

INDEPENDENT TICKET RELATED IN K. C. RACE

Rumor Sets Club Room Buzzing as Election Approaches.

Politics are buzzing around the Knights of Columbus club house this week following the announcement that an independent election ticket probably would be placed in the field in opposition to the regular nominations for the election Sept. 10.

A nominating committee is appointed by the grand knight to name the regular ticket, but an independent ticket may be named by a self-appointed committee of five members.

Meeting Postponed
Regular ticket: James E. Gavin, grand knight; George Bischoff, deputy grand knight; John A. Royce, chancellor; William Schorr, treasurer; Fred C. Strack, recorder; C. J. Beldeiman, warden; Peter Hickey, inside guard; James Scott and Walter Curven, outside guard; Edward P. Brennan, advocate, and James E. Deery, trustee. Deery now is grand knight.

Nominating committee for the ticket was: Leo F. Welch, chairman; C. P. Ehrlich, Maurice F. Fitzgerald, John J. Mintz and Joseph Wade.

The meeting tonight has been postponed because of the holiday. Several thousand members are expected to cast ballots next Monday.

Luncheon Planned
A report of the national convention held recently in Cleveland, was given at the last meeting by Joseph A. Naughton, state deputy, and William F. Fox, supreme council representative. The report covered more than an hour, and a detailed account will be published in the next issue of "The Cable." K. of C. publication, according to John F. McCann, editor.

The K. of C. luncheon club has outlined a fall program of activity for the Friday noon meetings at the Spink-Arms. Several political speakers will be heard this month. The first is Grace Banta Urbans, state treasurer of Indiana, who will talk Friday. The following week Frank C. Dalley will speak.

Blacklist

De Pauw University was the only school of higher education in Indiana approved for a new chapter of Theta Chi fraternity at the close of the seventy-second annual national convention in the Lincoln.

All but eighty-nine colleges and universities in the United States were blacklisted by Theta Chi. The organization has forty-four chapters and voted to limit the number of chapters to seventy-five. Only forty-four schools in the United States were approved for possible sites for the thirty new chapters.

A school's eligibility consists of approval of the Association of American Universities, a male under graduate enrollment of 500 or more, and permission to maintain a chapter house on the campus where students may reside.

Theta Chi chapters now are located at Indiana and Purdue Universities. They automatically were approved.

George Williams is director of the band. The band was organized by Wright, and most of the members are from Capitol City Camp. All belong to the Modern Woodmen.

EXPECT BELLS FOR CATHEDRAL IN NOVEMBER

Second Largest Carillons in World Coming From England.

Carillons for the "singing tower" of the new Scottish Rite Cathedral on N. Meridian St., will arrive in Indianapolis in November, according to word received from the John Taylor Bell Foundry in England.

While carillons are being installed, the "Carillon class" of candidates will be initiated in the higher degrees of Masonry. The first section will open its work Oct. 17 and will complete the thirtieth degree Nov. 28.

The second section class starts Dec. 3 and completes the thirtieth degree Dec. 5. Both classes will take the third and fourth degrees at the close of the work, the sixty-third semi-annual banquet will be held with both sections attending.

As a boost for the convocation, the "Thousand Club" is being organized, the purpose of which is to gain 1,000 candidates. There are 10,000 members of the Rite in Indiana, and it is planned for one member in every ten to gain a petition.

The carillon for the Rite is one of the best in the world, and will be the second largest in America. The largest is to be placed in a bird sanctuary in Florida. The importations of carillons to America are comparatively rare, and it is only in recent years that the practice has gained custom.

The last day for petitions for the first section of the class is Oct. 3, and the last date for petitions for the second section is Nov. 14.

Indiana I. O. O. F. Claims Oldest Member in Lodge

New Yorker, 95, but Salem Man, 94, Initiated Earlier.

From New York comes the claim for the title of "oldest Odd Fellow." But right here in Indiana comes a counter-claim of the "oldest Odd Fellow" to usurp the eastern claimant from his throne.

Jacob Stolz, 95, of Syracuse, N. Y., is said to be the oldest lodge member in the United States. He attended the New York State convention recently in a wheel chair and received an ovation from the crowd of 900 delegates.

George L. Neal, 94, of Salem, Ind., easily is the oldest Indiana Odd Fellow, and it is believed he is only a few days younger than Stolz.

But official records give Neal the honors for the oldest membership. He was initiated March 30, 1857, seventy-one years ago. The easterner was taken into the order in November, 1859, seventy years ago.

Stolz claims to be the oldest past grand in the United States, but the Hoosier's claim seems to be better for that distinction, too.

Neal now is visiting relatives in Los Angeles, Cal., and will return to Indianapolis in the spring. He is active for his age and insists on doing his daily dozen of household duties.

EAGLES SEEK AGE PENSION

Hope to Get Indiana Bill Passed.

Encouraged by the fact that a bill a year has been passed since 1921, when the grand eagle, Fraternal Order of Eagles, started its campaign for old-age pensions, Indiana Eagles hope the average will be maintained at the session of the General Assembly opening in January, 1929, when an old age pension bill will be introduced for the Hoosier State.

Old age pensions now are in effect in Kentucky, Wisconsin, Montana, Nevada, Colorado, Maryland and the Territory of Alaska.

Outside the United States, the Eagles fostered the old age pension law of British Columbia.

Surveys by the order covering a number of States show that the average cost of maintaining an aged person in an institution is $37, against only $25 under pensioning. Montana's pension is operated at an average cost of only $12.
