Latzo Fails to Win Title From Champ

Loughran Retains Light Heavy Crown in Grueling Battle.

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
United Press Staff Correspondent
WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 17.—Once again Tommy Loughran has retained his light heavyweight title by a close margin.

In the heart of the "black diamond" coal district Monday night, Loughran stood off the almost constant barrage of blows directed at him by Pete Latzo, the courageous Slav. At the end of ten rounds of furious fighting, Loughran was awarded the decision.

Twice within seven weeks Latzo has made valiant but unsuccessful attempts to win the light heavyweight title from Loughran.

Each time Latzo lost, but his margin of defeat was never decisive. Almost always on top of Loughran, flailing away with both fists, Latzo kept Loughran moving backward for most of Monday bout.

The former Scranton coal miner started slowly, losing the first three rounds to the champion, but when he opened up in the fourth round he almost drove the champion out of the ring with a brilliant burst of fighting which raised a crowd of 15,000 persons to its feet, yelling and howling for a knockout.

Loughran came back to win the fifth by his constant jab-jab-jabbing in Pete's face with a lightning left. Latzo couldn't keep Tommy's long left out of his face, and that is perhaps why Latzo is still a good game guy and Loughran is still light heavyweight champion.

At the finish Loughran was a badly spent champion and was so tired that he dropped his wearying arms to his sides at every opportunity. Latzo too was tired but not quite as spent as Tommy.

Loughran opened a nasty gash over the champion's right eye in the fourth round and a small cut over his right cheek bone in the seventh. Blood flowed freely from the cut over the eye. Loughran brought blood from Latzo's nose and mouth in the early rounds and the challenger bled occasionally all during the fight.

Indians Again Bowled Over and Their League Lead Is Menaced

Benton Fools Tribe Monday, 6 to 2; Reversed Forfeit of April Included in Twin Bill Today.

By Times Special
MINNEAPOLIS, July 17.—With their league lead chopped to two games Monday, when they dropped the series opener to the Indians, 6 to 2, the Indians today faced more grief. The contest here in April, forfeited to Indianapolis by Umpire Powell and then ordered replayed by President Hickey, was to be today's second tilt and it was to be preceded by the regularly scheduled game.

The April 28 fracas, stopped in the third inning with two Millers out and Minneapolis leading 13 to 3, was to be started at that point today, and brought to a conclusion. Anno club with a handicap like that could hope to win.

Old Rube Is Master

In fact everything is grief for the Betzelites during their visit to the Twin Cities. They lost three of four at St. Paul and fell again here Monday when old Rube Betzel fooled them with his ancient arm. Danny Boone hurled for Indianapolis. The ancient one drove in three runs in the third when he doubled to deep center with the bases loaded.

Manager Betzel was banished by Umpire McGrew in the sixth when Bruno protested a decision at first base. The Tribe had twelve men left on base. Yde was in line to pitch today's first game. Bill Burwell is still having gone down with the flu while in St. Paul.

That Twin City Jinx

The Indians got ten hits and the Millers thirteen. Local fandom is excited over the recent drive made by Mike Kelly's crew and attendance has picked up. The old Twin City jinx appears to have the Indians down for the count.

The Millers played errorless ball Monday while the Indians miscued twice, both bobbles proving costly. McMullen was walked intentionally in the third, the Indians choosing to work on Benton. And Benton cleaned the sacks.

Connolly, with a double and two singles, and Comorosky, with three singles, proved the best Tribe hitters. With the exception of Jacoby, every man in the Miller lineup socked the sphere as propelled by Boone, who has been bothered with a sore arm.

CHICAGO CUBS ARE AT IT AGAIN

By United Press
CHICAGO, July 17.—The Chicago Cubs, mystery team of the National League, are at it again. Today, from the Phillies, they will seek their eighth straight game.

Early in the season the Cubs, hailed as one of the strongest teams in the majors, slumped to sixth place. Then came a winning streak of 12 games, and the Cubs rode to the top of the league, where they stayed for a week.

Again came a losing streak. The pitchers couldn't pitch when the batters were hitting, and the batters couldn't hit when the pitchers were going good.

Now, after resting for a month and a half in fourth place, the Cubs have started another winning streak and their fourth victory over the Phillies Monday, carried it to seven games. At present they are in third place in percentage, two points behind the second place Giants.

Mrs. S. A. Jaqua, Indianapolis, beat Mrs. Fred Holmes, Lafayette, one up in 19 holes.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dunn, Indianapolis, defeated Mrs. A. McClamrock, Elkhart, three and one.

Medal Honors Shared

Mrs. Robert Gibson, of Elkhart, came back after a year's lay-off and shared the low medal honors with Mrs. Alfred Bulson, the star of Ft. Wayne. Both had 88s.

If there was any surprise in the list of the players who qualified, it probably was that of the elderly Mrs. A. A. McClamrock, of Frankfort, now in her sixty-first year. She gained the gutter perch on the difficult course in a 95. Her niece, Miss Mary Gorman, was able to turn the 18 in 104 which relegated her to the second flight.

The championship flight contains the names of five former champions including Miss Dunn. The association was formed in 1921. The others are Mrs. Gibson of Elkhart, the former Naomi Hull; Mrs. Scott Snyder of Ft. Wayne, who was Miss Hillis Drayer; Mrs. Fred Holmes of Lafayette, and Mrs. Ben Stevenson of Indianapolis.

Play-Off Necessary

When the qualifying round scores were tallied up it was discovered that three players were tied for the fifteenth and sixteenth positions. Mrs. D. K. Spitzer of South Bend; Mrs. Thomas Dougherty and Miss Grace Everett, both of Terre Haute, all had 97. In the play off Mrs. Spitzer shot into the rough and before she could get into the cup her tally card read 7. Mrs. Dougherty scored a 6 and Miss Everett was low with 5. Miss Everett took position 15 and Mrs. Dougherty 16.
