

ALVADOR GIVES GREAT OVATION TO LINDBERGH

Thousands Welcome Air Ace; Honduras Is Goal on Next Hop.

By FRANCES ESPINOSA United Press Staff Correspondent SAN SALVADOR, Salvador, Jan. 2.—Charles A. Lindbergh, who literally has conquered this little mountain city, today was to face another round of social affairs scheduled for the second day of his visit here.

Gets City Post

George T. O'Connor

Mayor L. Erb Slack has appointed George T. O'Connor, a Democrat, to succeed Gustav G. Schmidt, city plan commission president.

Slack announced he desired that members select O'Connor president. J. H. Atherton, Butler College executive secretary, a Republican, was reappointed. Other members are Republicans.

The plan commission is particularly an important body since abolition of the board of zoning appeals. The plan members pass on all zoning questions not brought before city council or park board.

Slack desires strict enforcement of the zoning regulations and contemplates several moves to beautify the city from a zoning standpoint.
