FRIENDS FLOCK TO STATEHOUSE FOR 'RECEPTION'

Tipton County Delegation Here to Praise Its Native Son.

WIFE GREETES VISITORS

'Best Executive State Has Had in 25 Years,' One Tribute.

Governor Ed Jackson, who Thursday sat in the prisoner's box at the courthouse, today was in his office at the Statehouse, receiving congratulations upon his acquittal.

Friends and political acquaintances crowded into the office to grasp the hand of Indiana's chief executive and congratulate him on his victory. The affair took on the aspect of a reception, with the Governor and Mrs. Jackson in the receiving line.

Those who came were mostly from the Statehouse, but there also was a delegation from his native Tipton County. This was headed by Frank E. and Z. A. Watson, R. G. and R. E. Foster, who were schoolmates of the Governor in his boyhood days in Normandy, Ind.

Frank Wilson was spokesman for the party and expressed his open admiration for Tipton County's "great man."

Given Start by Religion.

"I'll tell you," Wilson addressed the Statehouse reporters. "Jackson never amounted to much until he got religion. He was just a big barefooted country boy."

"I remember when he got converted. He was about twenty then and he was baptized down at the river, having been moved by the preaching of an evangelist at a revival we were having there."

"Right after he got religion, he began taking an interest in public affairs. Before long he was practicing law at Newcastle and later was prosecutor and judge. Then he was Secretary of State, a major in the World War, and now our Governor."

Henry Roberts, State sales agent, made the rounds of the various departments and urged attendance at the reception. Dozens filed in, the list including State Representative Samuel Farrell, of the State budget committee; State Representative Albert J. Wedeking, appointed to the State highway commission by Jackson; State Auditor L. S. Bowman; J. M. Wood of the industrial board; Adjutant General William H. Kershner, E. J. Barker, State agriculture board secretary; George W. Simms, Terre Haute; and Zell Swain, employed in the insurance department.

Governor Is Praised

Bowman made a speech congratulating the Governor on his "splendid administration, the best in 25 years." Jackson responded by saying he was sorry the trial didn't proceed and prove his entire innocence, that he was overruled in this wish by his lawyers, that his co-defendants, Robert I. Marsh and George V. Coffin, are also innocent. "I always have tried to conduct my life and affairs in a gentlemanly manner," he declared. "I want to thank all of you for your loyalty to me during this attack of vicious propaganda."

The Governor would introduce his wife by saying, "This is my little pal," and many of those who shook hands said, "God bless you."

COUNCILMAN GRATEFUL

Bartholomew Expresses Thanks for Kindness at Son's Rites.

Appreciation of the services of Manual Training School authorities, pupils and others at the funeral of his son, Harold Bartholomew, 15, Manual student, were expressed today by Council President Otis E. Bartholomew.

MANY HERE END COLDS WAY DOCTORS ADVISE

Find Hospital Tested Method Quick, Pleasant and Inexpensive for Home Use

Head colds, coughs and chest colds can be ended quickly—often in a few hours—by a method doctors now advise which vast numbers of Indianapolis people, like M. B. Ellis, have found to be ideal for home use.

Mr. Ellis, for example, caught cold several days ago while riding in an open car. He paid little attention to it until two mornings later, when his eyes became inflamed and his nose was stopped up. Then, when a feeling of tightness across his chest caused fear of pneumonia, he called the clinic for expert advice.

Relief began quickly when doctors gave him Ayer's Cherry Pectoral—a concentrated mixture of wild cherry, terpin-hydrate and other ingredients which relieved even the most extreme hospital cases. With first pleasant swallow he felt the comforting, healing warmth from his nose passages deep down into his bronchial tubes. By lunch time his nose and chest had cleared up considerably. That night he could breathe freely and coughed only once or twice, and in a day or so, doctors report, he was completely rid of the cold.

Face Death on Gallows

Doris and George McDonald and the Women's Jail at Montreal where the girl is confined, awaiting execution.

CANADA'S EYES TURN ON GIRL, WAITING DEATH

American Slayer and Mate Doomed to Pay by Noose March 23.

By NEA Service
MONTREAL, Quebec, Feb. 17.—The fervid public attention which centered on Ruth Snyder in Sing Sing prison, New York, a short time ago, centers today on a 21-year-old American girl, Doris McDonald, in the women's jail here.

Doris McDonald is waiting dawn of March 23, when, with her husband, George McDonald, she is to be hanged for the murder of a taxi driver.

There is no hope for the husband. It is generally believed that there is little, if any, for the girl. Only a reprieve from Viscount Willingdon, Governor General of Canada, can save her.

She Doesn't Care
Doris McDonald, who used to boast that she was "tough," but who now is moody and acquiescent, doesn't care. From day to day she sits in her cell and mourns—not for herself, but for her husband.

"If George dies, I want to die too," she has told her guardians time and again. "I don't want to live without him. If he swings, let me swing too."

The couple arrived in Montreal on July 15 last year. A man giving the name of Fred Palmer accompanied them. They were check forgers and confidence tricksters, but murder wasn't in their line—then.

McDonald posed as a commander in the U. S. Navy. When they disappeared two days later, they left behind a trail of unpaid bills and false notes.

They left in a Packard car driven by Odelard Bouchard, French Canadian, who lived with his wife and eight children at Lachine, a few miles from Montreal. Bouchard never was seen alive again.

That same night, Sunday, July 17, the trio arrived in the Packard at the Trout River Immigration Post on the Vermont border. Palmer posed as Mrs. McDonald's husband, while McDonald posed as Bouchard.

Barred at Border

But Palmer and Mrs. McDonald named different towns where they were married. McDonald signed the name of Bouchard as "Bourget."

Mrs. McDonald was dressed in a chemise with a rug for a skirt. They were refused admission to the States and returned to Montreal, where they abandoned the car.

The next day Bouchard's body was found. He had been shot twice and thrown face downward in a watery ditch to die. His money, $200, was stolen.

Nearby was found a woman's slip, skirt, hat, shoes and stockings, some of them spattered with blood. They later were identified as Doris McDonald's.

For six weeks the McDonalds dropped completely out of sight. Then they were arrested in Butte, Mont., under the name of Carter, for passing false checks.

A revolver they had was of the same calibre as the bullets found in Bouchard's body.

They were extradited to Canada and trial commenced Dec. 6 in the little country town of Valleyfield. Palmer, their companion, never was found.

The evidence against them was so convincing that they did not even offer a defense, save for a mercy plea by their lawyer, R. L. Calder, K. C., Canada's most famous criminal counsel.

ELEVATORS LIFT AGAIN

Thursday was a red letter day for courthouse employees.

Governor Jackson was freed in Criminal Court, but that was a minor matter compared to the big news of the day.

Both the new elevators were in service. For the first time in months employees got an even break with time when they waited for the lifts. Heretofore service has been so interrupted that many used the stairways.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush Your Kidneys Occasionally by Drinking Quarts of Good Water

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Too much rich food creates acids which clog the kidney pores so that they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood. Then you get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, begin to drink soft water in quantities; also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also help neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer cause irritation, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone can take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby often preventing kidney complications.

Firms Bear Cost to Avert Dike Break

Before municipal red tape could be unwound the annual spring flood might have eaten through the levee at the point shown in the picture above and caused thousands of dollars' worth of damage to industrial property, so two firms are spending hundreds of dollars to prevent the break.

The break is on the east side of White River at Raymond St. A sandbar threw the current against the levee, eating it away.

Officials of the F. Hilgemeier packing plant, shown in the background of the photograph, and the Illinois Central Railroad, paralleling the levee, are so convinced that the river would pour through the dike and flood their property, that they are paying for labor and materials to repair the break.

SETTLE BOND SNARL

Tax Board Expected to O. K. Huntington Issue.

State Tax Board is expected today to approve the $35,000 bond issue which will provide new equipment and an additional generator for the municipal electric light plant at Huntington.

Westinghouse Electric Company is low bidder, with $28,295 for the equipment, which includes a new 500 k. w. turbine generator condenser and switchboard.

History of the proposed bond issue is stormy. John J. Brown, chairman of the tax board, was accused by Charles Snyder, Huntington mayor, of having advised him it would be cheaper buy power from the Insull interests than to manufacture it. Brown denied it.

Two hearings were held on the

STRIKE PROBE NEARS

Three Coal Fields Under Inquiry Next Week.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Chairman Watson announced today the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee will probably begin next week its investigation of coal strike conditions in Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia.

The Johnson resolution, authorizing a "complete inquiry," passed the Senate yesterday without a dissenting vote.

Watson said the whole committee will undertake the investigation at first, and that he will appoint a subcommittee later to take testimony in the fields.

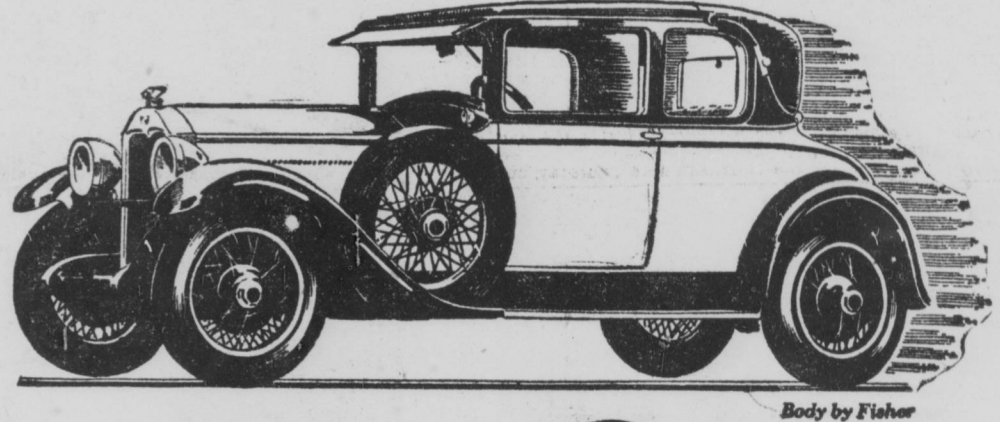

The committee will inquire particularly into alleged abusive tactics employed by coal operators against strikers and their families.

RECEIVER SUES U. S.

Seeks $5,945 Collected From Union Traction.

Arthur W. Brady, Union Traction Company of Indiana receiver, has filed a suit against the Government in Federal Court to recover $5,945 alleged to have been collected illegally by the Government as taxes for the years 1920 and 1921.

The suit charges overpayment was made because of refusal of the collector of internal revenue to allow exemption of $24,311 representing amortization of discounts and commissions on original bond issues in 1903.

SEA RETURNS BODY

Doubt Man Washed Ashore Was Dole Flyer.

By United Press
OXNARD, Cal., Feb. 17.—Attempts were being made here today to identify the body of a man washed ashore on the beach between Ventura and Hueneme.

A black taffeta handkerchief of the kind commonly carried by aviators or sailors, found with the body, was said to be the most likely aid in identification.

Coroner Reardon said the body was well preserved, although partially mutilated by fish. He scoffed at reports that it might be the body of one of the unsuccessful Dole flight entrants.

He urged "ensemble advertising," pointing out that various things that go together should be advertised in groups.

The club will hold a Washington Birthday dance at the Spink-Arms next Wednesday night.

LODGE SEES ADVANCE

Emancipation of Women Is Called Great Step Ahead

By United Press
LONDON, Feb. 17.—The emancipation of women is the greatest achievement of the decade since the war, Sir Oliver Lodge declared here recently.

"I feel that this peaceful revolution will be looked back upon hereafter as a raising of the social standard in many as yet unforeseen ways and as a real and great incentive to permanent world progress," Sir Oliver said.
