MORTGAGE ON LODGE'S HOME TO BE BURNED

Red Men's Hopes Realized in Ceremony Planned at Wigwam Tonight.

The scratch of a match, a burst of flame and the hopes of Indianapolis Red Men members will be realized tonight with the burning of the mortgage on the wigwam at North St. and Capitol Ave.

"Say buddy, I'll feel like someone had paid the mortgage on the old homestead tonight," said Arch H. Hobbs, great chief of records. "Of course no one ever was worried about the mortgage, it was purely a matter of business, but it's a good feeling to know that the building is all ours."

Crowe Principal Speaker
Robert T. Crowe, great Inchoonee, will give the principal address on the special program of entertainment following the invocation by the Rev. C. A. Trusty, Plainfield, Ind.

Hobbs will speak on "Building" and Albert H. Hausman, great sachem, will also speak. The mortgage burning ceremony will be under the direction of officers of the board of directors, J. W. Baxter, president, Newasa Tribe, No. 190; George J. Miller, vice president, Polmete Tribe, No. 17; Oscar E. Sherman, secretary, Red Cloud Tribe, No. 18, and James A. Robinson, treasurer, Hiawatha Tribe, No. 75.

Step in Order's Growth
