lusions that will make you gasp.

Then there will be the ritual of the lodge—the pledge for safe play, and installation of officers. Then the All Kids Klub movies, with Sidney Jerome directing the Coburn photographer. Then a tour of the park, and a free ride for every

WOMAN PAYS AND PAYS

Says She Has to Give $3 to Ride in Own Cars; Asks Divorce.

CINCINNATI, June 28.—Just another case in point that the old saying, "The Woman Pays," is true.
In a divorce suit, Mrs. Cora M. Rose told the judge that despite the fact that she had used her savings to buy her husband two automobiles, he charged her $3 every time she went for a ride.

SEEK TO KEEP TROLLEY LINE

Irvington Citizens to Meet Friday

A mass meeting of citizens of Southeastern Irvington will be held at 8 p. m. Friday in the K. of P. hall, Audubon Rd. and the Pennsylvania R. R., to protest the removal of the Audubon Rd. street car tracks.
Albert Stump, Leo X. Smith, Mrs.
Demarchus Brown, Mrs. Bloomfield Moore and John Goekler will speak under the auspices of the Irvington Civic Association. More than 2,000 persons are said to be served by this line.

The association contends the track removal will cause depreciation of property values, result in inconvenience to residents, and injure established business.

THREAT SENDS BOY TO CHURCH WITH POLICE

Fake Phone Call Materializes and Patrolmen Answer Call.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Earl Crenlon, 11, was a free thinker. He absolutely refused to go to church.
His mother threatened to call the police and went so far as to pick up the receiver and say "Give me police headquarters." Then she hung up the receiver.

But a wide-awake operator had heard. She traced the call and notified headquarters. Within a few minutes a patrol wagon, a traffic cop and a half dozen beat men pulled up at the Crenlon home.
Mrs. Crenlon explained the situation, after recovering from the shock, and Earl went to church accompanied by a patrolman.
