

PHOTOGRAPH IS FIRST STEP IN BEAUTY MATCH

Pictures of Entrants in National Contest to Be Published.

Names and pictures of the first entrants in the Times-Indiana Ballroom Bathing Beauty Contest will be published this week, it was announced today.

Miss Indianapolis will be selected in the contest April 24 in the Indiana Ballroom. Every pretty girl in this city has a chance to win. The contest is limited to unmarried girls between the ages of 16 and 25 who have never had professional stage or moving picture experience.

Business firms of national reputation are entering contestants, and many girls are entering themselves.

Pictures Are Free

All that is necessary is to fill out the coupon on this page and mail it to The Times-Indiana Beauty Contest Editor at The Times office. As soon as the application is mailed, go to the Drexelheimer Studios, 912 Odd Fellow Bldg., Pennsylvania and Washington Sts., and they will take your picture.

This picture is to be used in The Times in connection with the contest only. And there is no charge of course, either for taking the picture or publishing it.

While Miss Indianapolis is being chosen, about twenty-five other Indiana towns will select their representative for the State contest.

These winners assemble in the Indiana Theater Monday, May 7, and Miss Indiana will be named from the group.

To Miss Indiana goes the honor of representing the State in the world-wide contest at Galveston, Tex., June 2 to 5, for the selection of Miss Universe.

Contestants from every State in the country and from fifteen foreign countries will compete for the grand title.

Many Prizes Offered

From the start of the city contest to the end of the world-wide contest, every honor will be heaped upon the winners. All of their expenses will be paid by the organization sponsoring the contest.

And then there are cash and merchandise prizes in the city, State and world wide contests. A cash prize of $5,000 is posted for the world finals. Some Indianapolis girls may share in this gold mine "at the end of the rainbow."

Even if you don't win the grand prize, The Times and Indiana offer a week's theatrical engagement at the Circle theater for a dozen or more girls.

Over and above the local stage work is the moving picture industry always on the look out for beautiful women for pictures. Many of today's stars started by winning in contests such as this one.

This is an opportunity no beautiful woman can overlook. Sign the coupon on this page and start on the road to fame and fortune.

APPROVES BAN ON RED LIGHTS ON AMBULANCES

Undertaker Says Reckless Speed Never Safer Life.

Dr. William A. Doeppers, city hospital superintendent, today received a letter from Clifford G. Askin of Royster and Askin, undertakers, 1902 N. Meridian St., complimenting his stand on use of sirens and red lights on private ambulances.

The safety board issued an order prohibiting private ambulances from using red lights and sirens in accordance with the State motor law. Askin said in his twenty-five years as an undertaker he did not recall a single instance where a life had been saved by driving an ambulance at reckless speed.

"On the other hand a number of lives have been lost by reckless driving. Private ambulances should operate quietly and attract as little attention as possible except in cases of extreme emergency," Askin said.

Arrest 350 in Month

GARY, Ind., April 9.—March was a busy month for the city's law forces, when police arrested 350 persons and recovered a total of $13,475 worth of stolen loot, according to the monthly report of Captain James Vodic.

DOCTOR SHOWS QUICK WAY TO END COLDS

Many Here Find Hospital Method Is Pleasant for Use at Home—Ends Cold in Few Hours

Urging the danger of neglecting a cold during pneumonia weather, hospital physicians are recommending for home use a remedy that brings quick, sure relief, even in extreme hospital cases. And numbers of Indianapolis people find that it is not only inexpensive but pleasant to take and ideal to end a head cold, cough or chest cold.

J. H. Driscoll, for example, had neglected a head cold until congestion spread down into his chest, bringing on a fever of 101. Fearing pneumonia then, he called his doctor, who advised double strength doses of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, a concentrated mixture of wild cherry, terpin hydrate and other ingredients recognized as the most effective for severe colds.

With the first pleasant swallow he felt its comforting, healing warmth—from his nose passages deep down into his chest. In a few hours the "feverish, grippy" feeling began to disappear; and in another day or so, the doctor reports, he was completely rid of the cold.

Note: See other cases reported daily

REALTORS' EXHIBIT IS REOPENED TODAY

More Than 8,000 Visitors Brave Biting Cold for Premiere.

Today is Home Builders' day at the Realtors' Home Show in the Manufacturers' Bldg. at the State Fairground. After being closed Sunday, the show reopened at 11 a. m. this morning, and a record crowd is expected to pass the turnstiles before the doors close at 10:30 this evening.

The show management urges all who can to attend the show in the afternoon, to avoid the crowds. Special features have been carded for every day of the week, closing Saturday with a monster celebration.

Better weather, in prospect for today, promises an even greater attendance than the 8,000 who jammed through the turnstiles Saturday night. Those who braved the biting weather, more suited to December than April.

House Formally Presented

At 4:30 Saturday night a brief presentation ceremony occurred in the model home. M. M. Miller, chairman of the home show committee, introduced Fred L. Palmer, president of the Indianapolis Home Builders' Association, who erected the home. He explained the purpose of the home, and thanked all who had cooperated in its successful completion.

Emerson W. Chaille, president of the Real Estate Board, declared that Indianapolis home shows have always been regarded as outstanding, among all that are given in the United States, in his talk. He formally presented the show and the mayor accepted on behalf of the city.

Model Home Is Feature of Show

The 1928 model home, centerpiece of the Realtors' Home Show in progress in the Manufacturers' Bldg., State Fairground. The house, of wooden construction, was designed by Architect Merritt Harrison.

RADIO SHAKE-UP MAY ELIMINATE 135 STATIONS

Five Equal Zoning Plan of Congress Stormed by Protests.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Federal radio commissioners today are struggling with what they predict will be the biggest radio shakeup Federal regulation.

Stations will be driven from the air, time will be curtailed, wavebands, frequency and power will be changed and the entire broadcasting arrangement reorganized in an effort to execute specific instructions of Congress which require an equal distribution of station to the five radio zones of the United States and "an equitable distribution of service to the states."

Under the new plan radio engineers have advised the commission there can be only 550 stations throughout the nation, as against 685 now on the air.

This will provide 110 stations, for example, in the populous second zone of Pennsylvania, Virginia, Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky and a similar number in the less populous fifth zone embracing Colorado, California, Utah, New Mexico, Wyoming, Nevada, Idaho, Arizona, Washington, Oregon, Hawaii and Alaska.

In all zones but 270 stations can broadcast simultaneously without causing interference, the engineers have concluded. This will mean that the number of full-time stations will be greatly restricted.

Test of the State law governing pleas of insanity in criminal cases, and examination of the accused by disinterested physicians appointed by the court, is seen in a Marion County case pending in Hancock Circuit Court at Greencastle.

Indiana has one of the wisest laws of any State regarding examinations of the accused, according to Deputy Prosecutor Paul Rhoadarmer.

The law is alleged to be unconstitutional in the motion for a new trial filed by attorneys for Elmer Russell, of Indianapolis, convicted of first degree murder of his wife, Estella May. His sentence is life imprisonment.

Law Enacted In 1927

The Indiana law, enacted in 1927, provides that when a plea of insanity is entered, the court may appoint two or three alienists to examine the accused, and testify at the close of the evidence before the arguments.

Such testimony by disinterested physicians would follow that of alienists of both State and defense. Both sides can cross-examine the physicians.

The motion for a new trial for

TALL BEER BET NIPPED

VIENNA, April 9.—Ferdinand Weinhegast, out of a job, bet a friend fifty tankards of beer—at odds of 5 to 1 against—that he could climb to the top of St. Stephen's Cathedral, more than 400 feet from the ground. He started the attempt at night and climbed seventy feet. Meanwhile, the police had been notified and Weinhegast was ordered down.

By United Press

Test of the State law governing pleas of insanity in criminal cases, and examination of the accused by disinterested physicians appointed by the court, is seen in a Marion County case pending in Hancock Circuit Court at Greencastle.

Indiana has one of the wisest laws of any State regarding examinations of the accused, according to Deputy Prosecutor Paul Rhoadarmer.

The law is alleged to be unconstitutional in the motion for a new trial filed by attorneys for Elmer Russell, of Indianapolis, convicted of first degree murder of his wife, Estella May. His sentence is life imprisonment.

Law Enacted In 1927

The Indiana law, enacted in 1927, provides that when a plea of insanity is entered, the court may appoint two or three alienists to examine the accused, and testify at the close of the evidence before the arguments.

Such testimony by disinterested physicians would follow that of alienists of both State and defense. Both sides can cross-examine the physicians.

The motion for a new trial for

New Trial Plea to Test Sanity Defense Statute

Law of Testimony of Alienists Defended by Prosecutors.

Russell sets out that similar statutes in Michigan and Illinois have been held unconstitutional.

Supported by Medics

Such laws have been supported by the medical fraternity because it eliminates a great deal of ridicule heaped on the profession when two alienists, one on each side, testify to opposite conclusions as to the sanity of the accused.

"If the defendant really is insane," Prosecutor William H. Remy said, "his attorney need not fear the testimony of disinterested alienists. If he is not insane, the State has a better chance to show it."

Testimony as to a man's sanity at the time of trial, or even shortly after the commission of the crime, has to do with his mental condition at the time the crime was committed, only reflectively, Rhoadarmer said.

Rheumatism Recipe

While serving with the American Army in France I was given a prescription for Rheumatism and Neuritis that has produced most gratifying results in thousands of cases. The prescription cost me nothing, so I ask nothing for it, but will send it free to any one who writes me. Ex-Sergeant Paul Case, Room 256, Quigg Bldg., Brockton, Mass.—Advertisement.

Methodists Will Meet

MARRISTON, Ind., April 9.—Attendance of 350 is expected here Tuesday and Wednesday at the meeting of the Connersville district, Methodist Episcopal Church, Dr. Earl E. Harper, Evansville College president, will speak Tuesday night, and the Rev. Gervaise Roughton, Cincinnati, Ohio, Wednesday night.

Have Your Glasses Charged!

The Store of Greater Values
OPTICAL DEPT.
THE FAIR
311-325 West Washington St.

Campaign Log

More than 100 delegates to the Republican national convention at Kansas City will be chosen at four State conventions and two primaries this week. Both the Illinois and Nebraska primaries are tomorrow, with the latter State almost assured for Senator Norris.

Former Governor Lowden's fight for his own State delegation is the principal interest—outside of the heated Chicago local campaign—in Illinois. The Rhode Island convention is today with Secretary Hoover the only candidate; Idaho Tuesday is expected to give its delegation to Senator Borah, while Hoover-Lowden fights are expected at the North Carolina convention Wednesday and the New Mexico convention Saturday.

Governor Alfred E. Smith and his family will go to Asheville, N. C., this week for what Smith describes as a "vacation." It is expected he will confer with southern Democratic leaders.

R. B. Creager, Republican national committeeman of Texas, said that the real farmers favored the candidacy of Secretary of Commerce Hoover.

Dr. Hiram W. Evans, Imperial wizard of the Ku-Klux Klan, said his organization would take no particular stand in the coming presidential election, but would fight "against that nullificationist, Governor Al Smith."

Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, former Governor of Wyoming, after a speaking tour of the South, said she believed sentiment favoring the Democratic candidacy of Governor Smith was gaining favor.

"When My Baby Was Run Down"

Father John's Medicine Helped Him Gain Weight

"My baby was sick, pale and run down. One of my neighbors recommended Father John's Medicine, and since giving it to him he has felt fine and has no colds. He has also gained weight. I am giving it to all my children." (Signed) Mrs. Rose De Pontilard, Shirley, Mass.

For children who are pale and thin, who suffer from repeated colds, Father John's Medicine has proven its value for more than 70 years. It builds new strength because it is pure and wholesome nourishment.—Advertisement.

Butler to Give Musical Show

Front row (left to right), Dorothy Ragan, Francis Kirkpatrick, Mary Hoover, Dixie McKay, Mildred Sullivan, Mary Louise Pierce, Virginia Ballwig and Margaret Shanklin. Middle row: Margaret Kent, Francis Boston, Opal Fleming, Dorothy Beightol, Beatrice Johnson, Virginia Flowers, Margaret Woessner, Jessie Prie and Elizabeth Underwood. Back row: Betty Jean Davis, Ruth Comelence, Lucinda Smith, Louise Cox, Helen Konecke and Joalice Mount.

This is the dancing chorus in Butler University's all-school musical show to be presented at the Murat, April 21. "Fairview Folies" was written by Henry Herbert, Joseph Gremelspacher and John H. Heiney. The production has a company of 100 and is being given by the Butler Men's Union.

'CORPSELESS MURDER' CASE NOT YET CLOSED

Special Prosecutor Proposes Trial of Martin V. Ross.

WARSAW, Ind., April 9.—Dismissal of charges against Verne Martin in Kosciusko County's "corpseless murder," apparently has not ended the lengthy proceedings following disappearance a year ago of Franklin Tucker, local cigar store clerk.

Walter Brubaker, special prosecutor, announces that despite release of Martin, he is determined to try Martin V. Ross, held in the Tucker case on a murder charge. Brubaker proposes to have a special judge try Ross at an early date.

Methodists Will Meet

MARRISTON, Ind., April 9.—Attendance of 350 is expected here Tuesday and Wednesday at the meeting of the Connersville district, Methodist Episcopal Church, Dr. Earl E. Harper, Evansville College president, will speak Tuesday night, and the Rev. Gervaise Roughton, Cincinnati, Ohio, Wednesday night.

Have Your Glasses Charged!

The Store of Greater Values
OPTICAL DEPT.
THE FAIR
311-325 West Washington St.

Campaign Log

More than 100 delegates to the Republican national convention at Kansas City will be chosen at four State conventions and two primaries this week. Both the Illinois and Nebraska primaries are tomorrow, with the latter State almost assured for Senator Norris.

Former Governor Lowden's fight for his own State delegation is the principal interest—outside of the heated Chicago local campaign—in Illinois. The Rhode Island convention is today with Secretary Hoover the only candidate; Idaho Tuesday is expected to give its delegation to Senator Borah, while Hoover-Lowden fights are expected at the North Carolina convention Wednesday and the New Mexico convention Saturday.

Governor Alfred E. Smith and his family will go to Asheville, N. C., this week for what Smith describes as a "vacation." It is expected he will confer with southern Democratic leaders.

R. B. Creager, Republican national committeeman of Texas, said that the real farmers favored the candidacy of Secretary of Commerce Hoover.

Dr. Hiram W. Evans, Imperial wizard of the Ku-Klux Klan, said his organization would take no particular stand in the coming presidential election, but would fight "against that nullificationist, Governor Al Smith."

Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, former Governor of Wyoming, after a speaking tour of the South, said she believed sentiment favoring the Democratic candidacy of Governor Smith was gaining favor.

"When My Baby Was Run Down"

Father John's Medicine Helped Him Gain Weight

"My baby was sick, pale and run down. One of my neighbors recommended Father John's Medicine, and since giving it to him he has felt fine and has no colds. He has also gained weight. I am giving it to all my children." (Signed) Mrs. Rose De Pontilard, Shirley, Mass.

For children who are pale and thin, who suffer from repeated colds, Father John's Medicine has proven its value for more than 70 years. It builds new strength because it is pure and wholesome nourishment.—Advertisement.

Butler to Give Musical Show

Front row (left to right), Dorothy Ragan, Francis Kirkpatrick, Mary Hoover, Dixie McKay, Mildred Sullivan, Mary Louise Pierce, Virginia Ballwig and Margaret Shanklin. Middle row: Margaret Kent, Francis Boston, Opal Fleming, Dorothy Beightol, Beatrice Johnson, Virginia Flowers, Margaret Woessner, Jessie Prie and Elizabeth Underwood. Back row: Betty Jean Davis, Ruth Comelence, Lucinda Smith, Louise Cox, Helen Konecke and Joalice Mount.

This is the dancing chorus in Butler University's all-school musical show to be presented at the Murat, April 21. "Fairview Folies" was written by Henry Herbert, Joseph Gremelspacher and John H. Heiney. The production has a company of 100 and is being given by the Butler Men's Union.

'CORPSELESS MURDER' CASE NOT YET CLOSED

Special Prosecutor Proposes Trial of Martin V. Ross.

WARSAW, Ind., April 9.—Dismissal of charges against Verne Martin in Kosciusko County's "corpseless murder," apparently has not ended the lengthy proceedings following disappearance a year ago of Franklin Tucker, local cigar store clerk.

Walter Brubaker, special prosecutor, announces that despite release of Martin, he is determined to try Martin V. Ross, held in the Tucker case on a murder charge. Brubaker proposes to have a special judge try Ross at an early date.

Methodists Will Meet

MARRISTON, Ind., April 9.—Attendance of 350 is expected here Tuesday and Wednesday at the meeting of the Connersville district, Methodist Episcopal Church, Dr. Earl E. Harper, Evansville College president, will speak Tuesday night, and the Rev. Gervaise Roughton, Cincinnati, Ohio, Wednesday night.

Have Your Glasses Charged!

The Store of Greater Values
OPTICAL DEPT.
THE FAIR
311-325 West Washington St.

Campaign Log

More than 100 delegates to the Republican national convention at Kansas City will be chosen at four State conventions and two primaries this week. Both the Illinois and Nebraska primaries are tomorrow, with the latter State almost assured for Senator Norris.

Former Governor Lowden's fight for his own State delegation is the principal interest—outside of the heated Chicago local campaign—in Illinois. The Rhode Island convention is today with Secretary Hoover the only candidate; Idaho Tuesday is expected to give its delegation to Senator Borah, while Hoover-Lowden fights are expected at the North Carolina convention Wednesday and the New Mexico convention Saturday.

Governor Alfred E. Smith and his family will go to Asheville, N. C., this week for what Smith describes as a "vacation." It is expected he will confer with southern Democratic leaders.

R. B. Creager, Republican national committeeman of Texas, said that the real farmers favored the candidacy of Secretary of Commerce Hoover.

Dr. Hiram W. Evans, Imperial wizard of the Ku-Klux Klan, said his organization would take no particular stand in the coming presidential election, but would fight "against that nullificationist, Governor Al Smith."

Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, former Governor of Wyoming, after a speaking tour of the South, said she believed sentiment favoring the Democratic candidacy of Governor Smith was gaining favor.

"When My Baby Was Run Down"

Father John's Medicine Helped Him Gain Weight

"My baby was sick, pale and run down. One of my neighbors recommended Father John's Medicine, and since giving it to him he has felt fine and has no colds. He has also gained weight. I am giving it to all my children." (Signed) Mrs. Rose De Pontilard, Shirley, Mass.

For children who are pale and thin, who suffer from repeated colds, Father John's Medicine has proven its value for more than 70 years. It builds new strength because it is pure and wholesome nourishment.—Advertisement.

HIT-SKIP DRIVER HELD FOR AUTO STRIKING BRIDE

Traced to Home After Car Hits Young Wife; Another Autoist Sought.

One alleged "hit and run" driver is under arrest today and another is sought as the result of week-end accidents.

James E. Ahern, 133 W. Twentieth St., is charged with failure to stop after an accident and driving while intoxicated. He was arrested at his home after his automobile was alleged to have struck Mrs. Robert Cole, 17, of 804 N. Capitol Ave., a bride of a week, as she and her husband were crossing the street Saturday night. Mrs. Cole was not seriously hurt. Ahern was traced through his license number.

Police are seeking the driver of the machine which struck Frederick Craig, 25, of 227 E. New York St., late Saturday.

Driver Refuses Name

Craig's collar bone was fractured and his legs injured. The driver stopped, but refused to give his name and left saying he was going for a doctor. Witnesses gave police his license number.

O. A. White, Noblesville, Ind., arrested on a charge of assault and battery, after an automobile accident at Virginia Ave. and Alabama St., told police that Emma Mary Cook, 17, of 2024 English Ave., ran out of a safety zone into the path of his car.

In applying her brakes to avoid striking a woman carrying a baby at Delaware and Maryland Sts. late Saturday, Mrs. Marion Barton, 1029 St. Peter St., skidded her automobile and the baby and struck Mrs. Martin Esther, 45, and her daughter, Martha, 11, both of 2101 South-eastern Ave. Mrs. Esther was injured about the head and taken to the city hospital.

Auto Collides With Trolley

Henry Leukhart, 34, of 1211 E. Pratt St., was charged with allowing more than three persons in the drivers' seat of his automobile and San Beville, 21, of 2302 Station St., with reckless driving.

Their automobile struck a traction car at 2300 Brookside Ave. Leukhart, Beville and Misses Myrtle Castor, 23, of 2539 E. Eighteenth St., and Lenora Sheridan, 23, of same address were cut and bruised.

Have Your Glasses Charged!

The Store of Greater Values
OPTICAL DEPT.
THE FAIR
311-325 West Washington St.

Campaign Log

More than 100 delegates to the Republican national convention at Kansas City will be chosen at four State conventions and two primaries this week. Both the Illinois and Nebraska primaries are tomorrow, with the latter State almost assured for Senator Norris.

Former Governor Lowden's fight for his own State delegation is the principal interest—outside of the heated Chicago local campaign—in Illinois. The Rhode Island convention is today with Secretary Hoover the only candidate; Idaho Tuesday is expected to give its delegation to Senator Borah, while Hoover-Lowden fights are expected at the North Carolina convention Wednesday and the New Mexico convention Saturday.

Governor Alfred E. Smith and his family will go to Asheville, N. C., this week for what Smith describes as a "vacation." It is expected he will confer with southern Democratic leaders.

R. B. Creager, Republican national committeeman of Texas, said that the real farmers favored the candidacy of Secretary of Commerce Hoover.

Dr. Hiram W. Evans, Imperial wizard of the Ku-Klux Klan, said his organization would take no particular stand in the coming presidential election, but would fight "against that nullificationist, Governor Al Smith."

Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, former Governor of Wyoming, after a speaking tour of the South, said she believed sentiment favoring the Democratic candidacy of Governor Smith was gaining favor.

"When My Baby Was Run Down"

Father John's Medicine Helped Him Gain Weight

"My baby was sick, pale and run down. One of my neighbors recommended Father John's Medicine, and since giving it to him he has felt fine and has no colds. He has also gained weight. I am giving it to all my children." (Signed) Mrs. Rose De Pontilard, Shirley, Mass.

For children who are pale and thin, who suffer from repeated colds, Father John's Medicine has proven its value for more than 70 years. It builds new strength because it is pure and wholesome nourishment.—Advertisement.