

Miss Helen C. Payne and Carl G. Seashore Will Be Wed Tonight

THE Downey Avenue Christian Church will be the scene of a late summer wedding at 5:30 this evening when Miss Helen Claire Payne, daughter of Mrs. Wallace Claire Payne, 5631 University Ave., will become the bride of Carl Gustav Seashore, Cleveland, Ohio, son of Professor and Mrs. Carl Emil Seashore, Iowa City, Ia.

The service will be read by Dr. Charles T. Paul, president of the College of Missions, assisted by the Rev. Bert Johnson, pastor of the Downey Avenue Christian church, at an altar decorated with palms and ferns and lighted with white candles, placed at either side of the altar. Few markers of rose and green tulle, the bridal colors, will be used. A program of organ music including "Pomp and Circumstance" by Elgar; Handel's "Largo," the Kappa Kappa Gamma song, and "Violets," the Sigma Alpha Epsilon song will be played preceding the ceremony. Frank Nussbaum will sing "Oh Promise Me" and "Ich Liebe Dich."

Sister to Attend Bride

The bridal party will enter to "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin. Mrs. Rollin Morris Perkins, Iowa City, sister of the bride, will be matron of honor and will wear a gown of pale green georgette, with tiers of different shades of green forming the skirt. A motif in silver thread extends from the left side of the bodice to the hem of the skirt. She will wear silver slippers and a brilliant comb in her hair. Her flowers will be Ophelia roses in shower bouquet.

Misses Helen and Clara Perkins, Iowa City, will walk together as bridesmaids. Their gowns of taffeta fashioned bouffant style have tight bodices and corded full skirts. Streamers of tulle from either shoulder, form a bow in the back and there are shirred panniers over the hips. They both will wear crystal drops on narrow silver chains, the gift of the bride. Miss Helen Perkins will be in pale green and Miss Clara Perkins' gown is in rose. They both will have shower bouquets of tea and pink roses. Miss Dorothy Reynolds, bridesmaid, will be gowned in pale green tulle, made with a V neckline in the back and a rounded neckline in front. The skirt, made of scalloped tiers of tulle, has an uneven hemline. Her satin slippers and stockings will match the gown. She will carry Ophelia roses in shower bouquet.

Miss Mildred Johns, maid of honor, will wear pale pink tulle made robe de style with uneven hemline. The bottom of the skirt is faced in deep rose tulle. The tight bodice has a V neck with a narrow inset, V-shaped of the rose rose tulle and a rose bow lined in pink tied on the left shoulder hangs to the floor. Her shoes and hose are rose. She will carry a shower bouquet of Columbia roses. Robert Holmes Seashore, Eugene, Ore., brother of the groom, will be best man. Ushers will be Rollin Morris Perkins, Iowa City; Frank Karslake, Chicago; Myron Hugel and William Percy, Indianapolis. Robert William Payne, nephew of the bride, will carry the wedding ring on a pillow of uncut velvet, placed in the center of a wreath of forget-me-nots.

Given by Brother

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her brother, Francis William Payne, will wear her mother's wedding dress unaltered. It is made of ivory uncut velvet, with a long full skirt, made to stand out by ruses of crinoline and tight bodice, pointed in the back. Tiny puffed sleeves and a panel on the front of the skirt and bodice of ivory grosgrain hand painted with forget-me-nots complete the gown. She will carry a linen handkerchief heavily embroidered and a cameo set in gold filigree will be her only jewelry. The handkerchief and brooch are both family heirlooms. Her shoes will be those worn by her mother on her wedding day, black kid embroidered in silver.

Her full length tulle veil will also have a face veil and it will be made with a crown of rose point lace, brought to Miss Payne by Miss Johns from Belgium. A reception at the Payne home, Gray Gables, will follow the ceremony. At supper the table will be centered with a tiered wedding cake on a mound of smilax and lighted with pink tapers in silver holders. Mesdames F. G. Johns and Claude Hugel will assist Mrs. Payne.

Couple to Motor in North. Mr. and Mrs. Seashore will motor through the northern States and Canada. The bride will wear chocolate cordon crepe trimmed with tan applique, alligator shoes and handbag and a chocolate velvet hat. Her traveling coat will be tan and brown lined with a wolf collar.

Mr. and Mrs. Seashore will be at home at the Hotel Martin after Oct. 1.

Out-of-town guests will include Dean and Mrs. Seashore, Mr. and Mrs. Perkins, Misses Helen and Clara Perkins, Iowa City, Robert Seashore, Eugene, Ore.; Mrs. Mildred Guy, South Bend; Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Biggerstaff and family, Wabash; Leone Decker, Brazil, and Mrs. Carl Mather, West Branch, Ia. Mrs. Seashore was graduated from Butler university and the Metropolitan School of Music. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma and Nu Phi Epsilon sororities.

Mrs. Seashore was graduated from the University of Iowa in engineering and is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.
