

FIVE HOLDUPS ARE REPORTED; CATCH BANDIT

Seventeen Lined Up Against Wall as Looters Rob Store.

Five hold-ups were reported over the week-end. Three hold-up attempts failed, and one bandit was captured after a running gun battle with a grocery store proprietor and a policeman.

O. D. Willard, 2029 College Ave., thwarted a bandit who attempted to hold him up in his own home Sunday night.

While friends were visiting him, he felt a draft in the house and found a window open in the bedroom, he reported to police. As he started to close the window an armed bandit arose from the other side of the bed and ordered, "Stick 'em up." The bandit dived out the window when Willard backed out of the room instead of obeying, Willard said.

Filling Station Robbed

David Kelch, attendant of the Standard Oil Company filling station at Gelsendorf and Washington Sts., was robbed of $25 Sunday night by two men, one with a gun, who forced him into the cellar after he had opened the safe.

Matthew G. Roe, 31, of 2016 English Ave., was captured Saturday night after he and a companion armed with automatic pistols lined up fourteen customers and three employees against the wall in the Atlantic and Pacific grocery at 711 Massachusetts Ave.

Police are seeking the other bandit and a third man believed to have been waiting with an auto and thought to have the $100 loot.

Alleged Bandit Held

As the men left store, C. W. Peters, 1903 Ashland Ave., manager of the grocery, grabbed two revolvers and fired at the bandits as they fled southwest on Massachusetts Ave. They fired back.

Motorcycle Policeman Carl F. Johnson, waiting at the corner for a traffic light to change, jumped from his motorcycle and joined the chase. Peters handed one of the revolvers to Emerson Bailey, 844 Edison Ave., truck driver and the three chased the bandits east on Walnut and through several alleys. Johnson captured Roe later while searching outbuildings and garages in the vicinity.

Roe and his companions are believed to be the same men who held up the Wright coal yard, 5000 N. Keystone Ave., a short time earlier. They got $50 there.

Held Up Bus Driver

Russell Quackenbush, 2932 Sangster Ave., People's Motor Coach Company driver, was held up and robbed of $4 by a bandit who boarded his bus at Thirtieth St. and Orchard Ave. Saturday night. The bandit also took 80 cents from two passengers.

William McQuire, 19 N. West St., reported he was held up in the 300 block N. Tenth St. by a Negro and robbed of $10.

Mrs. Olga Eanyote, 3308 Newton Ave., scared away with screams a bandit who attempted to hold her up at Washington and Blackford Sts.

Mrs. Fern Callahan, 29 W. Twenty-Fourth St., jerked away from a Negro who attempted to grab her pocketbook on Illinois St. near Twenty-Second St.

HELD AS COUNTERFEITER

The Federal grand jury will investigate counterfeiting charges preferred against Henry B. Van Horn, Martinsville, arrested Saturday afternoon by S. T. Hickman, deputy United States marshal. Bond was set at $2,000 by John W. Kern, United States commissioner. Equipment for coining bogus nickels, dimes and quarters was confiscated.

EIGHTEEN CONVENTIONS TO MEET IN FEBRUARY

Four other events to draw large attendances to City.

Eighteen conventions and four other largely attended events will be held in Indianapolis in February, Henry T. Davis, Indianapolis convention bureau manager, announced today.

The Indiana Shoe Travelers' Association, with 700 delegates, Feb. 6 to 8 will be the largest. Other events include the tri-State printers' bowling tournament, Feb. 17 to 20; Big Four Railroad regional basketball tournament, Feb. 24 and 25; auto show, Feb. 13 to 18, and Indianapolis "pure food" show, Feb. 27 to March 2.

Davis reported forty conventions with 10,735 delegates in January. He estimated the delegates spent approximately $600,000 in the city.

During the month twenty-five new conventions for this year and next were obtained.

JIM WALKER'S OFF THE RUM

Mayor Likes to Ride the Wagon, N. Y. Pastor Declares

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Jimmy Walker is off the rum.

Broadway has known for some time that its fun-loving mayor was "on the wagon" under his doctor's orders, but it remained for the Rev. Christian F. Reiser, pastor of the Chelsea Methodist Episcopal Church, to reveal to the world that the mayor likes "the wagon" and feels in better health while perched on it.

Dr. Reiser, in his sermon last night, told his congregation he had the mayor's permission to quote him on the benefits of voluntary abstinence. He also quoted the mayor as saying the most enjoyable dinner he ever attended in New York was one given by 2,200 Methodists a year ago.

Walker, who is a Catholic, will address the Methodist preachers' meeting on March 5, Dr. Reiser said. The pastor told his congregation:

"Mayor Walker, in his generous way, gave me permission on Friday to tell you this:

"I no longer drink champagne nor alcohol in any form, nor have I since last September. My health is very much better without it. Then, too, while I enjoyed the exhilarating high spots from alcoholic stimulants, the low spots of the next morning collected a heavy toll. I find it more agreeable, as well as healthier, to walk on the even pathway, with no stimulant."

"And, by the way, the most enjoyable dinner I ever attended in New York was the one you invited me to one year ago, given by 2,200 Methodists. It proved to me that people at a dry dinner could be hilarious and jovial and that all prohibitionists were not long-faced."

Dr. Reiser went on to praise the mayor highly for his example.

PHONE FIRMS 'BUY' REFUSED

State Rules Against Purchase of 8 Companies.

The United Telephone Company, a foreign corporation, is the real owner of the Associated Telephone Company of Indianapolis, and to authorize the purchase by the latter company of eight independent Indiana phone companies would be a violation of the Shively-Spencer utility act, the public service commission has declared.

The commission ruled that despite the evidence introduced in the Marion Circuit Court it would not rescind its order forbidding the purchase.

Formal order denying the petition to purchase was promulgated by the commission last year and the Associated Telephone Company appealed to the Marion Circuit Court. Companies affected by the deal are: Wolcott Telephone Company, Wolcott; Western Indiana Telephone Company, Goodland; Starke County Telephone Company, North Judson and San Pierre; Mt. Ayr Telephone Company, Mt. Ayr; Klondyke Telephone Company, St. Joseph; LaPaz and Lakeville Telephone Company, LaPaz; Bremen Telephone Company, Bremen; and Tynes Telephone Company, Tynes.

SPEAKER NAMED FOR BUTLER FOUNDER DAY

President of Illinois University to Attend Ceremonies.

Dr. David Kinley, president of Illinois University, will be the principal speaker Feb. 11 at the forty-sixth annual Founders' Day ceremonies of Butler University. He will speak at the morning and afternoon sessions of the celebration. A reception will be held followed by a banquet in the evening at the Claypool.

The event celebrates founding of the school by Ovid Butler, 176 years ago. It then was called Butler Christian University and was located at Thirtieth St. and College Ave.

BOMB TRUST IS TARGET OF NEW CHICAGO SMASH

Police Cut Off Revenue of Gangs, Start General Criminal Roundup.

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Chicago law forces sought today to crush the powerful gangs of the city by attacking them simultaneously from two sides.

While police worked quietly to cut off the revenues of the gangsters by applying pressure to the beer running racket, flying squadrons arrested gunmen by the dozens in what apparently was the start of a campaign to make existence so uncomfortable for the hoodlums that they would rather flee than fight.

With forty persons under arrest after a series of week-end raids, police said they were making rapid progress toward finding the leaders responsible for bomb attacks on city officials and threats against Mayor William Hale Thompson.

Most of the forty arrested were believed to be connected with the "bombing trust" which has operated here for months, contracting to set bombs at a fixed price for other gangsters and racketeers.

A gang of bandit-kidnapers robbed the vaults of the Industrial State Bank today, after holding James Dillon, 30, cashier, prisoner for sixteen hours.

Dillon was found bound and gagged in the bank today. He said he was kidnapped on his way to Bible class yesterday, and was driven about the city in an automobile, bound and gagged, all afternoon and night.

The bandits obtained $35,000, a hasty checkup by bank officials indicated.
