

VOLSTEAD SAYS SMITH WOULD REVIVE SALOON

Author of Dry Act Doubts Promise to Enforce Prohibition.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 24.—Andrew J. Volstead, author of the prohibition enforcement act, said today that modification of the law as suggested by Governor Alfred E. Smith would mean the restoration of the saloon.

"The promise of Mr. Smith to enforce the prohibition law and the Eighteenth Amendment," Volstead said, "is no more sacred than the oath he took to enforce the Eighteenth Amendment when he became Governor of New York."

"His proposition to have a scientific investigation of the quantity of alcohol that liquor may contain is a joke. Any one who knows enough to get in when it rains knows such a thing is impossible."

"If this proposition means anything it means that it wants a substantial increase in the alcoholic content of near beer to go on the market for sale in the soft drink bars. If this beer does not contain enough alcohol to have an intoxicating effect, it will be no different from the present beer and will satisfy no one. If it does it will simply mean the restoration of the saloon."

"The plan of selling liquor by the States is being tried in Canada and is a failure."

PREDICTS CONTINUATION OF SOUND PROSPERITY

I. D. Carson, Former Local Man, Visits City on Way to Culver.

Continuation of sound business conditions in the United States was predicted today by I. D. Carson of N. W. Ayer Advertising Company of Philadelphia.

Carson, a former Indianapolis man, was here en route to Culver to address the Indiana Weekly Press Association. His topic will be "This Business of Ours." He formerly published the Wilkie (Canada) Press.

The national advertising firm representative believes that "business prosperity or lack of prosperity is the result of a psychological situation."

Carson, president of the Eastern Pennsylvania Alumni Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic fraternity, was entertained Thursday at a luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce, sponsored by the Indianapolis chapter of the fraternity.

HOLD PLAZA BIDS
Memorial Commission Delays Action.

Bids for alteration of University Park as a part of the Plaza were taken under advisement today by the Indiana World War Memorial Commission.

The commission desired to confer with its attorney, Samuel Ashby, who is out of the city, before taking action on the bids because of a technicality on the bids.

Low base bid was submitted by the Indiana Granite and Construction Company, Indianapolis, $68,767. Other bids submitted were: Fred Janitz, Indianapolis, $74,900; Mead Construction Company, Indianapolis, $80,000; and Hunkins-Conkey Construction Company, Indianapolis, $74,868.

ARRESTED AS DRUNK

Woman Complains Stranger Entered Her House.

Theodore Weighouse, 23, of 626 1/2 E. St. Clair St., is charged with drunkenness, assault and battery and malicious trespass. Police allege that Mrs. Frank Kline, 727 Park Ave., found him sitting on the stairway of her home Thursday afternoon and she refused to leave. She called her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Price, 715 Park Ave., and the man fought with them, she said. Weighouse is a stranger to her. Mrs. Kline said, but she was able to identify him after his arrest officers had found him at his home.

ARREST BOND JUMPER

Son of Former Secretary of State Knox Jailed for Recklessness.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Philip C. Knox, son of the former Secretary of State, was rewarded with a ride in the patrol wagon and several hours in jail Thursday for the $540 collateral he has surrendered to District of Columbia officials. Arrested on a charge of reckless driving, he twice failed to appear in police court and was ordered to forfeit first $40 and then $500 bond. He is free again today under $1,000 bond.

Turkish Official Arrested

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Kemal Djennay Bey, second secretary of the Turkish embassy, was arrested after an automobile accident Thursday at Trenton, N. J., by an officer who refused to be convinced of his right to diplomatic immunity, the embassy was informed.

Joy in Prison

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Aug. 24.—There's rejoicing behind the walls of the Indiana State prison here among that portion of the inmates enthusiastic about the prison baseball team. William Adkins, Muncie, has been returned for parole violation. He is an all-round player, being able to make a good showing as a pitcher, catcher or fielder. He is also handy with a bat.
