Match Play in Western Amateur Golf Meet Is Started.

DAWSON IS MEDALIST

Chicagoan's 141 Is Low Qualifying Score.

By United Press
 BOB O'LINK CLUB, HIGHLAND PARK, Ill., Aug. 22.—Thirty-two golfers, one of the greatest championship brackets which ever has played in the Western Amateur tournament, started today in the first round of elimination match play.

Included among the thirty-one men who survived the qualifying rounds are four members of the British Walker Cup team of ten. Bon Stein, Seattle, Wash., whose incumbent championship automatically made him a qualifier, completed the bracket.

The qualifying mark of 155 strokes included 149 of the 180 golfers who started play Monday. Nine aspirants tied at 155, necessitating a playoff.

Johnny Dawson, Chicago, took the medalist honors with 141, three under par. The stocky Chicago youth held his strokes down to 69 in his second round, tying the mark established twenty-four hours earlier by Don Moore, Portland, Ore. Moore's total was 144 for the two rounds.

T. Phillips Perkins, British amateur champion, and Phillips Finlay, Redlands, Cal., tied for third place with medal scores of 145. Perkins was the only member of the British team who broke par. The other British qualifiers and their scores were: Torrance, 155; William Tweddell, 152, and Edward P. Storey, 154. Indianapolis golfers and other Hoosier linksmen failed to qualify for match play and were eliminated from further tourney action.

Wallace Wins on Foul From Packo in Feature Bout at Ft. Harrison

Bout Ends in Seventh Round With Roy Ahead on Points; Royal Cox Beats Windy Meyers.

Charley Arthur, Newark, N. J., and Bobby Williams, Syracuse, are scheduled to provide the action in the main-go presentation at the Ft. Harrison "Punch Bowl" next Tuesday night.

Roy Wallace, the hard-hitting Indianapolis middleweight, won from Joe Packo of Toledo on a foul in the seventh round of their scheduled ten-round engagement Tuesday night. Wallace was far ahead on points at the time of the foul and the blow had all the earmarks of being a deliberate punch.

Down Goes Joe!
 The Fort commission and referee came to that conclusion and Packo's earnings for the evening received a healthy cut. Wallace got off to an early lead when he caught the Toledo veteran coming in and sprawled Packo on the canvas with Red Lucas, Cincinnati pitcher, broke up a threatened New York rally Tuesday by stopping a batted ball with his head. The ball came toward third base and Dresden threw out Wrightstone when a hit and two runs seemed unavoidable. The out was the third and enabled the Red to beat the Giants, 3 to 2. Lucas was not badly hurt.

St. Louis had a chance to return to first place in the National League by virtue of New York's defeat, but the Brooklyn Robins effectively checked them, 6 to 1. McWeney allowed the Cardinals only three hits.

Pittsburgh won a 6-to-2 win over Boston despite the fact they only made one more hit than their opponents. Ray Kremer allowed sixteen hits, but kept them well scattered.

Waite Hoyt bested Sam Gray in a slight upset and the New York Yankees topped the St. Louis Browns, 3 to 1. Hoyt brought the ranks through a number of tight places.

Philadelphia made short work of Cleveland, 12 to 4. The Athletics had all their runs in the bag before the seventh inning, and they were in the lead, 3 to 1. Old Jack Quinn was the winning pitcher.

Washington dropped before Grady Adkins of the Chicago White Sox, 3 to 1. Adkins allowed seven hits, but only once could the Senators bunch them for a run.

Detroit beat Boston 4 to 3, and had the better of the argument the whole way. The Tigers bunched 9 runs in the eighth inning and were in the lead, 4 to 3. The Sox were nipped after one run had been scored.
