

Alpha Chi of State Holds Annual Fete

THE Alpha Phi sorority held its annual State luncheon today in the Travertine room at the Hotel Lincoln. The luncheon is to be followed by the State dance in the evening.

Mrs. Ray H. Northway, president of the State alumnae, presided, and with her at the speakers table were: Mrs. David Miller, general chairman of the luncheon and dance; Miss Dorothy Hack, president of the active chapter at DePauw University; Mrs. James H. Ruddle, president of the Indianapolis Alumnae Association and Mrs. A. S. Rowe, vice president and Miss Amy Glendening, secretary and treasurer. Chairmen of the various committees were also seated at this table including: Dorothy Klump, Virginia Hudson, Virginia Grishaw, and Edith Funston of the active chapter at DePauw; Mrs. James C. Carter, Mrs. J. McKim Duncan, Mrs. Wood C. Moll, Mrs. Vincent Barker, and Miss Gladys Swinford of the alumnae chapter.

State Officers Chosen

The luncheon proper preceded a short business meeting at which new State officers were elected, as well as a delegate to the national convention of Alpha Phi to be held at Bigwin, Toronto, Canada, in June.

For the luncheon, the tables and room were decorated to carry out the Alpha Phi sorority colors, bordeaux and silver. Soft green smilax was also arranged on the different tables forming the letters of Alpha Phi. Flowers were dark red roses, bunches of lilacs of the valley and forget-me-nots, the latter two the sorority flowers. The menus, which also served as programs, were of grey leather with the Alpha Phi crest in gold on the front.

Musical Program

During the luncheon Miss Martha Pierson, of Wabash, of the active chapter, played the violin, and Miss Ruth Edwards, Newcastle, also of the active chapter, played several piano solos.

During the luncheon a stunt was given by the DePauw active chapter entitled "The Doll Shop," written by a pledge, Miss Martha White, Dana. The cast follows:

The Magician.....Miss Dorothy Mair
Jack-in-the-Box.....Miss Esther Boyle
Monsieur Delille.....Miss Charlotte Jones
Helen Williamson
Doll in Evening Dress.....Miss Marikahy Panbaker
Ballet Doll.....Miss Iris Rogers
Doll House.....Miss Gertrude Strong
Old Fashioned Doll.....Miss Dorothy Klump
Pierrot.....Miss Dorothy Klump
Baton Boy.....Miss Louise Metzler
Tin Soldier.....Miss Sally Roberts

The heads of the committees from the active chapter were:

Dorothy Klump, general chairman; Virginia Hudson, music; Virginia Grishaw, publicity and Edith Funston, entertainment.

Those serving on the alumnae committee were:

Mrs. David Miller, general chairman; Mrs. Ray H. Northway, chairman; and Richard H. Collins, luncheon. Mrs. Carter, chairman, Mrs. A. S. Rowe and Mrs. Louis Oberrecht, decorations. Mrs. J. McKim Duncan, chairman, and Ray D. Grimes and George Moffit, finance. Mesdames Vincent Barker, chairman, C. W. Gable and George W. Miller, and dance. Miss Gladys Swinford, chairman. Mesdames Horace O. Wright and Thomas Hood, Jr.

Dance in Travertine Room

The dance is scheduled for 8:30 p. m. in the Travertine room. Music for the occasion will be provided by Sinclair orchestra of Crawfordsville. The programs will be fashioned in the Alpha Phi colors, made of celluloid with the monograms of the men guests.

The dance decorations are similar to those of the luncheon with smilax grouped on the lights and around the space reserved for the orchestra, while around the room are vases filled with red roses, lilacs of the valley and forget-me-nots.

A feature of the dance will be a "pin dance." The lighted pin will be the only illumination in the darkened room, and the orchestra will play "Alpha Phi, You're the Only Frat For Me."

At the dance will be two rushers who were guests of the DePauw chapter, Miss Jane Baltz, Terre Haute, and Marjorie Hall, Newcastle. Reservations for the luncheon and dance follow. Members of the Indianapolis alumnae are:
