Fish in Garden

By NEA Service
WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 17.—Farmer Jake Gray swears to this fish story from the Everglades.
He was plowing his bean patch, he says, when he turned up a live catfish.
If true, there is no telling what might have happened if the fish had remained in the soil and become crossed with a snap bean. The glades might have produced a stew that would be the envy of the now infamous army "slungullion."

Muncie, and Dale Crittender Anderson, Ninth—William H. Parr, Lebanon, and Lucy Elliott, Tipton. Tenth—Ira C. Tilton, Valparaiso, and Edwin McCabe, Williamsport. Eleventh—Milo Feightner, Huntington. Twelfth—Clarence McNabb and L. G. Ellingham, Ft. Wayne. Thirteenth—Herman Newsome, South Bend.

BOLSHEVISM IS TOPIC

Bolshevism and atheism go hand in hand, the Rev. H. C. Boblitt, pastor of the Linwood Christian church, told a father and son banquet at the Second Reformed church, Thursday. Attendance was estimated at 170.

The minister offered the church as a cure for the crime wave, which he described as a challenge to all persons, young men in particular. Mr. Boblitt was a major in the A. E. F.

P. D. HENRY WINS SUBTITLE PRIZE

Results of Gorilla Contest
Are Announced

Percy D. Henry, 1924 Dexter Ave., today was named grand prize winner in the Gorilla Subtitle Contest. Judges were unanimous in his selection and the $25 check was mailed today. Henry also won two first prizes in the daily contests, and the general tone of all his contributions to the contest were high, judges said.

Bryant Gantz, Rural Route O, Box 52, Indianapolis, took second prize of $15. All of his contributions were very good, judges said.

Elmer Bracken, 903 Pearl St., Columbus, Ind., took third prize of $5. Judges for the entire contest were Mrs. J. H. Orndorff, chairman; Miss Marguerite Orndorff, Chicago, dramatic critic of "Educational Screen"; Mrs. David Ross, national president of "Photoplay Indorsers"; Miss Anna Reed and Miss Helen Daily. All judges are members of the Indiana Indorsers of Photoplays.

Plans Pheasant Stocking
PLYMOUTH, Ind., Feb. 17.—One thousand pheasants are to be hatched and liberated near this city in the spring under direction of the local Izaak Walton League.

Ban on Dogs and Chickens.

By Times Special
GREENCASTLE, Ind., Feb. 17.—An ordinance here forbidding roaming at large of dogs and chickens is to be strictly enforced, Mayor Charles McGaughey announces, along with a report by Marshal David Branden that he killed 134 stray dogs last year.

RICHMAN'S CLOTHES

Richman's topcoats are ready—new styles, new weaves, new shades for spring. Fore-handed men are buying them for the welcome change they afford on days when warm rain or bright sun make the winter overcoat burdensome. They are just right in weight for early spring wear.

Last fall, Richman's topcoats created a sensation in value giving—these new models are even finer in quality and workmanship. Luxuriously rich weaves in tweed, plaid and herringbone effects—solid shades and colorful mixtures—soft, resilient fabrics of rare quality, double shrunk and weather-proofed to shed the showers—lavishly lined with Skinner satin and carefully tailored in the Richman shops to insure lasting style and long wear.

Our new Spring suits are ready, too—new styles, weaves and shades in seasonable medium weight weaves—men who are accustomed to fine clothes will appreciate their style, the quality of the woollens and workmanship, and the outstanding value they offer.

Trousers

You will find in our big stock, trousers for every purpose and occasion—and to match that good coat and vest you want to wear longer. We make about 4,000 trousers daily in our two great factories—all sizes in every conceivable pattern and shade. Here you are most likely to find what you want.
