

DEMOCRATS GUARD AGAINST PERIL OF PARTY RIFTS

LEADERS VOICE OPTIMISM FOR OUSTING G. O. P.

Frank Dailey Holds Favor as State Convention Draws Near.

FREDRICK IS CONTENDER

Districts to Name Delegates Tuesday on Eve of Picking Ticket.

Democrats in convention here next Wednesday will select their candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, secretary of State, treasurer, auditor and other State offices on whom their hopes of success in the November election will be pinned.

Although the convention proper will not open until 9 a. m. Wednesday, Monday and Tuesday will find Democratic leaders, delegates and candidates gathering in the Claypool for hobnobbing intended to bear fruit on the convention floor in the Cadde Tabernacle. A score of candidates will open headquarters on the eighth floor of the Claypool, Tuesday.

While lists of candidates bear indication of warm rivalry for nominative honors, party leaders are making strenuous efforts to avoid rifts which in any measure might jeopardize the chances of a Democratic victory in the fall.

Favor Dailey for Governor

This caution is encouraged by the general conviction that with the right candidates, the party is in an unusually strong position to depose the State Republican administration.

Frank C. Dailey, Indianapolis attorney, nationally known foe of graft and prosecutor of Newberry, appears certain of the nomination for Governor on an early ballot. Dailey supporters today reiterated their claim to the votes of approximately 800 delegates. Only 593 of the 1,185 delegates are required for nomination.

Dailey, who attained a 50,000 plurality in the primary race but failed of a majority, will have the opposition in convention of forces back of John E. Fredrick, Kokomo manufacturer, second in the primary.

Levy May Thin List

Earl Crawford, of Milton, whose chief support came from farmers, and George R. Dale, Muncie editor, are the other two primary figures who have stuck in the gubernatorial field. Neither is accorded any considerable delegate strength, but their withdrawal early in the convention would be of value to Fredrick, it is said.

It was regarded doubtful if their names actually would be placed in nomination if the State Central committee stands by precedent in levying an assessment against candidates before their names can be presented. Candidates are required by law to bear the expense of the State convention.

Other candidates avowed and prospective, for other nominations subject to the convention, are:

Candidates Include

Lieutenant Governor—Fred L. Peick of Garrett; Robert B. Batten of Marion; Addison Drake of Sullivan; and Robert Hougham of Franklin.

Secretary of State—Arthur Hamrick of Greencastle; Herman Weinke of South Bend; Perry Rule of Brimingham; Eugene B. Crowe of Bedford; and A. C. Thomas of New Harmony.

Auditor of State—David S. Ferguson of Covington; Dr. G. W. Swighart of East Chicago; George F. Boehne of Evansville; and Ora C. King of Sweetser.

Treasurer of State—Jap Jones of Martinsville.

Unopposed for Judge

Superintendent of Public Instruction—John A. Linchberger of Rockville; and E. Christen of Decatur.

Attorney General—Curtis Shaker, of Vincennes; and John W. Kitch, of Plymouth.

Reporter of Supreme and Appellate Courts—Mrs. Charles W. Hack of Shelbyville; and Charles K. Zollman, of Jefferson.

Judge of the Supreme Court, Second District—Joseph Shea, of Indianapolis.

Judge of the Appellate Court, First Division—Warren W. Martin of Booneville.

Judge of the Appellate Court, Second Division—A. C. Wood of Angola; Lynn J. Gifford of Tipton; and Samuel E. Cook of Huntington.

The convention formally will ratify the nomination of Albert Stump for United States Senator.

The platform advisory committee will meet at Democratic State headquarters in the Claypool at 3 p. m. Monday.

The State central committee, meeting Tuesday at 11 a. m., will consider final convention details.

Districts Meet Tuesday

Committee meetings will follow Tuesday night, in the Claypool.

State Chairman R. Earl Peters will open the convention in Cadde Tabernacle Wednesday at 9 a. m. After his address, the chair will be turned over to Simms, temporary chairman and keynoter. J. E. O'Bannon of Corydon, will make an address as permanent chairman and call for nominations. Ira C. Tilton of Valparaiso, will be convention secretary.

Walter Chrysler Rivals Ford as Automobile King

$450,000,000 Dodge Merger Puts Manufacturer in Top Rank.

NEW YORK, June 2.—Henry Ford for many years has enjoyed an unquestioned claim to the honor of being the biggest single figure in the automobile world, but Walter P. Chrysler looms as a rival as a result of the announced $450,000,000 Dodge-Chrysler merger.

Chrysler's climb has been from a job wiping locomotives in the Union Pacific roundhouse at Ellis, Kansas—a job that netted him five cents an hour.

It was only four years ago that his name first appeared on an automobile radiator or hub cap.

Between these two epochs in his phenomenal career, he served as a railway motive power superintendent, foreman of the American Locomotive plant at Pittsburgh, and as a production executive for several big automobile manufacturers.

Chrysler developed a knack for pulling sick automobile concerns out of the doldrums. His last task along this line was with the Maxwell company, which he eventually took over and transformed into the Chrysler company.

It is said that when he began manufacturing his own car, it was in preference to accepting a salary offer of $1,000,000 a year.

"Lick your job," is Chrysler's slogan. And he has manifested all the "go-getting" qualities that the slogan implies.

Here Is the Summer White House

A bungalow in the heart of Wisconsin's lake and timber region near Brule, Wis., about thirty miles from Superior, has been chosen by President Coolidge as the summer White House. The eight-room bungalow where the Coolidges will live is pictured at the left, the larger building on the right being the main lodge and dining hall. In the foreground is the Brule River. The estate is known as Cedar Island Lodge, and is the property of the heirs of the late Henry Clay Pierce, oil magnate.

BANKS REFUSE TO BUY SHELBY STREET BONDS

Mayor Tangle Delays Paving Projects and Other Improvements.

Failure of banks to buy the $55,000 city bond issue for paving Shelby St. between Troy and Madison Aves. will delay the proposed improvement.

The bond issue was to pay the city's share of the costs under the connecting link law. The county is to pay half.

Sterling R. Holt, city controller of the Slack administration, advertised for bids on the bonds, but none were submitted Friday. It was understood bond attorneys for all of the downtown banks still are advising their clients not to buy the bonds.

Mayor Fight Reason

Previous issues had been refused on the advice that the bonds would be questionable with the signature of Mayor L. Ert Slack because of litigation which clouds his title to the office.

Matson, Carter, Ross & McCord, law firm, recently advised a bank against purchase of the $60,000 bond issue for widening and resurfacing of N. Meridian St. between Sixteenth St. and Fall Creek. The park board issued these bonds. This law firm represents Joseph L. Hogue, Shank administration city controller, in his claim to the mayor's office.

The Hogue case is pending State Supreme Court decision.

Hospital Project Delayed

Failure of banks to buy bonds seriously is handicapping the administration's whole program.

The city health board will introduce an ordinance Monday night for $60,000 for architect and consultant to make a survey of city hospital building needs. The hospital building program will be delayed until the bonds can be sold. Slack recently announced he would offer the bonds for sale when they have been authorized by council, although banks have refused to bid on other issues.

Other bond issues which have not been sold: Bridge over Canal at Eleventh St., $10,000; Ellenberger Park pool, $40,000; Pleasant Run Blvd. improvement, $25,000; Calledon Rd. improvement, $4,500, and greenhouse remodeling at Garfield Park, $40,000.

Fish as Cupid

Engagement Ring in Carp Caught at Bass Lake.

KNOX, Ind., June 2.—A common German carp played the role of Cupid last week at Bass Lake to Miss Anna Nolan, New York, and James E. Sweeney, Chicago.

Three years ago, Sweeney and his fiancée, a girl other than Miss Nolan, went fishing in Bass Lake, near here. While out in the boat a quarrel arose and ended in the girl handing Sweeney his ring, a handsome solitaire. In a fit of pique he hurled the ring into the water. The couple never met again.

Sweeney was showing Miss Nolan the correct method of using a spear in sticking German carp in the spawning beds. She made an accurate thrust and hooked a fish.

Later when in the Bass Lake Park camp preparing the fish for a chowder, Miss Nolan discovered a beautiful platinum ring in the carp she caught. This was identified by Sweeney as the one he hurled into the lake three years ago.

That evening Miss Nolan's parents, who occupy Hill Crest on the lake, announced that Sweeney and their daughter would be the principals in a June wedding.

BAR MUSSOLINI FROM U. S. CLUB

Press Organization Scores Duce's Censorship.

BY LEO R. SACK

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Because of his activities in suppressing a free press in Italy and censoring foreign correspondents, Benito Mussolini, Italian premier, has been refused membership in the National Press Club here.

Mussolini was tentatively admitted as a non-resident member last week, pending approval by the membership. He is nominally editor of the official Fascist organ.

Possibility of Mussolini becoming a member of the National Press Club was protested by active Washington newspaper men of all shades of political opinion.

A committee representing the protesting members told the club governors they objected to Mussolini because, in the light of his complete dictatorship over Italian newspapers and news from Italy, he is today the world's greatest enemy of a free press.

The board of governors then adopted a resolution rescinding its earlier action.
