Stickup Men and Burglars
Get $2,000 Loot in City
Over Week-End.

Approximately $1,000 in cash and another $1,000 or more in plunder went to safe crackers, hold-up men and burglars in a week-end of activity featured by sledge on-slaps on two safes, one of which yielded more than $500.

Vacation plans of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Koegen went awry when they found this morning that yeggs Sunday night had battered the door off the safe in their restaurant, 2701 W. Tenth St., to remove $500 cash savings, $85 in gold pieces, two white gold rings valued at $24 and a necklace. In their place was left a crumpled newspaper in which the safe crackers had carried their tools.

Yeggman broke into the Virginia Sweet Grille, 35 E. Maryland St., Sunday night, battered the combination off the safe, but failed to open the strong box. H. A. Egali of 1319 W. Thirty-Second St., merchant policeman, discovered the safe had been entered by breaking open the side door.

Friday the grille was held up and robbed by a bandit, who escaped with $200.

LOOT DRY GOODS STORE

Approximately $1,000 worth of merchandise was stolen from the Elva E. Bok dry goods store, 1006 N. Bosart Ave., early Sunday, the third time the place has been ransacked this year.

The burglars entered by breaking glass in the rear door and prying off six iron bars. Bok said. Packages of hose, shoes and empty boxes were found in an adjoining alley.

The Standard Oil Company filling station at Thirty-Eighth St. and Fall Creek Blvd. yielded $180 to thieves who entered the station early Sunday, O. E. Kortepeter, company supervisor, told police.

Dan Baker, owner of a filling station and lunch room at Harding and Raymond Sts., said he was held up by four young men who took $25 from the cash register. The roadster in which the quartet escaped was found near Troy Ave. and Harding St. and identified as belonging to E. R. Whitling of the stock yards, police said.

STEAL 200 WORTH OF TOOLS

Tools valued at 200 were stolen from the Central Machine Tool and Die Company, 427 S. Senate Ave., Robert Duke, manager, told police.

Clothing worth $75 was stolen from the Eastland Cleaners, 1004 N. Bosart Ave., Albert Bennett, proprietor, reported.

Eleven burglaries were investigated by police Sunday night.

Sam Roffman, 1127 Fletcher Ave., reported he awoke shortly after midnight and saw a burglar with a flashlight in the room. The man escaped with the man's shoes and $13 from his trouser pocket.

Police chased two men in the vicinity and caught one of them, who gave his name as Orbin Toney, 918 Cottage Ave. He is held on vagrancy charges.

OTHER BURGLARIES

Other burglaries and holdups included John Ellis, 328 Capitol Ave. who turned over $43 to an Negro with a knife at 310 N. Capitol Ave.; burglary at home of Mrs. Sarah Hopper, 1442 Flat St., $96 stolen; burglary at dry beer saloon, 1442 N. Senate Ave., owned by W. M. South, cigarettes valued at $20 taken; gold watch worth $25 stolen from home of Harry Tushman, 947 S. Illinois St.; R. Holding grocery, at Baltimore Ave. and Fifty-Second St., entered, but nothing stolen.

PLYMOUTH, Ind., Aug. 20.—Police Chief Morrow declares that it is the local motorists rather than the tourists passing through here that run through stop signs. FIND EXPLORER LOST IN BRAZIL INDIAN VICTIM

British Party Missing Three Years; Leader Killed,
Rescuers Radio.

By United Press

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—The mysterious disappearance in the Brazilian wilderness three years ago of Col. P. H. Fawcett, famous British explorer, ended in his death, according to a story appearing in the New York World today and copyrighted by the North American Newspaper Alliance.

The story that Commander George H. Dyott, who went in search of Colonel Fawcett's party the first of this year, had sent a radio message to an operator in Rio de Janeiro, who had in turn relayed it to Robert Lloyd of Elmsworth, Pa., and William McDonald Jr. of Hollis, N. Y.

The message, according to the World's story, said that Fawcett had been killed by Indians in July, 1925.

Dyott's message told of the hardships his rescue party had undergone and said that he hoped to reach Para early in October. Serious trouble with Indians of the wilderness had hampered the progress of the expedition.

Fawcett's last known message was sent back to civilization on May 30, 1925. He was then plunging into the jungles from which he hoped to return in two years.

LEAGUE HOPES TO END WORLD PERIL OF WAR

Final Touches on Security
Planned for Coming
Assembly Session.

By United Press
GENEVA, Aug. 20.—The ninth assembly of the League of Nations, which will follow the proposed signing at Paris of the Kellogg war-abolition treaty, expects to put the final touch on the problem of security.

League members frankly admit that the Kellogg treaty will constitute the greatest step yet taken, with the possible exception of Locarno, toward solving the problem of security that to date has been the greatest obstacle to any progress toward disarmament.

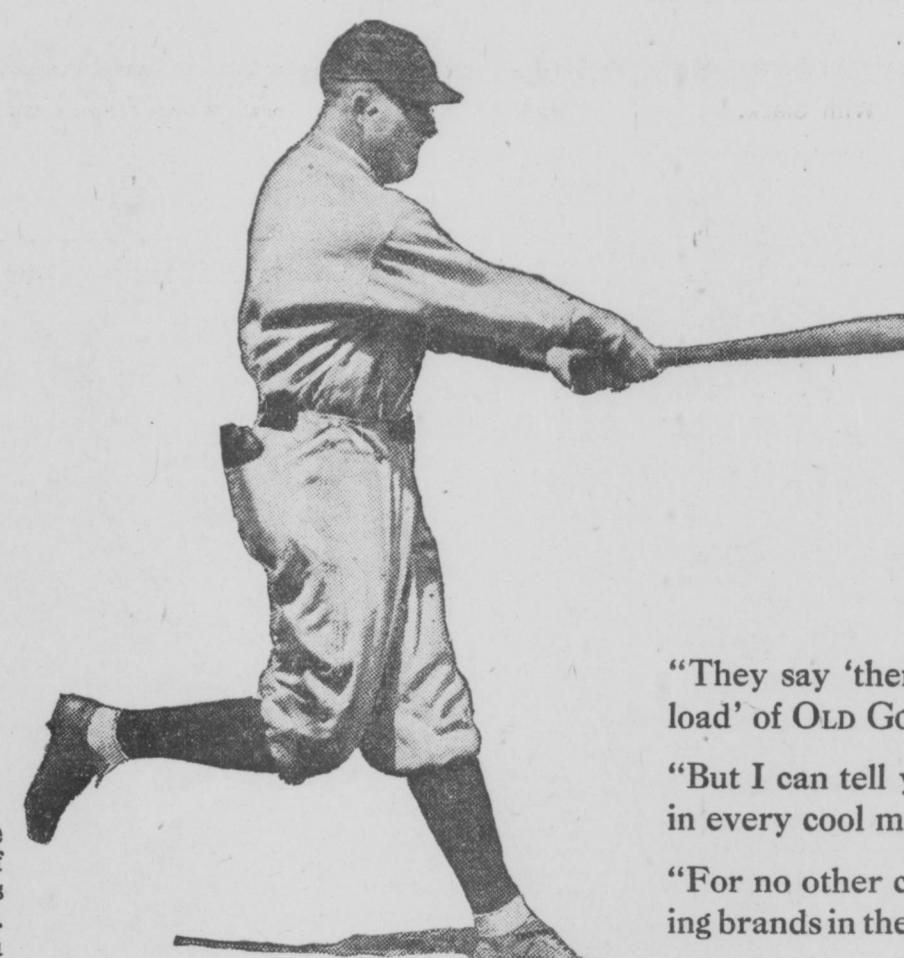

In the event, however, various nations still feel their security is not guaranteed sufficiently to permit of a limitation or reduction of armaments. The September assembly of the league will be prepared to put into effect immediately a program that should overcome all final objections to a disarmament conference.

Virtually all ministers who will participate in the signing of the Kellogg pact at Paris will come immediately afterward to the league assembly. They thus will be in position to push to completion the basis of security already established by the Kellogg pact.

To this end, the assembly will have at its disposition the complete program as prepared during the last year by its security commission under the direction of Foreign Minister Benes of Czechoslovakia.

This consists of a dozen model bilateral and multilateral treaties covering the Pacific settlement of all disputes, arbitration, conciliation, non-aggression and mutual assistance.

OLD GOLD bats 1000% as Hornsby takes the Blindfold cigarette test

"They say 'there's not a cough in a carload' of OLD GOLDS.

"But I can tell you there's a home-run hit in every cool mouthful.

"For no other cigarette, of the four leading brands in the blindfold test, could compare with OLD GOLDS for pure pleasure to taste, tongue and throat."

Rogers Hornsby

What gives OLD GOLD this winning charm?

Here is the answer, in three words... heart-leaf tobacco. No coarse, heavy top-leaves of the tobacco plant... for they irritate the throat. No withered ground-leaves... for they are lacking in aroma. Only the cool and fragrant heart-leaves... golden ripe... can give OLD GOLDS their honey-like smoothness. That's why you can tell them in the dark.
