

AIMEE TO END TEMPLE SCRAP

Evangelist Speeds West to Restore Peace.

By United Press
LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 22.—Annoying but not serious disagreements in the ranks of the workers of the famous Angelus Temple, are bringing its founder, Aimee Semple McPherson, evangelist, back home, according to her mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy.

Mrs. Kennedy dismissed the incident with a wave of her hand and branded them "too trifling" to discuss, and intimated her daughter would solve all the problems immediately upon her arrival.

"There is no trouble between 'sis-ter' and I," she said. "But she really is the head of the temple and can run it better than any one else. While she had visions of a new gospel empire in the East, she is badly needed here."

To the Editor of The Times: Dear Sir: For several years I have been engaged on a research project, having as my object to ascertain the true identity of the famous Four Horsemen. I have to date been able to fix the identity of only three: John Gilpin, Ichabod Crane and Barney Googie.

Can any of your readers tell me the name of the fourth of this renowned quartet?

Very truly yours,
HOR(A)SE.

SOVIETS HELP LIBRARY

Russia and Rockefeller Back Big Japanese Undertaking

By United Press
MOSCOW, July 22.—Soviet Russia is helping to rebuild and re-equip the Japanese State Library at Tokyo, wrecked by earthquake in 1923.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., already has contributed 4,000,000 yen, approximately $2,000,000, to the building fund.

The Soviet Academy of Science has sent to Japan copies of all its recent scientific publications, the Soviet State Printing Trust has forwarded 5,000 books and the Central Soviet Library has dispatched one copy of every magazine and pamphlet published in the Soviet Union since 1917. The Tokyo library now possesses a complete file of every scientific and literary publication of the Soviet Union since the Bolshevik revolution.

REALTORS MAY CLOSE SUNDAYS

Final Action Deferred, but Majority Favor Plan.

Indianapolis realtors failed to reach a definite agreement on Sunday opening of new homes and apartments at the Real Estate Board meeting Thursday.

Sentiment of the majority of realtors present was apparently against Sunday opening, an unofficial vote indicated.

"Closing Sundays would elevate the real estate business," Thomas F. Carson said. "I feel that it cheapens property to have 'lookers' running through promiscuously all day Sunday. Too many just run in to look with no thought of buying."

Similar sentiment was expressed by a number of other realtors, including Joseph Schmid of Schmid & Smith; Henley T. Hottel of the Washington Bank and Trust Co.; H. G. Knight of Bankers Trust; Robert Schoen of Schoen-Morgan Co., said he was strongly in favor of keeping new homes open Sunday.

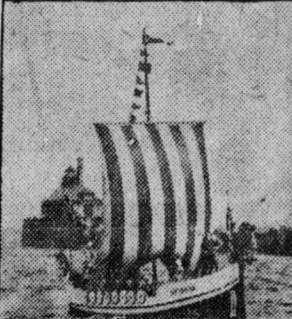

"We sell a large percentage of our homes through Sunday visits," he said. "Of course, we have never sold a home on Sunday, but frequently those who visit these homes on Sunday drop in to our offices on Tuesday or Wednesday of the same week."

'IF FIRST YOU SUCCEED, DON'T TRY, TRY AGAIN'

New Maxim Learned by Negro Youth Held by Police.

Willie Joiner, 16, Negro, 2106 Wendell Ave., has learned a new maxim: "If at first you do succeed, don't try, try again."

Joiner broke from Motorcycle Officer Morton, after his arrest for attempting to break into a barber shop at Massachusetts Ave. and Avondale Pl., Thursday evening.

Later Mrs. Violet Green, 815 E. Nineteenth St., saw him start to crawl in a side window at the home of John Heithan, next door. Robert

Rahn, a roomer at the Heithan home caught Joiner after a chase and held him for police.

Quite a reception committee greeted Joiner at city prison. His brother, Memphis, 20, had been arrested earlier in the day for petit larceny, and an officer recognized

Willie as an ex-inmate of the Indiana Boys' School.
