

MARION COUNTY FRATERNAL DAY FETE ARRANGED

Orders Will Hold Parade and Jubilee Here on Sept. 15.

A mammoth parade through the downtown streets and a jubilee at some central place are the plans of Associated Fraternities of Marion County for celebrating Fraternal Day, Sept. 15. The executive committee of the association, meeting in the clubrooms of the Modern Woodmen Hall, 322 E. New York St., Wednesday, selected the date and started preparations.

All fraternal organizations of Marion County will be invited to participate. Negotiations are being made for a permit to use the Circle for termination of the parade and location for the jubilee of games and dancing.

Committees Named

Committees appointed for the festivities are:

Arrangements, W. A. Edwards, Maccabees; M. T. Wright, Modern Woodmen; Mrs. W. O. Murphy, Rebekahs, and Goldie Swartz, Patriotic Order of America. Parade, Harry Argus, Modern Woodmen; H. C. Rockwood, I. O. O. F. and Otto Fulginiti, Knights of Pythias. Entertainment, Louie Mills, Ben-Hur; William Bonestell, Druids; Russell Duffie, Red Men; Dr. Hugh Davey, Moose, and Mrs. J. H. Abernathy, Degree of Honor. Music, Josephine Trulove, Lady Maccabees; Leona Pevy, Yeomen, and H. S. Schenk, Marion County Association of I. O. O. F. publicity; J. E. Dodson, Knights of Pythias; Minnie Sawyer, Pocahontas, and Florence McGregory, Daughters of Rebekah.

Urge Big Attendance

Although each lodge is limited to two voting delegates, the association is seeking a large attendance at its next meeting Wednesday evening in the I. O. O. F. hall, S. East and Prospect Sts.

E. H. Palmer, president of the Associated Fraternities, will preside. David Killian is vice president and Mattie Hopkins is secretary.

Resolutions were adopted commending The Times for having started its fraternal page, which appears each Friday. They expressed appreciation of the associated fraternities and other orders represented for cooperation of The Times in giving the organizations desired publicity.

In addition to a large number of visitors, the members of the executive body present were David A. Bland, Maccabees; W. T. Wright, Modern Woodmen; H. S. Schenk, Marion County Association of I. O. O. F.; Alva Payne, Red Men; Mrs. J. H. Abernathy, Degree of Honor; Sidney Basch, American Insurance Union; Josephine Trulove, Lady Maccabees; W. O. Teyton, Ben-Hur; Mrs. Harry Miley, Junior Yeoman; Mrs. Leona M. Kimmel, American Yeoman; Mrs. Minnie Sawyer, Pocahontas; Mrs. W. O. Murphy, Rebekah; Hattie Hopkins, Pocahontas, and F. H. Rolder, Knights of Pythias.

DEDICATE NEW TEMPLE

Indiana Hive of Maccabees Join In Detroit Celebration.

An unusual long program kept the women's drill team of Indiana Hive of Maccabees from competing with teams from other states and from Canada at the dedicatory ceremonies in Detroit recently.

The new Maccabees temple and international headquarters were dedicated Saturday. About 25 Indianapolis delegates and the drill team were among the crowd of 5,000 taking part in the celebration.

1,000 PYTHIANS FROM CITY WILL SEE DEDICATION

Senator James E. Watson Will Be Principal Speaker at Lafayette.

Approximately 1,000 Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters of Indianapolis lodges will help dedicate the Indiana K. of P. Home at Lafayette, Aug. 10.

Harry Wade, president of the insurance department of the Supreme Lodge, is chairman of the building committee. He will be in charge of the ceremonies.

Two Cars Are Chartered
Two traction cars have been chartered by the insurance department to take employees and their families to the Lafayette meeting.

Numerous lodges of the city are preparing bus parties and automobile caravans for the journey. Carl Mitchell, grand keeper of records and seals, said:

A parade through the downtown streets with various units taking part will begin the day's celebration. Plans for the ceremonies have been made by State officers and outlined by L. B. Elmore, Monticello, grand chancellor of the order.

Watson Will Be Speaker
James E. Watson, United States Senator, will be the principal speaker at the dedication ceremonies. Initiatory work at night will end the day's activities.

Several national officers of the K. of P., in addition to the State officers, are expected to attend. Richard Witte, Milwaukee, supreme chancellor, supreme keeper of records and seals; Alva M. Lupkin, Columbia, S. C., supreme vice-chancellor, and Samuel Traube, Shelbyville, major general uniform rank, are among those expected to take part.
