

Warming 'Em Up

PLANT CITY, Fla., March 21.—Keen rivalry comes to the surface in the practice tilts played in the Tribe's spring training camp. For instance, in Tuesday's battle, Bud Connolly made a play on Layne that looked like midseason stuff. Layne was trapped off first base in the fifth inning, and in the run-down that followed Connolly adopted football tackling tactics and secured the "out" by leaving his feet in a head-dive and tagging the fleet Layne on one of his heels. Action of that kind proves the boys are hustling, for Connolly risked getting a spiked face when he left his feet and made the dive.

Big Thompson is making a brave effort to stay with the Indians and his work of Tuesday was applauded. He has taken off eleven pounds since coming down from the North and was not "right" until Tuesday. He won twenty games and lost twelve in the Southeastern League last season, playing Class B ball.

Mueller turned in a dandy catch on a low liner Tuesday and this St. Louis athlete once more scored heavily with the bosses.

Byron Speece and Emil Yde were slated to do the mound work against Buffalo today.

Reb Russell went hitless Tuesday, but managed to cut a few capers in the outfield. He's a sure catch when he can reach them.

Catcher Roy Spencer caught the entire game against St. Louis Monday and won a rest Tuesday. He chose to umpire, along with Steve Swetonic.

Holke turned in a good day's play at first base, but went hitless. Chet Russell, the other first sacker, had a similar record.

OWNER JAMES PERRY has decided to accompany his brother, Norman A. Perry, and a few other vacationists to Cuba. They leave tonight. In addition to the Perrys, the party will consist of the following Indianapolis men: W. C. Richardson, Tribe treasurer; Martin Hugg, Arch Grossman, Elmer Scott and Harry Boggs. They had a field day of their own in and around Plant City, Tuesday morning. Becoming ambitious they ran around the bases at the ball park and even Martin Hugg, despite his seventy years, turned the trick, much to the surprise of the astonished ball players.

Visitors at camp Tuesday were Bill Clymer, Joe Cantillon and Rube Vickers, all well known to old-time fans. Cantillon put in a boost for "Doll" Jacobson, veteran outfielder. Joe always favored the big boys who could club the horsehide.

Jacobson is leading the outfielders at bat and Fred Haney tops the infielders. Matthews is trailing the fly chasers and Holke is last among the infielders.

Weather in these parts Tuesday was clear and warm, but not hot. It was ideal for practice.

NO RIVAL FOR JOB Lou Gehrig, New York Yankees' first baseman, is the only player on the club who has no understudy for his position.

Hair Stays "Put!"

A neat, smart-looking head suggests "clean cut." A little "Hair Groom" each morning sets your hair for the day and gives it a spic and span appearance. ## Farrell Cops $15,000 Open Golf Tourney

Daring Young Pro Wins La Gorce Event by Brilliant Playing.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 21.—Johnny Farrell, Mamaroneck, N. Y., professional, won the La Gorce $15,000 open golf tournament because he dared where Bobby Cruikshank hesitated. Farrell had a scoring 30-33-63, eight under par on the last 18 holes of the 72-hole tournament for a total of 274, two strokes ahead of Cruikshank, who lost because he played canny, conservative golf.

Johnny Farrell

The Scot, who was out in 30, elected to stick to par coming in, believing he had won the tournament. Gene Sarazen, who had led through the first 54, broke going out, taking a 39. Cruikshank was in 36 for a 66 and 276 total. Farrell's game in the final round was featured by six birdies and an Eagle. He used woodens where an older player would have used irons.

Hold Collegian for Fatal Bout

LOS ANGELES, March 21.—Philip Bromley, University of Southern California boxer, was held on a technical charge of manslaughter today while authorities investigated the death of Michael Carnakis, 21, who died after he fought Bromley in an intramural bout here Tuesday night.

Carnakis and Bromley met in a 145-championship match. As the referee stepped to the center of the ring to award Carnakis the decision, Carnakis fell unconscious. He died six hours later.

Coast Swimmers Here Next Week

A large crowd of local swimming fans are expected to witness the swimming meet between the Indianapolis Athletic Club paddlers and the Leland Stanford team at the L. A. G. pool next Wednesday night. The Stanford outfit is the Pacific coast intercollegiate champion and some of the best known swimmers in the country are on the team.

Noteworthy among the Stanford stars is Pete Des Jardines, Olympic diving champion. Frank Kennedy and James Hall are among the local stars.

Spirit of Tribesmen Improved; Warstler Performs Brilliantly in Practice; Bosses Announce Plans.

BY EDDIE ASH Times Sports Editor.

PLANT CITY, Fla., March 21.—Indian stock soared today as Bruno Betzel's pastimers tuned up to meet the Buffalo team, champions of the International League. The Bisons, managed by Bill Clymer, were billed to oppose the Hoosiers this afternoon in Plant City and the boys who wear the Tribe spangles were itching to put over a victory. Improvement in the spirit of the Indians cropped out Tuesday when the athletes went through one of the best drills of the spring training season right before the eyes of all of the club executives, including President James Perry, Vice President Norman Perry and Treasurer W. C. Richardson.

"Rabbit" Warstler, shortstop, shook off the stage fright that hurt his looks Monday when the Indians lost to the St. Louis Cardinals, and he performed brilliantly in the field and at bat. Moreover, the club officials announced they were not through bolstering the team and added the important information that the matter of money was a minor item. "Whatever Manager Betzel feels he needs, we'll try to obtain," they said. And that being the situation it is taken for granted the club bosses mean to continue their efforts to land a new first baseman, perhaps one or two new pitchers and another left-handed hitting outfielder.

Cash or players or cash and players will be used in the deals proposed, of course. The Indians, as they stand, stack up promising, far better than last year at this time, but the idea of the Tribe officials is to toss their bank roll in the ring and strengthen the club in the departments where Manager Betzel fears weaknesses may crop out later when the A. A. campaign becomes hot.

After a morning of batting practice Tuesday, the squad was divided in the afternoon and a practice game of seven innings was staged. The nine piloted by Betzel won over Coach Corriden's outfit, 3 to 0.

The pitching of Burwell and Thompson proved too much for Corriden's Club, the former allowing only one hit in three innings and the latter only two bingles in four rounds.

Layne, Haney and Warstler were the only boys to get two hits during the melee and the longest drive was Walter Mueller's triple. Doubles were poked by Haney and Jacobson. The fielding of Connolly, Warstler and Mueller was above the average.

Lefty Thompson attracted attention with his pitching, the big fellow striking out four men in addition to giving up only two hits in four innings. Schemanske and Cavet hurled for the losing team, the former looking much better than the tall veteran southpaw. Tuesday's box score:

Fights and Fighters

PORTLAND, ORE.—Curley Bellanger, Vancouver, light heavyweight, defeated Joe Lohman, Toledo, Ohio, ten rounds.

WILKESBARRE, Pa.—Frankie Schell, Buffalo, N. Y., and Maxie Rosenbloom, New York, fought ten rounds to a draw.

Billy Vidabek, Bayonne, N. J., light heavyweight, was disqualified in the eighth round of his fight with Sunny Jim Adams for failure to "mix it."

READING, Pa.—Eddie Lyko, Scranton, Pa., defeated Freddy Jackson, Philadelphia, eight rounds at the Keystone Athletic Club.

BRISTOL, Mass.—Bass, welterweight, Baltimore, and Battling Willard, Lancaster, fought eight rounds to a draw.

NEW HAVEN, Conn.—Phil McGraw, Detroit, lightweight, and George Day fought ten rounds to a draw.

The 'Big Parade'

THE "big parade" starts Thursday at 12:30. Norman E. Isaacs, conductor of "The Times" basketball column, "Off The Backboard," certainly "stepped" into something when he accepted C. R. Feirell's wager of 1532 Ashland Ave.

Isaacs will tote Feirell around the Circle in a wheelbarrow as the penalty for picking a "loser" in the State finals basketball tourney. Feirell picked Muncie.

New Leader in 'Bunion Derby'

HOLBROOK, Ariz., March 21.—With Arne Souminen, Detroit runner, holding time advantage, athletes in the C. C. Eyle cross-country "bunion derby" today started out on a jaunt of thirty-nine miles to Navajo, the next control station.

Andrew Payne, Claremore, Okla., youth who held the top position after Arthur Newton, flying Englishman, was forced to drop out, finished well back in the field Tuesday.

LEADERS UNCHANGED

Few Good Scores Rolled in American Bowling Congress.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 21.—The ten leaders in the American Bowling Congress standings remained nearly unchanged today after Tuesday night's play. Joseph Corcoran of Buffalo, N. Y., rolled the best game of the day with scores of 226, 231 and 223 for a total of 680.

Corcoran's score put him into a tie for fourth place in the singles standings with Capt. George Barrett, army officer of Jersey City, N. J.

Lester Bell Is Traded to Boston Club

Braves Get Star Card Third-Sacker for High and $20,000.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 21.—The Boston Braves today appeared more formidable than ever as a result of the acquisition of Lester Bell, who starred at third base for the St. Louis Cardinals when they won the world's championship in 1926.

To get Bell, the Braves gave Andy High and $20,000 in cash. The Cardinals wanted Eddie Moore, Braves' all-round player who is now holding down a regular outfield berth, but Manager Slatery refused to part with him.

Rogers Hornsby, manager the 1926 Cardinals, was largely responsible for the deal which brought Bell to the Braves. Hornsby and Bell are close friends, and it was under the "Rajah" Bell played his best baseball.

The Braves' infield of Burrus, Hornsby, Farrell and Bell now shapes up as one of the best in the league. Bell was handicapped by injuries and a nervous breakdown last season and batted only .256, but he has regained his health and apparently is headed for a successful season. He batted .325 in 1926.

HIGH AS UTILITY

"Wattie" Holm to Play at Third Base for Cardinals.

AVON PARK, Fla., March 21.—"Wattie" Holm, who has done everything with the Cardinals but pitch, will be used at third base, Manager Bill McKechnie announced today.

Andy High, who was obtained from the Braves in the trade for Lester Bell, will be retained as a utility man, McKechnie said. He will be given a trial at third base.

28 TEAMS ENTERED

More Schools Enter U. of Chicago's National Scholastic Meet.

CHICAGO, March 21.—Entry list in the University of Chicago national interscholastic basketball tournament were increased to twenty-eight with entries of Winfield, Kan.; Iron Mountain, Mich.; Bristol, Conn.; Stivers High, Dayton, Ohio; Oregon, Mo.; Yankton, S. D.; Ashland, Ky.; Carr Creek, Ky.; and Wheeling, W. Va.

Spring Training Camp Gossip, Chatter

FEARS STALENESS

ORLANDO, Fla., March 21.—Manager Jack Hendricks of the Cincinnati Reds today took measures to prevent his players from going stale. There will be only one workout each day the balance of the week, and the players may play all the golf they desire.

SENATORS VS. ROBINS

TAMPA, Fla., March 21.—The Washington Senators went out today to make it two in a row over the Brooklyn Robins. Hopkins and Griffin were slated to hurl for the Senators.

HEALTHY AVERAGE

AVON PARK, Fla., March 21.—The St. Louis Cardinals today boasted a percentage of .778 in the Florida "grapefruit" league, having won seven exhibition games and lost two. Practice was scheduled for the Cards today.

EVANS SEEKS HUNNEFELD

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 21.—Despite a denial by Billy Evans, general manager of the Cleveland Indians, rumors persisted here today that the Indians were after Bill Hunnefeld, Chicago White Sox infielder. Evans said no offer had been made since last winter.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 21.—Lester Bell, former Cardinal star, was to play his first game at third base for the Boston Braves against the New York Yankees today. Rogers Hornsby was worried today over his failure to start hitting. He went hitless Tuesday in a game with the Yankees and has made only three hits in nine games.
