

COUNCIL KILLS MOVE TO OUST MAYOR DUVALL

Two Separate Votes Taken to Make 'Doubly Sure'
Action Is Dead.

The city council made "doubly sure" to kill the resolution to impeach Mayor Duvall Monday night. Opening of the stormy session, which lasted until 11 p. m., was delayed by a two-hour secret caucus in the council conference room. Debate on the majority and minority reports of the impeachment committee headed by Council President Claude E. Negley, featured the closed-door conference which ended at 9:30.

The majority report signed by Negley, O. Ray Albertson, Austin H. Todd and M. W. Ferguson which was to not adopt the resolution since similar charges are pending against Duvall in Criminal Court was read by the clerk.

Presents Minority Report
A minority report presented by Councilman Robert E. Springsteen who charged the committee had been "manipulated," set Oct. 12 for a hearing and urged continuation of investigation of the impeachment charges.

Ignoring both reports, Councilman Edward B. Raub called for a vote on impeachment resolution No. 23 shortly after the session got under way. There was an air of tenseness because no one knew sure how some councilmen would vote. The resolution introduced by a 6 to 3 vote. Springsteen, Raub and Bartholomew voted for the trial of Mayor Duvall on the impeachment charges.

Members Shift Stand
Councilmen Boynton J. Moore and Walter R. Dorsett who it was said volunteered to support Springsteen's report shifted their stand after the caucus and voted against the minority report. Moore was said to have favored delaying action at the confab.

Raub explained "I had nothing to do with the preparation or introduction of this resolution, but I should think the mayor and his friends would be the first to insist on a trial. If the mayor is innocent there is no reason why he should resist a hearing."

Bartholomew interrupted with "I rise to a point of order."
"What is your point of order?" queried Raub.

Negley cracked his gavel and ordered continuation of the roll call. "Now," said Negley, disdainfully, when his name was called by Miss Margaret Inman, assistant clerk.

Purged From Record
After taking up several minor ordinances Council O. Ray Albertson whose father recently was named Casino Gardens watchman, called for adoption of the impeachment committee majority report to kill the measure.

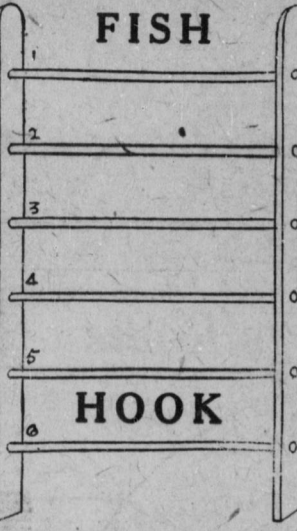

"Mr. President, that is out of order. We have already defeated the resolution," insisted Raub.

"I move that resolution No. 23 be stricken from the files," suggested Austin H. Todd.

"Well, gentlemen, we can be doubly sure that the record is purged," shouted Negley, calling for another roll call.

Springsteen said he was surprised that several councilmen who came to him and insisted on supporting his minority reported "backed up" before roll call.

Georgian Starts Fight to Avert Democratic Deadlock.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—In an effort to prevent another disastrous party fight at the next Democratic national convention, an organized movement for abolishment of the traditional two-thirds rule has been started by Hollins Randolph of Georgia, who led that State's delegation in voting for William G. McAdoo on every ballot at Madison Square Garden.

Although Randolph definitely has not announced himself for Al Smith, his proposal that the presidential nomination go to the man receiving a mere majority is understood to have been made on behalf of the New York executive.

COOLIDGE WILL FACE CONFLICT WITH CONGRESS

Tax Cut, Foreign Policies,
Farm Aid and Navy Are Big Problems.

By PAUL R. MALLON

RAPID CITY, S. D., Sept. 5.

President Coolidge is preparing for a battle with Congress this winter which he knows is sure to come over tax reduction, farm relief, foreign policy, and naval building. The curious drift of events this summer concerning each of these four problems has served to set up opposing factions for what may be the stormiest congressional session of recent years—with the presidential campaign of 1928 in the background.

The situation in the Senate is precarious. There, Republicans have a theoretical majority of one, which means no working majority at all. In fact, Democrats probably would be able to organize the Senate if they strenuously desired the committee chairmanships and the responsibility for legislation which will be handled.

Here is the way the situation lines up on the four moot questions, according to word brought to the President by his congressional lieutenants:

Budget figures indicate that a tax cut is dangerous and that under no conditions should more than $300,000,000 be slashed from present
