

FINE WEATHER SPEEDS STATE HIGHWAY WORK

Stone and Gravel Roads in Good Condition, but Somewhat Dusty.

The fine weather has speeded up State road work and much pavement has been laid in the last few days, John D. Williams, highway director announced today.

The pavement must "cure," however, in most cases for twenty-one days, before it can be opened to traffic. Stone and gravel roads are in good condition, although extremely dusty, according to the highway bulletin.

It may be possible to open some pavement on U. S. Road 27 between Fountain City and Winchester in a few days, materially shortening a nineteen-mile detour, the bulletin said.

A nine-mile detour on U. S. Road 29 between Knox and Bass Lake, and a bridge run-around on U. S. Road 41, two miles north of Kentland were lifted in the last week. A two-mile detour was put in force on Road 18, at the west edge of Greencastle for bridge repairs. The week's report on other roads follows:

Road 2—Detour from Illinois line to Road 41, construction five miles, good except west one and one-half miles.

Road 3—Detour from Marion to Hartford City, eighteen and one-half miles. Detour from Petroleum to Bluffton, construction, nine and one-half miles.

Road 4—One-way traffic bridge at ten miles north of Madison, bridge run-around at six and one-half miles and seven and one-half miles north of Madison.

Road 5—Drive slowly past construction work between Marion and Huntington.
