'BACK IN THE HERD'

Trader Horn Arrives in U.S.

NEW YORK, March 14.—Trader Horn, peddler, author, digger of diamonds, has arrived in the United States to plumb the richest claim he ever staked.

The crowded seventy-five years of his life rest lightly upon the co-author of "Trader Horn," the book that became an overnight sensation and which has sold more than 150,000 copies. He is spry and looks at the world through eyes of youth.

Alfred Aloysius Smith (that's his real name), will lecture in this country, thereby augmenting the $4,000 a week in royalties which he receives from his book.

"Aye, I've had ambitions to write for a long time," said Trader Horn, "but they were quasi-ambitions. And I've had money before—seeds of it in ivory, in jewels and in nugget gold. But my money has always had legs.

"You know, I've been a bit of a rogue elephant in my time, and a bit of a rascal elephant. But it's time to be back in the herd again.

"War? Yes, I've seen it. Pulled a trigger in the Boer and Kaffr Wars. People are more humane now and I can't say I'm sorry."

Two years ago Trader Horn was peddling gridirons through the streets of Johannesburg, South Africa. There he met Miss Ethelreda Lewis, novelist, who collaborated with him on his memoirs.

Trader Horn was accompanied to the New York Central system by Andrew Daker of London, his literary agent, and by William O. Hitchison, the English portrait painter. He rode in a second-class cabin.

Simon & Schuster, his publishers, will give a dinner for him here in conjunction with the Literary Guild before he starts his lecture tour.

COPS' PAY HIKE NEAR

Awaits Only Formal Court Mandate Judge Says.

A mandate forcing the city to pay the police and firemen's $10 yearly pay increase awaits only the formal drawing of the papers, Superior Judge Byron K. Elliott said today.

The increase means addition of approximately $11,000 to the city's annual expenses.

Judge Elliott settled the main point last week in a decision on a demurral. The case now must go through the formality of trial, the drawing of the entry and its signing by the court.

It was indicated these will go through as scheduled.

N.Y.C. DENIES DEPRESSING OF COAL PRICES

Show No Discrimination Against Indiana Unions, Declares Agent.

By Times Special

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Complete and sweeping denial of any attempt to depress coal prices in the Indiana union field was made today on behalf of the New York Central Railroad Company before the Senate coal investigation committee by W. C. Bower, the railroad's manager of purchases.

Bower said the lines west of Elkhart bought 1,500,000 tons of coal a year in the union-operated Indiana-Illinois districts.

The United Mine Workers, through President John L. Lewis, have charged that the New York Central, the B. & O. and the Pennsylvania railroads are engaged in a conspiracy against the union fields and cited unemployment conditions in the Bicknell field as the result of the action, particularly of the Pennsylvania.

Phil H. Penna of Terre Haute and Edward Logsdon of Indianapolis are here to appear as witnesses before the committee and may go on the stand later today.

Under cross-examination by Henry Warrum of Indianapolis, counsel for the United Mine Workers, Bower admitted his road, which paid an average of $2.80 a ton in 1923, paid only $1.97 in 1917 in Pennsylvania. Prices in West Virginia range from $1.45 to $1.75, he said. For the union coal of Indiana, the road pays $1.90 up to $1.95 in southern Illinois, he said, answering question by Senator Wheeler of Montana.

"I have not attempted to exercise the bargaining power of the New York Central system to depress prices or to discriminate between operators or miners, whether union or non-union. I try to obtain reasonable prices by reasonable negotiation."

"I have not agreed or understood with the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Baltimore & Ohio, or any other railroad company outside the New York Central system concerning prices to be paid, the localities from which purchases are to be made or the class of operators."

"I am not and I have not been engaged in any conspiracy, to exert bargaining power to depress prices of railroad fuel or to favor non-union operators."

"I know that the management of the New York Central system is not engaged in any such conspiracy."
