

MARCH REPORT SHOWS SALE OF 1,472 NEW CARS

Chevrolet Leads in Marion
County With 410; Olds
Is Second.

The automobiles business has felt the impetus of the gentle spring breezes and is booming, according to the report of Marion County new automobile registrations at the secretary of State's office as compiled by the Indiana Clipping Service, 327 Empire Life Bldg.

Marion County residents registered 1,472 new pleasure machines in March, compared to 882 in February.

Exceeded Only by 1927
The March figure was the largest ever recorded here with the exception of March of 1927, when 1,628 cars were listed, according to the report.

Chevrolet led the field in March registrations with 410 machines, compared to 243 in February and 380 in March last year.

Fords were high in the list a year ago with 353 new cars sold in the county in March. With the Indianapolis Ford assembly plant still idle and dealers forced to obtain cars from other distributing centers, only 65 Fords were registered this March.

The Oldsmobile was second on the list this March with 109 machines listed. Pontiac was third with 100.

Bandits Too Tiresome

"The only trouble with filling station hold-ups," says the philosophical gas merchant, "is that my arms get tired holding my hands up in the air."

With this thought in mind M. L. Chaney, of the English theater, invented an iron bar suspended from the roof of the filling station on which the attendant could rest his arms while the till was being rifled.

The Loose Nut Editor will take up the idea with John D., if he stops playing golf long enough.

The Indianapolis Times pays $2 for any Loose Nut idea submitted and illustrated by Lee Williams, Times cartoonist, and publisher.

the livestock judging pavilion at the Lafayette and is expected to attract several hundred stockmen.

IDENTIFIES DEAD MAN AS BANDIT

Milroy Bandit Victim Sees
Body at Morgue.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., April 3.—The body of a man which lies unidentified in a morgue here is that of a bandit shot by F. O. Hillis, proprietor of a filling station at Milroy, who was held up and robbed of $50 by two men Sunday night.

Hillis has identified the automobile in which the body was found two miles north of here Monday as the car used by the bandits, and also declared the body that of one of the bandits. The car was stolen from Glen E. Moore, Rushville.

Police today are attempting to trace a long distance telephone call to a morgue here Monday. A woman asked if the body of a man with a bullet wound in the head was in the morgue.
