

RADIO BUSINESS BOOMED IN CITY BY AL'S SPEECH

Hoosier Democrats Show Enthusiasm for Party Nominee.

Political prognosticators are generally agreed that Herbert Hoover will get a large majority of Hoosier presidential votes, but just the same they like to hear Al Smith talk.

Such deduction can be made from the consensus of opinion of radio dealers here, who assert that battery, equipment and radio sales boomed more for the Smith acceptance speech Tuesday night than it did for Hoover's similar ceremony.

If the Smith backers are a minority they seem to be an enthusiastic one. There is the matter of Al Smith automobile, plates, for instance.

Preface Name With "Al"

These are stamped metal signs that can be attached to the machine to show how the driver feels about the November election. The Hoover signs are generally green, with the raised lettering in white. They contain the single legend, "Hoover."

Smith signs are somewhat smaller, although they sell for the same price, and are done in red letters with a white background. They read "Al Smith."

Another indication of the enthusiasm of the Smith minority, if any, is the sale of specially prepared greeting cards for mailing to the candidates.

Predict Heavy Mail

These generally show Smith headed for the White House on a donkey or Hoover on an elephant going in the same direction. In big letters is written, "I am for you," or words to that effect, and there is a line for the signature of the sender.

According to some dealers the Smith cards are "going big" and the mail of the Governor of New York will be taking on the proportions of Clara Bow of Hollywood.

"Hoover Hoosiers are going to say it with ballots," one commentator declared.

He was a Republican.

GIRL KEPT LOSING WEIGHT

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Built Her Up

"I was working for two years—clerking in a store—and seemed to be steadily losing weight, so was forced to give up my work. A neighbor recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me and I have now taken six bottles and can't tell you how I have appreciated it. I am feeling better and stronger every day. I recommended it to all young girls and if any have the same trouble and will write to me I will gladly answer."—MRS. EMIL H. GERTHS, Box 476, Scobey, Montana.—Advertisement.

Day Nursery Youngsters Frolic

Sixteen birthdays, forty-three young guests and Broad Ripple Park's amusement devices were the elements in a joyous celebration given youngsters from the Indianapolis Day Nursery Association Wednesday by the Artemus Club. "Excursionists" crowded coaches on the miniature railroad, and taxed facilities of the merry-go-round, ferris wheel, coaster and other amusements. Children whose birthdays occurred in August and September were the "honored guests."

SPEED BUDGET O. K.

Confer Tonight on Slashes in Estimates.

Edward W. Harris, council finance chairman, Republican, today called a closed meeting with Mayor Slack and city officials for tonight in the council chamber to discuss the 1929 budget.

The finance committee will go over the items sliced by the council from the requests of the various city officials.

Harris declined to discuss the cuts considered, but said the council hoped to cut Slack's $1.15 request at least a cent.

MAYOR DELAYS ACTION ON BILL TO BAN PARKING

Refuses Comment on Draft to Bar Autos From Monument Circle.

An ordinance prohibiting parking of automobiles on Monument Circle today was "pigeonholed" by Mayor L. Ert Slack, who returned to his office for an hour late Wednesday to sign ordinances passed by council Monday night.

The mayor, who has been taking a vacation at his Johnson County cottage, signed several routine transfer ordinances but steered away from the parking measure following receipt of protests against the proposed ban.

"I never commit myself on a legislative matter until I see the ordinance. I want to read it over," Slack said.

The mayor announced several weeks ago that he favored abolishing parking on the Circle, which is in violation of the State law, according to an attorney general's decision.

The measure provides for several minor traffic changes, including flat-to-curb parking on the four downtown avenues.

Slack returned to his country cottage last night and was not expected to be in the city today, according to office aids.

WELL-KNOWN NEWS
VENDOR INDORSES
THE NEW KONJOLA
States That Advanced Medicine Is Reliable Remedy for Completely Disordered Stomach.

Reports of what Konjola has done in actual cases are appearing every day in the Indianapolis papers, and at the same time, vast crowds are calling daily at the Hook Drug Store, Illinois and Washington Sts., this city, and interviewing the Konjola Man, where he is personally explaining the merits of this new medicine.

Another surprising statement has been received which shows more clearly what Konjola is doing for sufferers in this vicinity. The statement came from Mr. Thomas McGraw, who has a host of friends in this city. Mr. McGraw is a news vendor on the northwest corner of Illinois and Washington Sts., and has been engaged in this work for more than seventeen years. He resides at 1338 W. Thirty-Third St.

"I am very glad to recommend Konjola to my numerous friends. It has certainly proven a great medicine for me," said Mr. McGraw. "It would be impossible for me to say too much for a medicine which has done what Konjola has for me. It has made it possible for me to return to work after being forced to remain at home for several weeks."

"I suffered from the worst kind of stomach trouble possible and it seemed to be that I was always in misery. There would be a terrible gnawing sensation in the pit of my stomach which I thought came from hunger, but when I tried eating anything, the food always caused more trouble than it did good. Awful gas bloating came over me after every meal and although I was very careful about the foods, my digestive organs simply refused to act normally upon them. This trouble kept on for more than four years until I was finally forced to go to a hospital for treatment. Although this helped me somewhat I did not get complete relief and as a result, I thought my case was practically hopeless."

"When I left the hospital and returned to my home, I started on the treatment of Konjola. I realized I was in a bad condition so I did not expect too much from this medicine at the start. I had confidence in it and kept right on until I noticed a vast improvement. Although it took some time, I finally overcame my trouble and now I am working my newspaper business at my corner every day regardless of weather conditions. There is not a trace of stomach trouble remaining with me and I feel sure the 'Konjola' remedy. I really know that Konjola has improved my health in every way and I am more than glad to endorse it so that others may benefit by my experience. I am able to eat foods that I always desired and enjoy the meals so that I am nourished and have more strength and energy than ever before."

The Konjola Man is at Hook's Drug Store, Illinois and Washington Sts., Indianapolis, where he is daily meeting the public and inducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Konjola is sold in every Hook Drug Store in this section and by all the leading druggists throughout this vicinity.—Advertisement.
