Four Other Utilities to Appeal to State Tax Board.

Tax valuation of the Madison Light and Power Company, which recently was set at $90,000 for 1928 by the State tax board, was reduced Tuesday to $69,000 when representatives of the company showed that in the balance presented to the tax board for consideration an insufficient depreciation fund was subtracted for operating expenses.

Four other large utilities are expected to appeal from the tax valuation.

Attorneys for the Indianapolis Water Company, valued at $15,843.72, will appear Thursday for the Citizens Gas Company of this city, valued at $7,231.100, Friday, for the Indiana Bell Telephone Company, $29,941.644, and Indianapolis Power and Light Company, $24,592,530, at a later date.
