

BIG PARADE ON LINDBERGH DAY BEING PLANNED

Colonel to Ride in Marmon at Head of Procession Here Aug. 9.

Col. Charles Lindbergh will ride at the head of one of Indianapolis' greatest parades Aug. 9 in an Indianapolis model automobile, a special open model Marmon.

Mayor Duval, executive chairman, has received telegraphic confirmation from the Guggenheim foundation that Lindbergh will be here Aug. 9, landing at Mars Hill airport at 2 p. m.

The afternoon mass meeting committee, headed by Postmaster Robert H. Bryson, has accepted the offer of the State Fair Board to donate the use of the fairground Coliseum.

Business men and civic leaders will have an opportunity to hear Col. Lindbergh at the banquet in the evening at the Columbia Club. Reservations for 550 guests will be made.

Auto Parade Through City

Members of the executive and sub-committees will meet Colonel Lindbergh at the airport and form an automobile parade to the fairground.

The Indianapolis Police and Firemen's Band will be the head of the parade on decorated trucks.

Two hundred soldiers from Ft. Benjamin Harrison will be on duty at the airport when Lindbergh lands and will be transported in trucks in the parade to the coliseum.

Indianapolis police, Boy Scouts and State police officers will assist in keeping order.

Jackson to Introduce Lindy

Bryson, as chairman of the mass meeting committee, will introduce Governor Jackson, who will introduce Lindbergh.

Amplifiers for the coliseum have been offered by the Indiana Bell Telephone Company.

The parade will proceed from the airport to Washington St., through the Circle, north on Meridian St. to Thirty-Eighth St., and east on Thirty-Eighth St. to the fairground.

'SONS OF SATAN' CARRY ON UNDER NEW NAME

Young Oklahoma University Sophomores Brave Parental Displeasure.

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 30.—The "Sons of Satan," alleged society of young sophomores, may have gone the way of similar advanced thinkers, but its moving spirits, students at the University of Oklahoma, intend to carry on its tenets.

Simultaneously with the announcement that parental displeasure had abrogated the short-lived activities of the "Sons of Satan," Tom Williams, student, announces the launching of a new order, the "Truth Seekers."

Despite the resignation of Robert Janz, university sophomore and one of the former associates, who renounced his connection following a conference with his father, Williams says he and five fellow thinkers will carry on the work under "the more expressive name."

Magazine Gives Common Sense Rules for Relief.

Sooner or later nearly every one suffers from a splitting headache, one of the most common ailments, and one of the most distressing. Prevalent as headache is, the remedy is known to comparatively few people. In Physical Culture Magazine for August, captioned "How to Cure a Splitting Headache," appears an article devoted to practical, common sense cure that any one can apply.

The story on which this article is based was awarded a prize in a recent life story contest conducted by the magazine to bring out from its readers helpful experiences for the benefit of general health.

GET NEW DEATH CHAIR

Orders for Illinois Prisons Are Placed

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 30.—Illinois convicts, sentenced to death for crimes committed after July 1, of this year, will die on new electric chairs and not on second hand ones.

Under the law, new electric chairs are to be placed in Joliet and Chester penitentiaries and plans for rigging them up are under way.

Cook County will have its own death dealing chair. It is being manufactured in the Indiana State Penitentiary at Michigan City.

HOOSIER BUYS PLANE

Newcastle Man Owns New Laird-Swallow Machine.

NEWCASTLE, Ind., Lieut. George G. Myers, head of the recently incorporated Myers Aerial Transport Company here, has a new Laird-Swallow plane at the airport on the O. & C. Carpenter farm three miles south of the city.

Myers bought the plane from the manufacturer at Wichita, Kan., and flew it back.

Some Eating!

By Times Special EVANSVILLE, Ind., July 30.—Vanderburgh County boys and girls, numbering 157, camping at Bauer's Grove, had the following to eat at the first camp dinner: Thirty-one fried chickens, one and a half bushels of potatoes, ten gallons of lemonade, five pounds of butter and eighteen quarts of fruit.

U. S. KILLS LIBERALS

Planes Bomb Sandino's Men for Third Time.

By United Press MANAGUA, July 30.—American aviators, aiding the land forces in pursuing the Liberal General Sandino, again bombed a small outpost of Sandino's troops yesterday, and several Nicaraguans were killed and wounded, according to reports reaching here today.

It was the third time Sandino's men had been attacked from the air. Being without defensive weapons against planes, the troops were reported to be deserting their leader. Marines and loyal Nicaraguan national guardsmen were pushing still farther into the jungle in pursuit of Sandino.

A large bulk of the Liberal party resents statements of General Moncada that Sandino and his followers are bandits. They accuse the former Liberal chief, who capitulated when Stimson laid down his terms, of playing personal politics.

LIGHTNING HITS TWICE

Grave Marker of Family Killed in Storm Split

By United Press SPANTEKOW, Pomerania, July 30.—Natives of this town were aghast at a coincidence which occurred during a local thunderstorm. A grave in the Spantekow cemetery bears the inscription: "Here lie Christian Froelke with his wife and three children. On August 11, 1802, lightning struck their home and they died as victims of flames."

During the storm of few days ago a bolt of lightning crashed into the Froelke farmhouse, splitting it apart and penetrating into the grave of the victims of the other stroke of lightning 125 years ago.

PAY TAXES FOR BAND

Wisconsin Joins Numerous Other States to Aid Musicians.

MADISON, Wis., July 30.—Wisconsin has joined with more than a score of other States in recognizing the value of a town band to its community.

Any city, town or village in the State may levy a one-mill tax to organize, maintain or hire a band, under provisions of a bill passed by the Legislature and signed by Governor Fred R. Zimmerman.

The list of other States having permissive legislation of a similar nature includes Iowa, Illinois, Idaho, Kansas, California, Maryland, New Mexico, Nebraska, North Dakota, Texas, Indiana, West Virginia, Massachusetts, New York, Minnesota, Mississippi, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ohio, South Carolina, Utah and Vermont.

COOLIDGE THE MOVIE STAR

Apparently losing little sleep because his plan to limit navies is failing, President Coolidge continues to play movie star at Rapid City, S. D.

One story emanating from his camp is that he helped push a heavy farm wagon up a steep hill, while the obliging cameramen rode in the wagon, and took pains to get pictures showing the sweat on his brow.

Time was found between scenes, however, for the President to stamp his O. K. on a new tax reduction program, which the administration forces will back in Congress.

It provides a corporation tax cut of from 13 1/2 per cent to 11 per cent, and possible elimination of some nuisance taxes such as those on theater admissions.

Every business house which failed to benefit under the last tax revision, is promised a reduction in this one.

But Mr. Coolidge will not recommend any cut for smaller income tax payers and the Democrats in the Senate may object to this, to say nothing of the small income tax payers.

At the conference of state governors at Mackinac Island, Mich., farm relief has been stressed, and several Republican leaders have found time in the midst of their glittering generalities to boost Coolidge.

The PASSING PROCESSION

NEWS of the WEEK Boiled Down By VOLTA TORREY

"All I know is what I read in the papers." This week, most of the news has been political. Internationally, it is fraught with war talk and preparedness. Friday was the thirteenth anniversary of the Austrian bombardment in Serbia which began the World War, and although the nations are still mourning their dead and struggling under the burden of debt, all are girding themselves for another. Civilization soon will be in condition to burst into flames again from as slight a spark as that 1914 shot.

Locally, enough cause has been shown for war, but the hardened politicians whose honor has been attacked (perhaps for lack of preparedness) adhere to a policy of silence, and the official probe is dragging through so many days that the public is inclined to lose interest.

NAVAL PARLEY FAILING

British delegates returned to President's Coolidge's naval limitations conference at Geneva after conferring with their superiors in London. They then advanced proposals very little different from those previously urged in vain.

The American delegates promptly replied that unless further concessions were made by the British, the meeting would adjourn—a failure.

W. C. Bridgeman, the British leader, declared: "I think it will end Monday."

The Japanese representatives, who philosophically enjoyed the Swiss scenery while the Americans and British were deadlocked, are packing their bags to go home.

The United States' objection to the British proposal are: It limits the number of 10,000-ton eight-inch gun cruisers, the type needed by the United States, with-out limiting the number of small cruisers desired by Britain. There are more British naval stations scattered over the world than American, and these enable Britain to get along with the smaller cruisers.

By limiting all except twelve large cruisers to a maximum of 6,000 tons and six-inch guns, Britain's huge merchant fleet becomes a potential cruiser squadron.

By allowing retention of so-called obsolete ships up to twenty-five per cent of the treaty total, and reducing the age limit on "modern" ships, the plan's nominal 590,000 tonnage total for both Britain and the United States, becomes an actual 740,000-ton total.

NICARAGUAN NEIGHBORS

The United States marines sent out to get Sandino and his fleeing force of Liberals in Nicaragua have been heard from.

In a preliminary skirmish Tuesday, they killed several Nicaraguans. One marine was wounded.

On Wednesday, American bombing planes spotted Sandino's rear guard and proceeded to their murderous task in earnest, killing and wounding a score.

Sandino is the only liberal general who has not surrendered under the peace which the marines enforced in Nicaragua several weeks ago.

Other foreign news is more cheerful.

Conferences of non-military representatives of many nations are being held at Geneva, and at Williamsonstown, Mass., and at Williamsonstown, Mass., and at Williamsonstown, Mass.

At Geneva, the "open door" principle in news dissemination is being urged before the International Press Conference. The vital need of keeping governmental news clean and free of propaganda is being stressed by the foes of the monopolistic "official" news agencies.

At Williamsonstown, every phase of important world political problems is being discussed by lecturers from England, France, Italy, United States and other countries, before the seventh annual Institute of Politics. Instead of dicker over ship figures as do the naval experts at the arms parley, these scholars and government experts are studying ethics, principles and policies.

OTHER OLD FAVORITES

Speaking of vaudeville acts, another old favorite with the American public, His Honor the Prince of Wales, is scheduled to appear in Canada during the coming week. He is enroute now with Premier Baldwin, and other British notables, and keeps in training while aboard ship by riding a mechanical camel. This the experts say, is much better than Calvin Coolidge's mechanical horse, or for that matter, the regular horse which Hoosiers and Klansmen ride.

The dissolution trial of the House of David blushes on, with more loyal members appearing on the stand to deny the charges of immorality.

The case of Sacco-Vanzetti, which is internationally significant, is nearing a climax. Governor Fuller of Massachusetts is understood to have practically completed his inquiry into the case. The two prisoners are still on a hunger strike.

PHONE MERGER PERMIT ASKED

Public Service Commission Disposes of Many Cases.

Authority to issue and sell $50,000 in bonds and $50,000 in preferred stock to finance a telephone merger has been asked of the Public Service Commission by the Pike County Telephone Company, Petersburg.

Exchanges in the proposed merger are Glendale, Alfordville, Palmyra, Decker, Hazelton, Union and Velpen.

Hearing on complaints against service of the Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville railroad, between Lafayette and Bloomington, is scheduled by the commission for Aug. 16.

The commission Friday authorized agent abandonment of the Pennsylvania railroad at Jessup, Parke County.

Glenn Miller Park extension of the Terre Haute, Indianapolis and Eastern Traction Company was approved. Rate increase on the Gary and Valparaiso division of the Gary railways was authorized.

Sale of the H. F. Clevenger electric plant to the city of Nashville, was authorized.

Ten cent bus fares for the Bloomington City Bus line was approved. Madison Light and Fuel Company was permitted a $10,000 bond issue.

Indiana Banker Dies

KOKOMO, Ind., July 30.—Arthur Buell Armstrong, 66, director of several central Indiana banks, is dead after a year's illness.

Armed consumption of fruits and vegetables is twice what it was ten years ago.

OTHER HEADLINES

Twenty-seven lives were lost when the excursion steamer Favorite sank midway on its "run" of half dozen miles between the Chicago municipal pier and Lincoln Park. Twenty-five of the dead were women and children. Four separate probes of the tragedy are under way.

Lt. C. C. Champion attempted to break the world's altitude record at Bolling field, and when he reached a height of seven miles, a cylinder exploded, and the burning plane plunged to earth, but the pilot escaped unhurt. The old record of 40,810 feet, set by Callizo of "France," still stands.

Charles Birger, who was sentenced to die, and his two aids who got life imprisonment after trial for murder in Illinois, lost their motions for a new trial.

Charles Lindbergh is continuing his tour of New England. He will head west soon, and reach Indianapolis Aug. 9.

After first telling a story of murder by bootleggers from ambush, Reginald E. Walters, under-cover prohibition agent, confessed that he had slain Hunter R. Stotler, another dry officer, on a lonely mountain road near Boonsboro, Md. He charged that Stotler had broken up his home.

Inability to find a few drops of pure whiskey is blamed by W. F. Lenges of Terre Haute for the death of his 9-day-old child. The doctor had prescribed whisky in either milk or water. "When the Governor and Attorney General need it for their dear ones they got it, but I didn't," said Lenges, after describing his futile search.

STILLMANS, AND AIMEE

Two vaudeville acts, the Stillmans and Aimee McPherson, promised to run as long on the American stage as "Abe's Irish Rose" on Broadway.

The married life of Bud and Lena Stillman was ushered in this week by the hurrying of crockery.

After the ceremony at Grand Anse, Que., at which the farm girl became the bride of the wealthy heir, Mrs. "Fifi" Stillman became angry at cameramen and threw china at them.

The remainder of the honeymoon has been peaceful.

Aimee's act this week was a mother-and-daughter quarrel, which began over financial rifts at Angelus Temple, and which culminated in an offer to resign by the evangelist.

But the loyal congregation of Angelus Temple, refused to accept the resignation.

Plans are going forward for organization of a "Salvation Navy" to spread the "Four Square" Gospel of Aimee over the nation, and an associate will be hired to preach at the Temple, in order that Admiral McPherson can spend more of her time in other cities.
