

POLICE HOLD 2 ON CHARGES OF KEEPING 'DOPE'

Cocaine Capsules Found in Indiana Ave. Raid by Officers.

Drugs and booze played leading parts in the arrests made by police during the last twenty-four hours. When Sergt. M. F. Morrissey and squad raided Sal's Little Smoker, 756 Indiana Ave., Thursday night, Everett Jones, 25, alias Patch Eye, Negro, 746 Utica St., is alleged to have tossed a tin packet containing cocaine capsules into a bucket of water and then ran out of the door. Patrolman Bert Ernix recovered seven of the capsules, which are being held as evidence.

Jones, Sal Cox, 28, proprietor of the place, and Robert Momer, 33, Negro, 519 W. North St., were arrested. The first two were charged with violating the Federal anti-narcotic laws and the latter with vagrancy.

Walter Gross, 33, of 1254 W. Twenty-Sixth St., was arrested on blind tiger charges early today. Sergt. Frank Reilly and squad at Pennsylvania and Forty-Third Sts. Officers allege they found twelve cans of alcohol in his car.

HEADS 'MARY' CLUB

Kokomo Woman Is President Re-union Association.

Mrs. Mary E. Belt, Kokomo, is president of the Mary Reunion Association today following the fifteenth reunion of the group Thursday at Broad Ripple Park.

More than 150 Marys, from 1 to 81 years of age, representing eight Indiana counties, attended. Qualification for membership is merely the given name Mary.

Other officers are Mrs. Mary Gray, New Palestine, vice president; Mrs. Mary Adler, Indianapolis, secretary, and Miss Mary Thompson, Fishers, treasurer. Mrs. Mary Price and Mrs. Mary Hogue, Indianapolis, were named entertainment committee members.

QUIT PRESIDENT RACE

City Man Will Be Nationalist Nominee for Senate.

John Zahn, Indianapolis real estate dealer, presidential nominee of the National party, today announced his withdrawal from the National ticket and declared he would be his party's nominee for United States Senator.

In announcing his withdrawal from the presidential field, Zahn explained the National party could hardly expect more than 1,000,000 votes even if it went to the expense of filing in every State.

LABOR WATCHES HOOVER, SMITH

Withholds Indorsements to Hear Pledges.

By Times Special
WASHINGTON, Aug. 24—Executives of the American Federation of Labor are awaiting "with very great interest" the utterances of Herbert Hoover, Governor Smith and their running-mates, on labor matters.

The Federation's executive council at its recent meeting at Atlantic City decided not to indorse either candidate for the present, but reserved "a final decision regarding our future policy," dependent upon what the candidates say.

Should an indorsement of one or the other be decided upon, it probably would be at the council's October meeting here.

Meanwhile Federation headquarters are busy getting out the records of national candidates on labor matters. These records are expected to have almost as much effect as an indorsement, as actions are to be listed flatly as "favorable" or "unfavorable."

They will be sent to affiliated unions all over the country. The legislative records of Senators and Representatives also are to be sent into their local States and districts.

Janitor 51 Years Dies

RICHMOND, Ind., Aug. 24—Alfred W. Dingley, 71, a Richmond school building janitor fifty-one years, is dead. He retired in January of this year due to failing health.

SENATE FIGHT AGAINST WEST MAY BE AVOIDED

By Times Special
WASHINGTON, Aug. 24—President Coolidge need not ask Approval of Appointment Under Law.

Under the law a recess appointee may continue in office until the adjournment of the next session of Congress even though he is not confirmed by the Senate. This statute does not require the submission of the appointee's name to the Senate during the close of an administration.

BLIND, KNOWS AUTOS

Youth arrested at Gary Uses Touch and Hearing.

By Times Special
GARY, Ind., Aug. 24.—Ernest Smith, 20, blind Negro, won his freedom when arrested on a charge of begging on the streets, by demonstrating to police his ability to tell the make of various autos by touch and hearing.

After the demonstration, police men contributed to a fund to pay Smith's fare from here to Chicago. He has been blind three years.

W. L. Winning, advertising manager for the House of Crane and for twenty-three years an instructor in show card writing and window trimming at the Y. M. C. A. evening trade school, has been appointed dean of the school according to A. F. Williams, educational director.

Some of the courses and instruction to be offered this year at the school are those by Winning in show card lettering and window trimming; S. H. Connorroe, battery building and maintenance; J. E. Hall, starting and ignition; L. M. Bolander, chemistry; R. J. Kriter, radio set building and maintenance; Harold Schoen, architectural drawing; Capt. H. Weir Cook, ground school aviation; Russell Purcell, electric and acetylene welding.

The evening trade school is the oldest of all the Y. M. C. A. schools and has been in existence a quarter of a century, according to Williams.

INSANE PATIENT DIES

"Most Violent Case" in History of Hospital Succumbs.

Fred Koford, 50, Kokomo, Ind., paraplegic patient at Central Indiana Hospital here, died today of bronchial pneumonia, according to Dr. O. H. Bakemeyer, deputy coroner.

Hospital authorities termed Koford one of the most violent cases in the history of the institution. He was transferred from Indiana State farm, where he threatened to shoot up the place with two revolvers.

Saturday night Police Chief Claude M. Worley and a squad of officers were called to the hospital to subdue him. Koford had become violent, broken from a strait-jacket, smashed windows, torn an iron bed apart and threatened institution employees with two iron bars. A fire hose failed to halt him and he broke from two cells before quieted with a half dozen tear gas bombs.
