

BOARD NAMES WORKERS FOR PLAYGROUNDS

160 Appointments Approved
After Heated Debate
Over List.

Playground instructors and supervisors for the season opening June 16 were named Thursday by the park board following a heated discussion on the list submitted by Superintendent Walter Jarvis.

Major L. Ert Slack attended the park session to make sure his list of appointees would be adopted by the board after Adolph G. Emhardt and Mrs. Mary Hoss first refused to approve the list.

Object to List

A list of 160 employees for the beaches, playgrounds and pools was submitted.

Jarvis said the recommendations were made on the basis of the efficiency and character of the applicants and had been approved by Slack.

Emhardt objected to the list because he was given a copy which had not been "corrected." Several names had been written in.

Mrs. Hoss said it was agreed that the board would meet "quietly" some evening and check the recommendations, but "we were never called."

Slack said he had included several persons recommended by Mrs. Hoss and Emhardt. The entire list was checked and approved on motion of Michael E. Foley.

Democrats Named

Many of those named were personal appointments with the mayor.
Several were recommended by park board members. Majority on the list were not previously employed by the park board, it was said. The list differed from previous years in that there were many Democrats.

Those named were notified to attend a conference next week with Recreation Director Jesse P. Mc-Clure.

Supervisors named are:
Robert Nipper, Lewis B. Skinner and Henry Long; Hazel Abbott, Lola Pieffer and Ruth Emhardt.

TAKES HEALTH POST

Dr. H. S. Leonard Accepts Job on City Board.

Dr. H. S. Leonard, 3916 Washington Blvd., today accepted an appointment on the city board of health succeeding Dr. W. E. Mendenhall.

Dr. Leonard is a Republican. The new member is a neighbor and personal friend of Mayor L. Ert Slack.

Following graduation from the University of Illinois medical school, Dr. Leonard came to Indianapolis.
He has practiced here since 1901 and is widely known in medical circles. He is former president of the Indianapolis Medical Society council, and at present a director.

Slack has delayed the city hospital building program until he made the appointment of Dr. Leonard.

Council will act Monday night on a $60,000 bond issue to employ an architect and hospital consultant.

EXPECT MINE OFFICERS

Scranton, Pa., Group May Confer With National Leaders Here.

Officers of District No. 1, United Mine Workers of America, from the Scranton, Pa., region probably will come to Indianapolis to confer with national officials of the organization next week, according to unofficial information received at headquarters here Thursday. Contradiciting Scranton press reports, local officials said no summons had been issued for the Scranton group.

It is believed that the purpose of the conference is to deal with the insurgent group in Scranton, which adopted a resolution in convention ousting district officers. The officials have paid no attention to the insurgent action.

TAKE QUIZ TO CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The subcommittee instructed to investigate the last senatorial election in New Jersey will take testimony here some time this summer rather than go to New Jersey, Senator McNary (Rep.), Oregon, announced today.

The inquiry will be conducted by the Reed special elections investigating committee. McNary and Senator King (Dem.), Utah, were named by the chairman to take testimony.

ANNOUNCE WINNERS IN RAMONA CONTEST

Chorus by Esta Marsh Selected Out of Hundreds of Verses Submitted for First Prize—Second Award Won by Mary Seward.

The winners of the "Romana" Chorus contest have been selected after hours of search through the hundreds of entries that have been sent to the chorus editor.

The first prize of $25 goes to Esta Marsh, 3560 W. Vermont St., who most aptly expressed the sentiment of the picture in her chorus to the song "Romana." Mary Seward, 1424 Hamilton Ave., receives the second prize of $15 and the third award of $10 was won by M. E. Marlowe, 430 N. Meridian St.

The Chorus Editor of The Indianapolis Times, which in connection with Loew's Palace theater, offers the contest to find a chorus to express the sentiment of the picture in the song "Romana" that expressed the scenes in the picture better than did the original chorus, gives the winning choruses here.

This is the chorus submitted by Esta Marsh and which subsequently won the first prize of $25:

"That someone somewhere in this world Is crying for you, Ramona, I'm waiting just for you."

The winner of the third prize for a chorus to the picture now being shown for the last day at the Palace has submitted the following chorus:

"Ramona, the moon is shining bright again."

Sex Story

Beatrice Van has thrown her bonnet in the ring with a companionate marriage story. Its title is "Sex Appeal."

Ramona, the breeze is crooning love's I pray, dear, someday, dear, to hear you say your, always be mine.
With your, always be mine, are always filled with something divine.
Ramona, 'neath starry California skies, I'll be there, I know, in dreamy eyes.
For you'll be there, I know, in dreamy eyes.
I love you, Ramona, I do."

Indianapolis theaters today offer "Romana" at Loew's Palace; Emil Jannings at the Indiana; "The Yellow Lily" at the Circle; "The Fortune Hunter" at the Apollo; Double bill at the Ohio; "Crime" at Keith's; "The Unseen Way" at English; Vaudville at the Lyric.

Back to Work
Billie Dove, has been vacationing at Coronado Beach and elsewhere and is now home again, almost ready to start work on her next picture.

TEACHERS' PAY UNDER $1,000

Survey Shows Girls Quit Low Paid Positions.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Of approximately 450,000 teachers in the rural schools of the United States, 282,000 or nearly two-thirds, are paid less than $1,000 a year.

Fully 200,000 of such teachers each year are inexperienced girls recruited to take the places of those who have deserted teaching because they were underpaid.

The average service of the rural and small town school teacher is two years; the average teacher quits just at the time that she has begun to fill her job effectively.

These are the facts brought out by Chester T. Crowell in a nation-wide survey of conditions made for Mc-Clure's magazine and published in the June issue of that monthly.

Crowell points out that while America in the past decade has invested hundreds of millions of dollars in erecting the finest school buildings in the world, the majority of its teachers still are paid much less than ordinary skilled labor, many of them less than good house servants.

He cites figures of the National Educational Association to show that 80,000 teachers in the country's elementary schools are receiving less than $600 each a year.

British Millionaires Number 562
COLUMBIA, Mo., June 1.—Great Britain has 562 millionaires, according to recent figures. Of this number 138 pay income tax on holdings of $10,000,000 and more.
