

Quarter-Final Contests in Legion Baseball Tourney Billed This Week-End

Frail Coast Girl Shines in Big Meet

Elta Cartwright First in Three Events; National Champs Named.

NEWARK, N. J., July 5.—While the Far West was sweeping to victory in the national senior women's track and field championships Wednesday, the East won a majority of the places on the first female squad ever selected for the United States Olympic team.

Nine of the nineteen places on the women's Olympic team were awarded to eastern athletes, with seven going to the Far West and three to the Middle West.

Elta Cartwright, a frail, freckled girl from Eureka, Cal., and star of the winning team, carried off most glory, winning three first places. She took first in the fifty-yard dash, 100-meter dash and running broad jump.

The northern California Athletic Club won the team championship, amassing 52 points to score an easy victory over their California rivals, the Pasadena Athletic and Country Club, which was second with 17. The Boston Swimming Association was third with 9 and the Illinois women's A. C. fourth with 8.

The 1928 A. A. U. national women's track and field champions, and their marks established Wednesday, follow:

50-Yard Dash—Elta Cartwright, Northern California A. C., 6.3-5 seconds.
100-Yard Dash—Elta Cartwright, Northern California A. C., 12.2-5 seconds.
50-Yard Hurdles—Helen Filkey, Chicago, 8.2-5 seconds.
220-Yard Dash—Florence Wright, St. Louis, 27.5-5 seconds.
800-Yard Run—Rayna Wilson, Pasadena, 2 minutes 32.3-5 seconds (new American record).
1600-Yard Relay—Northern California A. C., 10 minutes 52.1-5 seconds (equal American record).
5-Mile Run—Lillian Copeland, Pasadena, 46 feet 4 1/2 inches (equal American record).
10-Mile Run—Margaret Jenkins, Northern California A. C., 112 feet 5-8 inches.
Running Broad Jump—Elta Cartwright, Northern California A. C., 16 feet, 10 1/2 inches.
Running High Jump—Mildred Wiley, Boston, 4 feet 1 1/2 inches.
Shot Put—Vivian Hartwick, Northern California A. C., 228 feet, 9 1/2 inches.

Big League Stuff

Eppe Rixey, Cincinnati Reds' out-pitcher, pitched a seven-hit shut-out against the Pittsburgh Pirates, Wednesday, the Reds winning 6 to 0. The Hendricks team also took the second game of a double header, 11 to 3.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, aided by home runs by Herman and Bonsett, took the first game from the New York Giants, 8 to 6, and dropped the second, 2 to 5, as a deluge halted play after five innings.

The Phillies defeated the Boston Braves, 10 to 6, in a sloppily-played game. Rain postponed the second game.

A hard-fought double-header between the Chicago Cubs and the St. Louis Cardinals resulted in a split victory. Hack Wilson and Jim Bottomley each hit two home runs. St. Louis won the first game, 11 to 6, and the Cubs the second, 16 to 5.

Joe Hauser's two home runs helped the Athletics take both games from the Boston Red Sox, 5 to 4 and 11 to 3. Hauser hit a homer in each game, bringing his season's total to 12.

The St. Louis Browns split a twin bill with the Chicago White Sox, winning the first, 11 to 1, and dropping the second, 1 to 6.

A double-header was divided between Detroit Tigers and the Cleveland Indians. The first game went to the Tigers, 10 to 5, while the Indians rallied in the eighth and ninth and won the second, 4 to 3.

The New York Yankees and the Washington Senators broke even in a double-header. The Senators won the first game, 5 to 2, while the Yanks captured the second, 3 to 4.

Semi-Final Battles Scheduled for Next Tuesday

FINAL AT TRIBE PARK

Herbert Robbins Twirls 'Perfect Game.'

BY NORMAN E. ISAACS
Quarter-final round games in the American Legion junior baseball tournament, sponsored in this city by The Indianapolis Times, will be played on local park diamonds this coming week-end. Three contests Saturday and one Sunday will pave the way for semi-final battles.

The two semi-final encounters are billed to be played next Tuesday at Brookside Park, diamonds 1 and 2. The two winners will clash for the Seventh district championship on Saturday, July 14 at Washington Park.

The championship nine will journey to Logansport July 21 and 22 to play in the regional tourney. The local winner will meet the Ninth congressional district champion in the first game.

In Game Today

The Three-Cs and the Red Sox Juniors were to tangle at Garfield No. 3 at 3 p. m. this afternoon in the last of the second-round tilts. Saturday's quarter-final round schedule follows:

St. Phillips Boys' Club vs. Kansas Blues at Brookside No. 1, 1 p. m.
Little Indians vs. winner Three Cs-Red Sox Juniors at Brookside No. 2, 1 p. m.
Riverside No. 2, 1 p. m.

Sunday's engagement brings together the Buccaners A. C. and the Weber Milk Company. Juniors at Riverside No. 10 at 3 p. m.

The outstanding feature of play over last week-end was the "perfect game" turned in by 14-year-old Herbert Robbins, star pitcher of the Buccaners A. C. Sunday Robbins faced the Indianapolis Marvells and not a single batter reached first base. The Buccaners won, 15 to 0.

It's a Habit!

On the Friday previous to the game Robbins pitched a one-hit contest against the East Side Tigers, his team winning, 12 to 0. Young Robbins also will pitch against the Weber Milk Juniors on Sunday.

Diamond Chain Juniors defeated the Kansas St. Blues, 9 to 3, but the Blues protested to the Seventh district committee, alleging that Adam Roman, pitcher, was over the age limit. The committee sustained the protest and awarded the contest to the Blues by forfeit. The move automatically disqualified the Diamond Chain team. Other results last week:

Red Sox Jr.s, 9; Mt. Jackson Ramblers, 2.
Three-Cs, 24; Lady of Lourdes, 2.
Holy Trinity, 24; Lady of Lourdes, 2.
Junior Yankees, 2; Oriental All-Stars, 6.
St. Phillips Boys Club, 8; Carter Juniors, 0.

Roettger Badly Injured Sliding

By Times Special
ST. LOUIS, July 5.—The St. Louis Cardinals, favorites to win the National League pennant, lost one of their stars Wednesday when Outfielder Wallie Roettger was injured seriously sliding to third base during the second game with the Cubs. Roettger's right ankle was fractured in two places as well as dislocated. The injury will keep the young star out of action the remainder of the season and perhaps for all time.

MAJOR LEAGUE PROSPECT
Ray Gardner, shortstop with New Orleans, is being hailed as one of the best young shortstops in the minor leagues.

NO HITS IN SEVEN INNINGS

In the first game of Wednesday's amateur twin bill at Washington Park, the Advance Paint nine of the Manufacturers' League blanked the Hillside Christians of the Sunday School League, 3 to 0.

Ewing, Advance hurler, did not allow a hit and fanned ten men. He issued two walks. It was a seven-inning game, by agreement, the Power and Light and Riversides playing the second tilt.

Only two men reached base on Ewing. The Paint squad got four hits, J. Kelly getting two, one a double. Score:

UMPIRE IS HERO

Tommy Lovett, Southeastern League umpire, played the hero role recently when he rescued Mrs. N. C. Thornott of Jacksonville, Fla., from drowning near the mouth of St. Johns River. Mrs. Thornott had fallen from a small boat and was going down for the third time, when Lovett jumped in and saved her.

HAS A TEMPER

Watts Gunn is like Bobby Jones was when the latter first started playing golf. He lets his temper get the best of him when he dubs a shot and that often costs him several strokes.

Mike Dundee in Scrap at Pennsy Park

Star Junior Lightweight to Box Henri Dewanaker, French Pug.

Charles Brownfield, matchmaker for the Pennsy boxing shows to be held at Pennsy Park open air arena, announced today the first program would be staged next Monday night with nationally-known junior lightweights mixing in the main go of ten rounds.

Mike Dundee, the Rock Island (Ill.) scrapper, will tangle with Henri Dewanaker, prominent boxer from France, according to Brownfield.

Dundee is one of the best junior lightweights in the ring and Dewanaker, now fighting for Maxie Hoff, Philadelphia manager, is said to have piled up an excellent record while in this country.

It is Brownfield's idea to start the Pennsy shows off with a high class card and he plans a strong preliminary program to support his attractive main go.

The Pennsylvania Athletic Association has promised to have plenty of railroad police at the grounds Monday to act as guards.

High Noon Cops Circuit Feature

NORTH RANDALL, Ohio, July 5.—Charles Valentine of Columbus, Ohio, drove High Noon to victory here Wednesday in the nineteenth renewal of the Ohio stake, the 2:08 trot for $3,000. High Noon was counted "out of the money" and his victory was an upset.

In the other races here Wednesday, Hazel McKiyo won the $1,000 2:10 pace; Hazelton was first in the $2,837 free-for-all Trotting Horse Club stake, and Sir Walter was the winner of the $1,000 2:20 pace.

'Bye, Bill, Take Care of Yourself'

BY ROBERT E. O'HARA
"Good-bye, Bill, take care of yourself!"

That's what hundreds of tennis lovers in all parts of the country said when the announcement came not so long ago from his home in the State of oranges and champions, that William M. (Little Bill) Johnston, one of America's immortals of the racket, had retired, one of the finest things about that tribute of regret, was that it came from just as many who never had met the diminutive wizard of the net, but knew only by the unfadingly creditable reports of him in the sport columns.

Thirteen years ago, the Californian
