

CITY EMPLOYES GUESTS TODAY AT FOOD SHOW

Mayor Slack Officially to Open Exposition in Address Tonight.

Mayor L. Ert Slack in a speech of welcome and commendation at 9 tonight officially will open the Indianapolis pure food and household appliance show in the Cadle Tabernacle.

Doors will be open to the public at and the seventy-five manufacturers and distributors will greet the visitors with beautifully decorated booths in the first food and household appliance show in this city in five years.

Monday has been dedicated to city employees and The Indianapolis Times and Indianapolis Star. Before and after Mayor Slack's speech, clowns, comedians and singers will frolic on the stage and throughout the building. The Cadle Tabernacle organist will give a musical program during the evening.

Baby Show to Be Held

The Tuesday program will be given over to the Retail Grocers' and Meat Dealers' Association, Inc., of Marion County. Every grocer's wife will be given flowers. Doors will open at 1 p. m. and close at 10:30 p. m. The same hours will be observed the remainder of the week.

The baby show opens at 1:30 p. m. under the direction of C. A. Bell, member of the executive board. Babies up to 7 months will be judged by a staff of physicians in a specially constructed glass house in the Tabernacle.

Real Silk hoseery mills employees will be special guests Wednesday. A public wedding in the evening of Miss Gladys Moorefield and Walter Tiefer, Real Silk employees.

Soldiers to Be Guests

The Rev. Charles Stewart of Cadle Tabernacle will officiate at the ceremony. The ring and flowers have been supplied by The Indianapolis Times and show management. Edward V. Richardson, show director, purchased the bride's trousseau.

Kingan & Co., Taggart Baking Company, Polk Milk Company employees also will be guests Wednesday.

Thursday has been dedicated to wholesale grocers, brokers and manufacturers' salesmen.

Officers and soldiers from Ft. Benjamin Harrison and soldiers, sailors and marines will be special guests Friday.

Police Chief Claude M. Worley and the accident prevention bureau of the police department, will be honored Friday. Public school traffic police will be guests of Chief Worley and will be given special gifts.

Invite Food Managers.

Managers of other food shows were sent invitations. Walter J. Nichols, Cleveland, secretary of the Cleveland Retail Grocers Association; E. J. Klausermeyer, Cincinnati, manager of shows in Cincinnati, Dayton and other cities, and Herman Hanson, Grand Rapids, Mich., secretary and manager of the Grand Rapids pure food and household appliance show, will attend.

That "an army travels on its stomach" will be demonstrated by Captain G. H. Pyor, of the quartermaster department at Ft. Harrison, with a complete army kitchen and field baking equipment.

BOY BANDITS CAREFUL

Robbers of Thornapple Woman Wore Effective Disguises.

By United Press
MONTICELLO, Ind., Feb. 27.—Two bandits who held up the post office and general store operated by Mrs. Mary Grant at Thornapple, north of Logansport, were careful, although neither of them appeared to be more than 16 years old.

Their disguise was perfect, consisting of oversize suits of clothes and shell-rimmed glasses. Not only were they disguised perfectly, but in leaving they jerked the telephone receiver off the hook so she could not call for aid.

They escaped with about $10 from the store cash drawer, but did not bother the money in the postoffice. An automobile was used to escape.

SPANKING UP IN COURT

Judge to Decide If Teacher Is Guilty of Assault and Battery.

Municipal Judge Clifton R. Cameron was to decide today whether "the six or seven licks on the seat of the pants" administered James King, 8, son of Mrs. Lena King, 4817 Caroline Ave., by Miss Florence Brant, second grade teacher at the Washington Township School, on Feb. 15, constituted assault and battery as the mother charged.
