

HOOVER HOLDS BACK CAMPAIGN FOR WHIRLWIND FINISH

FIREWORKS TO BE SAVED FOR LAST 6 WEEKS

Vote Drives Won in August Too Often Lost at Polls, Aids Explain.

LET 'AL DO TALKING

But Plenty of G. O. P. News Is Promised for Windup in October.

BY PAUL R. MALLON
United Press Staff Correspondent
PALO ALTO, Cal., Aug. 9.—The storm of the Republican presidential campaign will be held back until the last six weeks before Nov. 6, and until that time there will be as much calm as possible around the headquarters of Herbert Hoover, the Republican presidential nominee, a spokesman for the candidate made clear today.

The statement was made in answer to complaints from newspapermen and others that there is no news emanating from the campus home of the Republican nominee. The startling lack of official information concerning future plans of action, announcements and subsequent denials regarding speeches and even the itinerary of next week's trip back to Washington were thus explained by the candidate's most authoritative source.

Complaints of Silence
Many campaigns have been won in August that were lost in November. Many speeches have been made in September that were forgotten before election day.

Hoover now is prepared to make sure that neither of these two common campaign faults are committed in this campaign.

If there is any wonder over the fact that Governor Alfred E. Smith, the Democratic nominee, sees newspaper men and speaks for quite a while every day and the Republican candidate, it can be dispelled by the now official knowledge that the Republican campaign is to be conducted on the theory that he who laughs, shouts or explains last does best, the Hoover spokesman contended.

In the last six weeks of the campaign the nominee will make many speeches and will be heard daily through the press or the other avenues of publicity, it was explained.

Meantime, there will be silence, and no matter how exasperating it may be to voters, Republican publicists or newspaper men accompanying the candidate, it still will be silence.

Plans Are Immature

Immature plans for the future provide for the arrival this afternoon of Senator George Moses, New Hampshire, chairman of the notification committee, departure from Palo Alto the latter part of next week; with perhaps a trip to the Yosemite valley or the Tuolumne Meadows before that time; a stop-over for a homecoming reception in Los Angeles, which may last from three hours to a day or two; perhaps a stop in the Grand Canyon; two or three days in West Branch, Iowa, at the Hoover birthplace homecoming celebration; and then direct return to Washington.

There also have been tentative and unofficial plans made for the nominee to visit Santa Barbara, Pasadena and Long Beach, Cal., coincident with his Los Angeles visit.

The man told Beattie that he was a watchman looking for brass thieves. He ordered him to accompany him to see other watchmen. He did. When they reached Willard St., the Negro struck Beattie, forcing him to give up his watch and 15 cents.

When he returned to his car "Duke" and his suitcase were gone.

Courtney made a sensational night landing on the ocean when the engine compartment of the plane caught fire. The top picture shows the fliers as they reached New York on the Minnewaska. Left to right they are Elwood H. Hosmer, rich Canadian, backer of the flight; Courtney, pilot; Hugh Gilmour, wireless operator; Fred Pierce, mechanic.

STATE FARMERS AID DEMOCRATS

Committee Will 'Talk Up' Platform.

The committee, selected from the ranks of farmers who have been active in farm organization work in the State, is counted upon as an effective means of getting before Indiana voters the contention that the Democratic platform offers to the farmer the only assurance of attention to agricultural problems while his binding upon both legislative and administrative officers.

The committee named to launch immediately the Democratic drive for the rural vote, is comprised of: H. D. Coombs, Crawfordsville, president of the Montgomery County Union Agricultural Society; Charles F. Patterson, Greentown, secretary of the Live Stock Feeders' Corporation; Jesse C. PETERS FLAYS INDIANA G. O. P.

Denounces 'Intrigue' Aimed at Honest Rule.

By Times Special
FT. WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 9.—Republican campaign managers in the State have resorted to "caprice and intrigue to divide and weaken the forces who seek re-establishment of honest government," declared R. Earl Peters, Democratic State chairman here Wednesday night.

Peters was addressing a three-township meeting of Democratic women, sponsored by the Women's Democratic Club of Allen County. Albert Stump, the party's senatorial nominee, stressed the importance of organization work among women.

"Contrary to the hopes and gossip of irresponsible persons pretending leadership of the Republican party," the State chairman said, "the Democratic party in Indiana enters the 1928 campaign, not only supremely confident of success for the national and State tickets, but united in purpose and program with relation to both State and national aspects of the contest."

Governor Alfred E. Smith, as presidential nominee; Frank C. Dailey, as the nominee for Governor, and Stump, the party's candidate for United States Senator, "appeal alike to Democratic independent and independent Republican voters," Peters said.

Late Entries Pour in for Play Lot Scooters Derby

$500 Prizes Offered in Times-Capitol Dairies Contests.

Last minute entries in the scooter derby came in today, following the announcement of the schedule for the elimination races Tuesday.

Only a few days remain for preparation for the first test which will narrow down the field of entries in the $500 event sponsored by the Indianapolis Times and the Capitol Dairies, Inc.

The youngsters who are entered are practicing vigorously. The contestants have been divided into three classes to give all an equal chance for the prizes. Boys are in two classes, five to nine and nine to twelve, age taken as of July 1; girls over five are in another class.

The same prizes are offered for each class except that the senior boys have no prize for the youngest entrant in the finals. The cash awards are supplemented by a number of valuable merchandise prizes.

Each contestant must appear at the playground where he is entered on the day of the race at that center. No special notification will be given. The entrants should see the instructor at their playground now, and put their names on his entry list. These will be checked against official entry blanks, to avoid confusion.

The race is only 200 yards. There is no chance of the racers being unduly exhausted or overstrained.

ROAD BANDITRY IS RENEWED IN DAYLIGHT FORAY

Truck Driver Forced to Stop by Masked Men, Robbed of $24.

Roadside banditry, suppressed in Indianapolis since the police battle in which two robbers were killed after a carnival of highway holdups July 17, was resumed in broad daylight today.

Two young men, one of them masked with a handkerchief, driving a Buick sedan, forced Mike Mascari, wholesale fruit dealer, 818 Greer St., to stop his truck at the curbing in Twenty-First St. near Emerson Ave., at 9:45 this morning and robbed him of $24.

The bandits had followed him from College Ave. and Thirty-Eighth St., Mascari said.

One bandit remained at the wheel of the sedan, looking straight ahead so Mascari could not get a good view of his features.

The other alighted and made Mascari stand on his truck running board while he rummaged Mascari's pockets. The bandit handed a package of cigarettes and a box of matches back to the victim.

Mascari described the masked man who robbed him as being about 25 years old, wearing a blue suit and brown cap. Both bandits were tastefully dressed.

'Fox' to Hang in October or November.

By Times Special

The Superior Court of Los Angeles, which previously passed the extreme penalty on Hickman, is to sentence him to death on the gallows for the second time.

Legal procedure took the case to the State's highest court, where the hanging sentence was upheld. A new trial was denied and the repeating of the death sentence is but a matter of formality.

Hickman will not be present when the court again reads the hanging sentence.

The sentence will be executed not more than ninety days nor less than sixty days from the time it is pronounced by the court. The date of hanging then would be set between Oct. 8 and Nov. 7.
