really are from the northwest and have circled south over Kentucky and neighboring southern States to approach Indianapolis from that direction.

A high pressure area west of the middle Mississippi district, causing winds to rotate about it, is responsible.

The storm which caused the rains here Tuesday passed to the north-east sooner than expected, to help make today's weather ideal for ordinary folks and fairly good for the farmers, Armstrong said.

Temperatures today are about normal and the fair weather will continue tomorrow, he said.

Manager Leaders Predict Better City Government

Vote Shows 'Best Citizens Predominate'—Ask Continued Support.

Manager leaders issued statements today following the victory at the polls Tuesday.

"Indianapolis has taken the first step to redeem herself," said Campaign Chairman Frank E. Gates, former president of Indianapolis real estate board.

"The past faith in Indianapolis should be multiplied many times by the results. It means good government and good government is necessary to stable, substantial growth."

Gates asked that citizens continue to follow manager leaders by "supporting seven good capable efficient men for commissioners, assuring the best municipal government Indianapolis ever had."

"It can no longer be said that Indianapolis does not desire good government. The referendum proved that the best citizens predominate," said Claude H. Anderson, executive secretary.

James H. Lowry, campaign committee member said:

"Disgusted with petty graft, favoritism and inefficiency, the citizenship has risen in righteous anger and demanded that the reins of government be returned to the hands of the people, who pay the cost of government."

"It is the dawn of a new era when government under the manager commission plan will function to insure the happiness and well being of our entire citizenship, without regard to party, race or religious affiliation."

Roy Lewis, organizer, said: "A new organization with volunteer workers from men and women in every walk of life has made it possible to wrest the government from hands of politicians and put it into the hands of the people, where it rightfully belongs. They will not fail to carry on. My faith in the organization is strengthened by my intimate knowledge of how well it has worked thus far."

Mrs. Lehman M. Dunning, women organizer, said: "Every lover of Indianapolis should find much in the results of yesterday's election to stimulate his pride. The thing that overshadows everything else is that Indianapolis by a large majority in every ward, has resolved to banish partisan politics from city government and to establish a people's government for the people's benefit."

"If the same broad and patriotic spirit that was manifested at the polls shall continue, and it should increase rather than diminish, June 21, 1937, will become a red letter day in the history of Indianapolis."

MIND'S POWER RECOGNIZED BY MEDICAL MEN

New Thought Leader As- serts Doctors Use Mental Healing.

The medical profession as a whole is constantly laying more stress upon mental condition of patients who are being treated for purely physical ills, declared the Rev. Columbus Bradford of Washington, who spoke this afternoon before the congress of the International New Thought Alliance at the Claypool.

"At the recent convention of the American Medical Association in Washington, the importance of the mental in relation to the physical, was stressed as it has probably never been before at such a convention," he said, "and reports which were distinctly an advocacy of treating physical ills, at the same time taking the mental into consideration, were accepted without controversy."

"The churches are rapidly falling in line, with the realization that right mental and spiritual condition, bearing upon the physical, can make for the marvelous healings that we formerly associated only with Jesus' time. And the unmistakable present-day religious trend is toward this old-time healing of physical ills."

Ray L. Trent, president of the Indiana Council on International Relations and a former teacher of economics in Indiana and Wisconsin Universities, discussed the world peace movement at the afternoon session.

Mrs. W. D. Long, Miss Helen Coffey and Mrs. George M. Reeder gave a musical dramatic program. Mrs. Mary Chapin of New York City, international president, led a silent devotional period.

A banquet will be held at the Claypool tonight. Music will be furnished by the Orloff quintet and several hundred out-of-town delegates will attend. The banquet is open to the public.

OFFER ESSAY PRIZES
Realtors Plan Contests to Boost Campaign.

Four essay contests for the purpose of continuing the "Buy a Piece of Indianapolis" campaign spirit started today under auspices of the Indianapolis Real Estate Board. A subcommittee of the continuation committee of twenty-five approved the contest program and will submit it to the larger group today.

Subjects for the essays follow: "The ten best reasons why one should own a piece of Indianapolis;" "What forms the basis for the present prosperity of Indianapolis;" "Why Indianapolis has grown in population;" and "Why I want my parents to buy a home in Indianapolis."

The last is open only to students in Marion County High Schools. Three hundred dollars in eight prizes will be given in the latter contest. Twenty-four lots, donated by board members, are prizes in the other three.

The contests will close Sept. 1. All manuscripts must be written in ink or typewritten and mailed to board headquarters, 821 Lemcke Bldg.

BORAH HEADS FOR HOME

Declares Flood and Farm Relief Most Urgent Issues.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, June 22.—Chairman Borah of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today started preparations for a trip to Idaho, his home State, to study the reaction to flood and farm relief proposals.

This domestic legislation outranks foreign affairs in importance just now, he believes.

The Idaho leader has only one speech scheduled for his vacation. It will be at Denver next Tuesday. He will discuss important domestic problems.

TAKE 2 BANDITS; COUPLE ESCAPE
Filling Station Attendant, Car Conductor Victims.

Two hold-up men were captured by police early today after a ten-block chase, but two others robbed an Illinois street car conductor and escaped with $40.

Luther Blair, 29, of 513 S. East St., and Roy Sheets, 28, of 550 Fletcher Ave., were charged with auto banditry after police said they admitted holding up Frank Lotz, 20 N. Alton St., attendant at the Great Western Oil Company filling station at 3432 W. Washington St., at 1 a. m.

Police recovered the $44.17 loot. Lotz took the money at the point of a gun, Blair said, while Sheets waited in the auto. Sgt. Otto Pettit and squad, in search of the bandits, sighted their auto at Tenth St. and Belmont Ave. They forced them to stop at the curb at Washington St.

Two passengers rode to near the end of the line and one of them drew a gun and took $40 from Lon Carver, Illinois street car conductor. They jumped from the car and fled when he followed their orders and signalled the motorman to stop.

ALCOHOL FOUND IN KLAN AUTO
Pastor Renn Declares Half Pint Was 'Planted.'

By Times Special
NORTH VERNON, Ind., June 22.—Just how a half pint of alcohol got into an automobile in which the Rev. A. P. Renn, a Ku Klux orator, and Jason A. Hooten, horse-thief detective, from Indianapolis, were riding is something which bothered Renn and Hooten as much as local officers who arrested them.

Renn testified in the city court trial of Hooten that he believed some one put the liquor in the car and then "discovered" it so an arrest could be made. The judge fined Hooten $100 and costs and sentenced him to thirty days.

Attorney Lawrence Shaw of Indianapolis immediately appealed Hooten's case to Circuit Court. Shaw earlier had obtained the discharge of Renn and Hooten on charges of trespassing.

Renn was a witness in the Reed probe of Indiana politics last year.
