ABOARD S. S. LIMA, AT SEA, Oct. 18. (10 P. M., Delayed).—Ruth Elder, worn out by the strenuous hospitality of Horta, slept late today, apparently little affected by the slight roll of the Lima.

Captain Pinto escorted Miss Elder and her co-pilot of the plane American Girl, Capt. George Haldeman, ashore at the village, on the island of San Jorg this afternoon.

Antonio Borda, wealthy San Jorgian, gave a reception in honor of the aviators. Miss Elder eagerly partook of the famous San Jorg cheese and sweetmeats.

Miss Elder has wireless to Portuguese officials at Lisbon a message thanking the Portuguese people for the hospitality shown her and Captain Haldeman at Horta.

"We will remember it forever," she said.

man crew of The Dawn may be forced to postpone their proposed flight to Copenhagen until next year.

While Mrs. Grayson has not said definitely that she will postpone the flight, her statement, "we will wait about a week for favorable weather," indicates that a postponement is being considered.

Old-timers along the Maine coast have warned Mrs. Grayson that any takeoff will be impossible soon, because of inclement weather.

Weather reports this morning caused the three fliers to admit that there was no possibility of a take-off within forty-eight hours. The reports told of high winds, rain and fog off New Foundland and Nova Scotia.

Storm warnings were being displayed from Eastport, Maine, south to Cape Hatteras. The Atlantic coast disturbance, central off the eastern tip of Long Island this morning, rapidly is approaching this section.

Off for Buenos Aires

(By United Press)
RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, Oct. 19.—Dieudonne Costes and Lieut. Joseph Le Brix, French aviators, took off in their plane, Xungesser-Coli, on the last leg of their flight to Buenos Aires at 5:26 a. m. today.

After flying more than 6,000 miles from Paris in less than a week, the air heroes arrived at Rio de Janeiro Monday.

They had intended taking off for Buenos Aires yesterday morning, but remained to attend the funerals of three Brazilian aviators who had crashed during a welcome to them.

Costes and Le Brix have won the distinction of being the first aviators to make the mainland-to-mainland flight across the south Atlantic. They flew from St. Louis, Senegal, Africa, to Natal, Brazil, without stop.
