

HOLDUP GANGS GET LOOT AND MAKE GETAWAY

Robbery Wave Continues
Unabated; Delivery
Drivers Targets.

Banditry continued on a 24-hour a day basis over the week-end, with daylight holdups of delivery truck drivers and filling station attendants on the night shift.

The latest "job" was reported at 5 a. m. today, when two bandits held up attendant J. L. Sharp at the Standard Oil station, South-eastern Ave. and Washington St. They escaped with $100.

Driving up for a gallon of oil, they drew guns, ordered Sharp to turn his head away, so he could not identify them, looted the strong-box and damaged the telephone.

Get $150 From Safe

Police believe the same pair held up Attendant Joseph Townsend at the Standard station at Rural and Southeastern Ave., Sunday night, and took $150 from the safe.

A Negro bought a cigar at the Don Hinchman drug store, Fourteenth and Illinois Sts. Saturday, then drew a gun, held up the proprietor and took $55 from the cash register.

Two Negroes bought some frankfurters at the William Roak meat market, 626 E. Michigan St., and held up Roak, took $1.50 from the cash register and his watch. R. F. Richcreek, Standard Grocery operator at Beech Grove, reported he was en route to the main office here to turn in two days' receipts when he was held up and robbed by two men who leaped on the running boards of his car at Fountain Square. They took $98 cash and $48 in checks.

Try Kidnapping Jobs

A bandit trio making a specialty of daylight holdups of delivery trucks attempted four "jobs" Saturday afternoon. They kidnapped Roscoe Caylor of 1854 Holloway Ave., driver for the Excelsior Laundry, robbed him of $57.

Unsuccessful attempts were made by the bandits to hold up Clay E. Woverton of 3161 Kenwood Ave., driver for the Omar Baking Company; Charles Whitten of 838 N. New Jersey St., another Excelsior Laundry driver, and Edward J. May of 3958 Fletcher Ave., driver for the Crown Laundry Company.

The gang has been operating about a month, averaging about five holdups a week. Police Chief Claude M. Worley has ordered police to make a special effort to capture them.

Miners objected to payment by Keifner of $9,000 to Lambert J. Lloyd in settlement of a loan Lloyd had made that operations might be continued. Five Re-Indicted Men to Face Criminal Court
Saturday.

Arraignment of five city councilmen, reindicted Friday by the county grand jury, was postponed until Saturday morning upon motion of defense attorneys in Criminal Court today. Motion was based on the ground that the defendants had not been served with copies of the new indictments.

Councilmen reindicted are Boynton J. Moore, Otis E. Bartholomew, Claude E. Negley, Millard W. Ferguson and Walter R. Dorsett. All were in court and old bonds of $1,000 allowed to continue until arraignment Saturday, when it is expected they will enter not guilty pleas.

Criminal Judge James A. Collins disqualified himself in the case of William Klink of Evansville, former aide of D. C. Stephenson. He submitted the names of John F. Robbins, Charles Wittsie and Freeman Alford, all Indianapolis attorneys, from which selection of a judge will be made this afternoon.

46 HELD AFTER GAMING RAIDS

Dice, Cards and Cash
Taken, Police Assert.

Four persons, including one woman, charged with keeping gaming houses, and forty-two persons arrested in the alleged gambling houses face charges in municipal courts today.

They were arrested in raids over the week-end in response to Police Chief's Claude M. Worley's order to "get the gamblers and get the evidence."

More than 100 of the 130 arrested in gambling raids last week-end were discharged by Municipal Judge C. R. Cameron and Paul G. Wetter for police failure to obtain enough evidence of gambling to satisfy the courts.

DRUGGISTS ADVISE EASY WAY TO END COLDS IN FEW HOURS

Many Here Use Hospital Method at Home to Stop Head Colds, Coughs and Chest Colds

Praise Action of Doctors In Advising Public Way to End Colds
During Pneumonia Weather

A great many Indianapolis people—like Edw. W. Tyler, Mrs. R. H. Gordon and others, have learned that it is no longer necessary to let a head or chest cold make a person feel miserable or cause fear of pneumonia. For druggists are recommending a hospital tested treatment that brings sure relief—often in a few hours.

Soon Back at Work—Rid of Threatening Cold

A severe cold had kept Mr. Tyler from business several days. When nothing seemed to help him he called the clinic for advice. Doctors then recommended double strength doses of Cherry Pectoral—a highly concentrated mixture of wild cherry, terpin hydrate and other ingredients which have relieved even the most extreme hospital cases.

With the first swallow he felt the soothing, comforting, healing warmth from his nose passages deep down into his chest. In a few hours he felt lots better and slept well that night, and in another day or so, doctors report, the cold was completely gone.

Worried Mother Grateful as Child's Cold Is Soon Ended
Little Estelle Gordon caught a severe cold while out riding a week ago Sunday. Nothing her mother used kept the cold from spreading from her nose passages to her chest. On the third day the child coughed so deep Mrs. Gordon feared pneumonia and called the clinic, where doctors advised double doses of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Relief began almost immediately. By night the child felt like playing with her Christmas dolls for the first time in several days. The next morning she looked more cheerful and like herself—and by the following day, doctors report, all traces of the cold were gone.

Doctors find that this hospital medicine does far more than stop coughing instantly. It penetrates and heats inflamed linings of the breathing passages. Absorbed by the system it quickly reduces phlegm, helps ally the "feverish," grippy feeling and drives out the cold from the nose passages, throat and chest.

Just a few pleasant spoonfuls of Cherry Pectoral now and you'll feel like a different person tomorrow. At all druggists, 60c; twice as much in $1.00 hospital size.
