Directors of State League to Meet Here

CAMP DELIGHT will be officially opened to Y. W. C. A. members on Membership Day, Monday. Mrs. Brandt Downey is chairman of the camp committee and Mrs. Fred Mills in charge of the program for the day. This semi-annual conference for board, staff, and committee members will be in the form of a miniature national convention this year and a city-wide invitation has been offered the membership to spend the day at the Y. W. C. A. camp, and to participate in a program which will review the activities and to plan for future work.

A national Y. W. C. A. leader, Mrs. H. L. Blood, Chicago, will speak on "Educational Emphasis in Membership." Mrs. Blood is vice president of the governing body of the Y. W. C. A. branches in Chicago and is chairman of the West Side branch.

An evening meeting has been arranged, to which all membership committees, those in clubs and councils, have been invited, if they cannot attend the day sessions which begin at 10 a. m. This conference, the fifth annual one of the local association, is educative in nature.

Girl Reserves on Program
Former presidents of the association including Mrs. F. F. McCrea, Mrs. T. C. Day, Mrs. C. C. Buchanan, and Mrs. Florence E. Langman, will depict history and development of the Y. W. C. A.

Following the pageant, the program of citizenship and legislation adopted by the national Y. W. C. A., will be presented to the membership. Miss Frances Toy, Mrs. Walter Greenough, Miss Helen Gynn, and Mrs. W. S. Lockhardt, are in charge of the discussion.

Recreation has been planned by Mrs. W. C. Smith and Miss Louise Noble of the health educational department.

Honor Prospective Students
Girls who expect to go to Ward Belmont next year will be honor guests at the State alumnae luncheon of Ward Belmont to be held at the Columbia Club next Saturday, for which more than 200 invitations have been issued. Dr. John W. Barton, vice president of the school, will speak and Kenneth Rose, director of the violin department, and Mrs. Rose will give the musical program.

Last Business Meeting
The business meeting of Kappa Chapter of Phi Epsilon, national honorary musical sorority, will be held at the chapter rooms of the north school of the Metropolitan School of Music Wednesday at 7:15 p. m. This is the last business meeting of the season. Mrs. Clyde Titus, the new president of the chapter, asks that all be present on time.
