

SHIP REPORTS REDFERN PLANE SEEN AT SEA

Signals Exchanged and Craft Then Flew On, Skipper of Vessel Says.

By United Press
KINGSTON, Jamaica, Aug. 31.—What appeared to be proof that Paul Redfern, Georgia-to-Brazil flier, still was on his lonely way, twenty-four hours after leaving Brunswick, Ga., Thursday, was supplied here today in the log of the steamship Christian Krogh, a Norwegian vessel. The log said that Redfern's plane was sighted between

Mr. and Mrs. Redfern

3 and 3:45 p. m. Friday in the Caribbean about 1,675 miles from Brunswick.

Redfern and the Christian Krogh exchanged messages and signals, the log said, whereupon the flier pointed his plane in the direction in which land had been indicated and disappeared.

There was a detailed account of the meeting. The position given was 165 miles north of the nearest point on the Venezuelan coast.

Substance of the log was that the plane circled over the ship and dropped three notes, asking that the vessel point herself toward the nearest land and indicate the approximate distance thereof by signals. The Christian Krogh, according to the log, complied with these requests, whereupon the plane flew away.

Plane Seen in Wilds

By United Press
WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Reports of sighting Saturday an unidentified plane over the Orinoco Delta, on scheduled route of Paul Redfern, missing Brunswick Ga.-Rio Janeiro flier were forwarded today to the State Department by American Minister Cook at Caracas, Venezuela. There was nothing in the message to show the plane was Redfern's.

The message follows: "Government telegraph operator at village of Tucupita in Orinoco Delta telegraphed Saturday to operator at Ciudad Bolivar that mail carrier who left Barrancas for Tucupita Saturday saw an airplane at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon flying over the Canomaca-Reoa River in the delta. The airplane was flying in a southeasterly direction toward Boca Grande, the main mouth of the Orinoco.

"In addition to the mail carrier, inhabitants of the village of Macareto also saw an airplane Saturday flying southeast toward Boca Grande.

At 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, a heavy storm broke over all that region. That part of Venezuela has very few inhabitants."

INDIANS LOSING LIVES, RICHES AT RAPID RATE

Extinction of Race Is Seen in Few Years Unless Congress Acts.

BY MAX STERN
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—The last vestiges of America's first families are being swept away, according to Secretary John Collier of the American Indian Defense Association. He says he will demand a congressional investigation of the condition of the country's wards.

Statistical studies by Dr. Haven Emerson of Columbia University, Collier says, indicate that soon the red men of the West will be as rare as the cigar store Indian of the nineties.

Collier declares that in the last four years the mortality rate among Indians in thirty-three States has risen 48 per cent.

Death Rate Higher
The Indiana death rate for tuberculosis is six times that for the white population of the United States.

More than 21 per cent of the Indian population, or some 60,000 are suffering from trachoma, which causes blindness, according to Dr. Guthrie, chief of the Indian Bureau's medical staff.

The Indian estate, held in trust by the Government, has shrunk through the last four years at the rate of four per cent a year. Not counting the over-mounting rate, the total shrinkage of the estate has been $122,000,000 in the four years.

The Indian allotted lands held in trust have dwindled $68,000,000, or 16.56 per cent in these years; the trust moneys 36.3 per cent and the Indian tribal funds 18.5 per cent.

Landed area of the Indians has dwindled from 160,000 acres in 1875 to 72,000,000, a shrinkage of 93,000,000 acres, or 56 per cent.

Projects enriching white men and charged up against the Indians have created a load of reimbursable debt, totaling $31,000,000.

Overcrowded and insanitary conditions in Indian schools have caused spread of disease and death among the young. More than 3,200 Navajo children are without any schooling.

Infant mortality among Indians under one year is 2.7 times higher than the general American death rate. The total Indian death rate is double the rate in the general population.

"The Indians and their civilization are rapidly and ruthlessly being destroyed," said Collier. "There are approximately 225,000 Indians left. Their property, held in trust by the United States Government, amounts to about $1,000,000,000. Will this all be swept away within the next few years? It is not too late for Congress to act."
