

BERKELL WILL OPEN HIS SIXTH SEASON

'Mary's Other Husband,' a Comedy, Has Been Selected as the Opening Bill of Stock Company at English's, Starting Sunday Night, April 29.

BY WALTER D. HICKMAN

CHARLES BERKELL will open his sixth season of summer stock at English's on Sunday night, April 29.

"Mary's Other Husband," a comedy by Larry B. Johnson, will be the opening bill, Harry Kenecke, business manager, announced today.

Many of the players that Berkell has placed under contract are well known here because of their appearances with this company.

There will also be several players new to this city as well as a new director. Berkell opens his season here with more contracted players than he ever has had.

The Berkell Company will consist of the following:

Milton Burton Leading man
Edythe Elliott Leading woman
Lorraine Arnold Ingenue
Lorraine Sullivan Canadian
Ernestine Marsolais Second business woman
Robert F. Clair Second business man
Hilda H. Hause Character woman
Harry Hoxworth Character man
William Worewick Director
Harvey Schreiber Technical director and stage manager
Charles Berkell Master builder
Charles Berkell Managing director
Marie Chaney and Stewart Parsons Treasurers

Mr. Benecke said today:

"Both Harry Hoxworth and William Worewick are new to Indianapolis, and both will bring to their work here a large experience covering a period of several years in theatrical work."

The advance seat sale opens on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at English's box office on April 26.

The usual popular prices will prevail. All performances will begin right at 8:15 o'clock and at 2:15 on Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons. Season seat reservations, as in former years, will be booked at the box office.

Orders by mail for any of the first week's performances, accompanied by remittance, will be given attention promptly and may be sent immediately. The Sahara Grotto has bought the entire house for Tuesday evening, May 1.

"Informal receptions will be held on the stage after each of the matinees during the opening week."

The Berkell Company will open a three weeks' engagement on April 8, in Davenport, Iowa, a usual procedure with Mr. Berkell, so that his company may be in perfect running order for his opening performances here."

Indianapolis theaters today offer:

"The Pirates of Penzance" at English's; new vaudeville bill at Keith's; Marie and Rosita at the Lyric; "The Patsy" at the Indiana; "Rose Marie" at Loew's Palace; "A Night of Mystery" at the Apollo; "The Opening Night" at the Ohio and burlesque at the Mutual.

Weeks pass. Guido Petti, the great foreign music master, and Betty, are in the studio alone.

Guido: (drawing her to him) So beautiful, so talented are you. Soon we shall go abroad—just you and I. If you are ready we could leave at once.

Betty: (her head whirling) But—but my husband—

Guido: Your husband! Bah! What does he know of your desires? So young you are—so lovely.

JENSEN TO QUIT BUTLER BERTH

Professor of Sociology to Missouri University.

Prof. Howard E. Jensen, professor of sociology at Butler University for the last eight years, will resign at the close of this school year to become professor of that department of the University of Missouri, it was announced today.

The board of curators of the university met in Kansas City this week and confirmed the appointment. Jensen will go to Columbia, Mo., about July 1, he said.

Jensen was born in Herington, Kas., September 6, 1889. He has degrees from Drake University, the University of Kansas and the University of Missouri. He was a Fellow in sociology at the University of Chicago, 1916 to 1918, and director of the Latin-American Survey, Interchurch World Movement, 1919 and 1920.

He is a member of the Indianapolis Literary Club, National Board of the Social Welfare, Disciples of Christ, the American Social Society, the American Association of Social Workers, the American Academy of Political and Social Science and the Indiana Academy of Science.

In 1920, Jensen made social surveys in four republics of Central America.

Views Christ's Cross as Triumph

"The cross of Christ shall never cease to be a tragedy, but we can see it now, in the light of centuries of Christian experience, to be a splendid triumph," the Rev. Charlie Stewart, Winona Lake evangelist, said Wednesday night at Cadle Tabernacle.
