

RABIES SPREADS; STRAY DOGS MAY BE ORDERED SHOT

QUARANTINE IS FACED; REPORT MANY VICTIMS

Death Edict May Be Issued Unless County Epidemic Is Curbed.

82 GET TREATMENT

Henry Officials Clamp on Lid; May Follow Suit Here.

Rabies again is increasing in Marion County. Unless the spread of the disease is checked it may be necessary for a thirty-day period to order all dogs running at large shot, Dr. William F. King, State board of health secretary, declared today.

Warnings and restrictions advised by Dr. King at a conference of city and county health authorities in June curbed the rabies epidemic here only temporarily, State health board records show.

Today there are eighty-two Marion County men, women and children receiving rabies serum treatment at the State clinic, whereas in June, when the check first was installed, forty-two received treatment and in July the number of patients had been reduced to twenty-two.

Quarantine Ordered

Such quarantine as will be instituted in Henry County Monday, where thirty persons are taking serum treatments as a result of dog bites, will be necessary in Marion County unless the epidemic is curbed, Dr. King said.

Starting Monday all law enforcing officials of Henry County for a period of thirty days will be required to shoot any dog seen on the street without a leash or under the care of its owner.

Following that period only dogs whose owners have papers to show the animals have been vaccinated will be permitted without a leash, otherwise the animal is to be killed. Under an act of the 1927 legislature, the State veterinarian, Dr. F. C. Brown is given full discretionary powers in event of a rabies epidemic.

Disease Spreads

He may order all dogs shot or confined, and the law makes it paramount that enforcing officials obey his mandates.

In event the rabies situation in Marion County is not curbed it may be necessary to have the veterinarian take over absolute control of the situation, Dr. King said.

Dr. Brown is in Newcastle arranging the Henry County quarantine. He is assisted in this work by Dr. W. W. Lee of the State health department.

The spread of the disease among dogs of the State, whose brains are brought up to the health board for diagnosis, revealed that of the 104 brains brought in June, sixty were found to have positive rabies bacilli, and of the seventy-nine brought in July forty-five were found to be positive.

NEGRO FAILS TO ELUDE ARREST AS AUTO THIEF

Freed From Owner by Friends, Is Nabbed by Police.

Richard Stone, Negro, of 908 Pacca St., was arrested on the charge of vehicle taking, today.

Tuesday night he saw a Negro driving his automobile. He jumped on the running board of the car and seized the thief.

Four Negroes who were passing forced him to release the thief Holmes said. However, Holmes recognized the man and Stone's arrest followed at 1:30 a. m. today.

SELLS PAVING BONDS

City Raises $40,000 for Its Share on Shelby St. Project.

Work on paving of Shelby St. between Troy and Madison Aves., probably will be started within a few days by Abel Brothers, contractors, who were awarded the $80,000 job by the board of works.

Bonds of $40,000 to pay the city's share of the costs under the connecting link law have been sold to the Fletcher Savings and Trust Company, by Sterling R. Holt, city controller.

Sale of the bonds has been delayed several months, because of legal technicalities. The county's part of the bonds also have been sold.

A. H. Moore, city engineer, said the city is anxious to rush the project.

HOOVER FORCES FEAR AL SMITH IN NORTHWEST

Reveal Discontent in Wheat Belt Tends to Favor N. Y. Governor.

BY RAY TUCKER

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, Aug. 23.—Hardly had Herbert Hoover quelled some of rebellion in the corn belt here before he was informed by Northwestern leaders that there was grave discontent in the wheat States of Minnesota, Wisconsin and the Dakotas.

By such leaders as Governor Theodore Christiansen of Minnesota, Representative Royal Johnson of South Dakota and Senator Nye of North Dakota he was told that the 50-cent drop in the wheat price in the last month and Governor Smith's popularity necessitated hard and intensive campaigning in the northwestern section.

Concretely they suggested that Hoover, when returning to California to vote late in October, make his tour through their section rather than through the border States, as had been originally planned.

Smith was said to have considerable strength in the Northwest where his wetness and even his religion are helping him among the tolerant and liberal people of foreign descent.

Their adherence to Republicanism, Hoover was informed, is not so deep-seated as is that of people in the corn belt which he has been wooing.

Hoover advisers are jubilant at the results of the three-day invasion of the corn belt. The most permanent good, in their opinion, will follow not so much from Hoover's pledges as from his contact with more than sixty editors, six Governors and ex-Governors, six United States Senators and about thirty members of the House, all of whom reside in the supposedly disaffected areas.

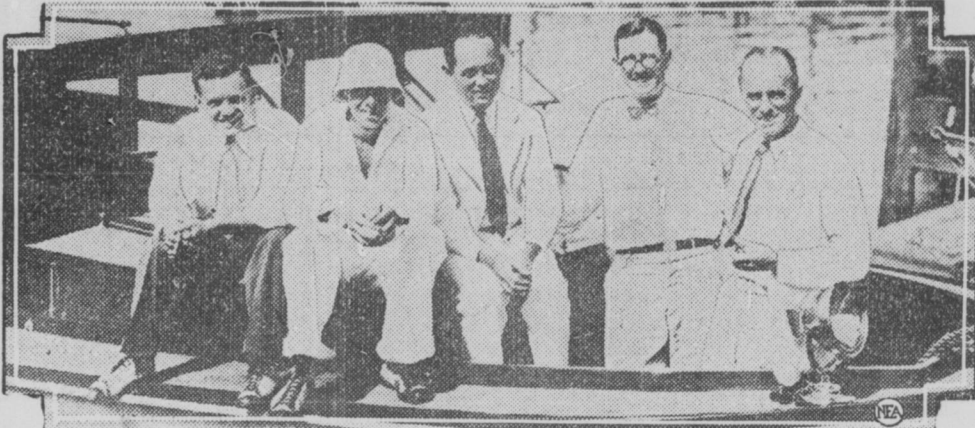

Next to his exhibition of his understanding of their troubles, they liked best his evident sympathy and determination to make a solution of the farm question his first care if he should be elected.

TEXT BOOKS OUSTED

Chicago Brands Histories as Pro-British.

By United Press

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—The Chicago school board has won one engagement in Mayor William Thompson's war on King George of England.

Six American history textbooks, which came in for much publicity during the trial of William McAndrew, former superintendent of Schools, were extirpated by the school board at a meeting Wednesday, because, the board voted, they tend to spread pro-British propaganda among school children.

Surprisingly enough, J. Lewis Coath, trustee and former president of the board, voiced a mild opposition to the exclusion of these books. It was Coath who led the attack against Andrews, charging Andrews was the instrument of British propaganda-spreading. Coath hinted at favoritism in selecting the textbooks for the coming year, but when the vote came, he voted with the rest of the members.

ALBANIA TIRES OF SELF RULE; FAVORS KING

Assembly Called to Name President Zogu Ruler of Monarchy.

(Copyright, 1928, by United Press)

LONDON, Aug. 23.—The Albanians, one of the most ancient races of Europe, want to be ruled by a King instead of a President.

After centuries of Turkish rule, Albania gained its freedom shortly before the World War and recently experimented with a republican form of government, modeled closely after that of the United States.

It did not suit them. Saturday, a constitutional assembly will meet at Tirana, the capital, and before it ends, it will proclaim President Ahmed Zogu, King.

Back of the decision of this wild, interesting and little known race of people lies a history both fascinating and heroic. Zogu, still only 33 years old, is called the "Savior of the people" and is their second great national hero. The other was Scanderberg, who led his people to brief freedom from the Turks in 1443.

Albania is a little country, about half the size of the State of Indiana, lying on the eastern shore of the Adriatic, with Yugoslavia to the north and Greece to the south, opposite the toe of the Italian "Boot." It has a population of perhaps 1,000,000 to 1,500,000.

Abel Brothers was awarded the contract to pave a half-block strip three months ago. The strip connects two paving projects.

Secretary Ernest Frick said the board ordered the work completed Aug. 1 and no extension had been obtained. The contractor blamed delay of a traction company in relaying tracks for failure to complete the work.
