

SURVEY SHOWS HOOVER HOLDS 414 DELEGATES

Secretary's Strength Much
Greater Than Others,
Followers Say.

Herbert Hoover's Indiana supporters are making campaign ammunition of a Washington, D. C., newspaper's survey of the Republican presidential race, crediting Hoover with an indicated vote at this time of 414 of the 545 delegates needed for his nomination at the national convention.

Albert W. Fox, political writer for the Washington Post, compiled the survey, after personally investigating prospects in many States and conferring with national committeemen, party leaders and others.

Fox now is in Indianapolis, sizing up the primary contest between Hoover and Senator James E. Watson for the State's presidential preference vote, on which hinges the vote of thirty-three Indiana delegates to the national convention.

Fox's account relates in detail the sources of his information and the bases for his conclusions.

Indicated Vote Shown

Hoover's indicated vote, as it stood, according to his report, early this week:

	Hoover Others
Alabama	15
Arkansas	9 (11)
California	29
Colorado	15
Connecticut	8 (18)
Iowa	22 (29)
Kansas	22
Louisiana	22
Maine	15
Massachusetts	20 (39)
Michigan	33
Minnesota	5 (27)
Mississippi	5
Oregon	13
Rhode Island	13
New Hampshire	11
New Jersey	30 (90)
Ohio	12 (51)
Texas	24 (26)
Tennessee	11
Utah	7
West Virginia	10 (19)
Wyoming	9
Total	414

There will be 1,089 delegates to the national convention; a majority, 545 or more, being necessary for nomination.

Is Real Candidate

"These figures," said Oscar G. Foellinger, Hoover's Indiana manager, "substantiate what we have been contending—that Hoover is a candidate in the true and full sense of the word. His entry in the Indiana primary for that reason was warranted. Indianaans should and will have opportunity of voting their preference for him."

"Had Hoover not entered the Indiana primary contest, Indiana's delegates to the national convention would have gone, by default, to Senator Watson, regardless of the dissatisfaction and disappointment of thousands of Indiana Republicans."

While Hoover's organization has set as its goal to sweep the State for the Secretary of Commerce and win all thirty-three delegates, observers agree that, regardless whether that objective is accomplished, Hoover has more to gain than to lose in the Indiana primary.

Would Gain Votes

If he should fail to beat Watson, but carry certain Congressional districts, delegates from the Hoover districts would be expected to choose in turn national delegates favorable to Hoover, who would vote for him at the Kansas City convention upon Watson's withdrawal.

On the eve of the State Republican convention, State delegates will meet by district and name two delegates from each district to the national convention. Seven delegates-at-large will be elected on the floor of the State convention.

Survives Caesarian Operation

By Times Special
BLOOMINGTON, Ind., March 15.—Mrs. Albert King and the baby boy born to her in a Bloomington hospital by a Caesarian operation are reported in good condition.

HEALED his RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. I gared my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely healed me. Years have passed, although I am doing heavy work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no loss of time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell but will give full information about how you may find complete relief without operation if you write to me. Eugene M. Pullen, Carpenter, 5708 Marcellus Avenue, Manhattan, N. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to the doctor who has ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of the rupture and the worry and dread of an operation—Advertisement.

Then the doctor recommended this

One woman who had long suffered from a severe case of eczema, says: "For many months I was really bothered. I tried four or five different remedies without success. Then my doctor recommended Resinoil. Almost instantly the discomfort stopped, and a week or ten days later my skin was almost cleared." Thousands of others have had the same results with Resinoil. It is absolutely safe to use. As all druggists.
