Taylor Sets New Record in Hurdles

Hermon Phillips Selected on Olympic 400-Meter Dash Team.

BY HILLIER KREIGHBAUM
United Press Staff Correspondent
PHILADELPHIA, July 5.—With the Olympic 400-meter hurdles and 400-meter dash teams chosen—after spectacular showings—interest at the Municipal stadium today centered on the choosing of the decathlon team that will represent the United States at Amsterdam.

Competition in the decathlon was ended Wednesday by rain, and at that time James Stewart, the Los Angeles A. C. athlete, who did so remarkably well in the trials on the West Coast, was leading with 5,590 points in seven events.

Wednesday's performances were sensational. The work of F. Morgan Taylor, who set a new world record in the 400-meter hurdles of 52 seconds, stood out. The mark bettered the new record set by Frank Cuhel, Tuesday, when the New York star stepped the distance in 53 2-5 seconds.

The two teams chosen after Wednesday's performances: 400 Meters Hurdles—F. Morgan Taylor, Illinois A. C.; Frank Cuhel, University of Iowa; John A. Gibson, Bloomfield, N. J. There was possibility Robert Maxwell, Los Angeles A. C. might go as a fourth man. 400 Meters Dash—Ray Barbuti, New York A. C.; Emerson Spencer, Leland Stanford University; Joseph P. Tierney, New York A. C.; Herman Phillips, Butler University and Illinois A. C.; George Baird, University of Iowa; A. Lewis, Detroit, Y. M. C. A.; Fred Alderman, Illinois A. C.

The champion was up early Wednesday and took to the woods to escape the holiday crowd which visited the camp. He extended his boxing to eight rounds, going four each with Harold Mays and Billy Vidabeck, after working up only one round on the bag.

Loses Two Boats in Speed Races

By United Press

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 5.—Chris Ripp, Jamaica, N. Y., lost his second hydroplane in two days in the annual regatta of the Mississippi Valley Power Boat Association here Wednesday when his Baby Head went the way of his late Baby Peerless, struck a submerged log and sank.

Rough water, swift currents and other adverse conditions caused comparatively slow races, overturned boat, and several boats seriously damaged. The fastest time of the day was recorded by J. E. Sallman, Harrisburg, Texas, who won the ten-mile race for 725 class hydroplanes by pushing his S-M for an average of 48:59 miles and hour. In the Webb trophy free-for-all race, hydroplanes, ten miles, Rusan Dowers, Rising Sun, Ind., carried off honors when his Pal averaged 44:37 for the course. There was to be a second heat today for the Webb cup.

Ray Schalk Resigns Job as Manager

'Lena' Blackburne Takes Helm as 'Cracker' Throws Up Post.

By United Press

CHICAGO, July 5. — Russell (Lena) Blackburne today took over the management of the Chicago White Sox, replacing Ray (Cracker) Schalk, who had been at the helm since 1926 until he resigned Wednesday. Blackburne has served as coach under Schalk.

Schalk resigned, explaining that a change of management might be helpful to the team's standing in the American League.

Schalk will rest for a few days and then will rejoin the team to attempt a come-back. From Aug. 5, 1912, when he came to the White Sox from Milwaukee, Schalk has been regarded as one of the best catchers in the league. He ceased active play when he became manager, although his name remained on the roster of players.

Blackburne joined the Chicago American League club in 1909, but because of a knee injury never saw active service. He left the team to play in the minors, returned in 1913, and then left again to return as coach under Schalk.

Schalk made his first appearance as a player this season Wednesday when he worked the first four innings of the initial game in a doubleheader, handling Red Walsh, Jr., son of the former White Sox pitching ace.

From 1913 to 1923 Schalk played in more than 100 games a season, setting a catching record. During this time he frequently caught Ed Walsh, Sr., who is now coaching for the Sox.

The ex-manager did not accompany the team on the eastern trip which started, Wednesday night, although he planned to join them within a few days.

Semi-Pros and Amateurs

Laurel A. C.s won a double-header from Franklin Wednesday, 15 to 6, and 4 to 3, in the first game Parabo struck out eight men and allowed eight hits. A. Osborne, 1607 Delos St.

Spades defeated the Hoosier Aces Sunday, 5-4. A game is wanted for next Sunday. Call Cherry 6179-M.

Franklin A.C.s defeated the Franklin Greens in a hard-fought game Wednesday, 8 to 6 in fifteen innings. For games write Heckman, Morgantown, Ind.

St. Philip A. C.s will practice at Brookside Park Friday evening. All players meet at noon Sunday the Cubs' sthird straight victory. Next Sunday the Cubs play at Shanklin Club Sunday.

Gives Up Position as Sox Pilot

Ray Schalk

With the resignation of Ray (Cracker) Schalk Wednesday as manager of the Chicago White Sox from Milwaukee, Russell (Lena) Blackburne, who was coach under Schalk, took the reins of the Sox. The cracker, one of the greatest catchers ever to grace a diamond in the major leagues, announced his intentions of staging a comeback and soon will rejoin the Sox.

Morgan and Martin Mix in Brooklyn

Junior Lightweight Champ 7-5 Favorite to Keep His Crown.

BY GEORGE KIRKSEY
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, July 5. —Tod Morgan of Seattle, Wash., will defend his junior lightweight boxing title against Eddie (Cannonball) Martin of New York, former bantamweight champion, in a fifteen-round bout at Ebbets field, Brooklyn, tonight. Scheduled for Wednesday night, the bout was postponed until tonight at the request of Promoter Humbert J. Fugazy, who deemed it inadvisable to hold the contest on the night of a holiday.

Morgan frequently has been beaten in non-championship bouts, but thus far has always managed to win when his title was at stake. Morgan is a clever boxer and prone to coast with no reward to fight for.

Even in his last non-championship matches against Joe Glick of Brooklyn and Martin several weeks ago, Morgan barely saved his title. Glick was ahead on points when he fouled Morgan in the fourteenth round. Morgan won a contested decision over Martin.

Staging a remarkable comeback after losing his 118-pound title, Martin did not lose a bout after his return to the ring until Morgan won a decision from him.

Ordinarily Morgan might not consent to a return match with Martin, but the junior lightweight titleholder wants to convince the New York fight colony he had not gone back. Morgan is a 7 to 5 favorite in the betting.

Jeffries Takes 100-Mile Event

A large crowd of auto race fans gathered at the State Fairground track Wednesday to see Dale Jeffries in an Frontenac win the 100-mile Negro dirt track motor race in speedy time. Jeffries took the lead shortly after the start and never was headed.

Morris was the winner of second place and Grice was third. The event started far behind time. Many of the star drivers, favored to cop the laurels, went out of the race shortly after the start because of mechanical troubles.

YOUNG ED MAKES BOW

Walsh Junior Taken Out of Box in Fourth Inning.

By United Press

CHICAGO, July 5.—Ed Walsh Jr., son of "Big" Ed Walsh, star spitballer of the American League several years ago, made his major league debut Wednesday with the Chicago White Sox. He was replaced by a pinch-hitter in the fourth inning, after five runs had been scored by the St. Louis Browns.
