NORTHWEST IS VEERING TO AL, BACKERS SAY

Democratic Nominee Will Speak on Waterways in St. Paul Tonight.

HOPES TO WIN DAKOTA

Strong Evidence of Swing From G. O. P. Seen in Trip Across State.

By THOMAS L. STOKES

United Press Staff Correspondent
MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 27.—Governor Alfred E. Smith brought his brown derby campaign to the Twin Cities today and they shared in giving him a welcome.

The Democratic candidate's train arrived here at 9:30 a. m. and was met by another of the large crowds which have greeted him since he left Albany on his Western campaign tour. Minneapolis will see the New York Governor on parade this afternoon and then he will go to St. Paul for dinner and his only Minnesota speech.

The Democratic candidate announced he would speak in St. Paul on inland waterways and the St. Lawrence-Great Lakes waterway project, vital issue in the whole Central West.

Will Canvass Situation

After luncheon, Smith went to conference with State Democratic leaders to canvass the situation. He has received reports that unusual sentiment for him has manifested itself in Minnesota.

The State never has gone Democratic in a presidential election. Roosevelt carried it in the 1912 split, and Wilson lost it by a very slight margin in 1916. The State has twelve electoral votes.

The New York Governor came out of the Northwest today with assurances from State leaders that the State he rode through all day yesterday, North Dakota, will give him its five electoral votes.

Additional encouragement came in the expressions of favor toward the Democratic presidential candidate by Governor Walter Maddock, who was regarded as giving Smith a tacit endorsement.

Maddock welcomed the Governor at his State capital office in Bismarck and joined the campaign train for the trip to Jamestown, along with the entire executive committee of the State committee.

Governor for Smith

Maddock, elected Lieutenant Governor as a Republican on the ticket with the late Governor Sprule, became Governor upon the death of the latter a few weeks ago. He is running for re-election as a Democrat.

Maddock said later that his support of Smith is as representative of the farm interests and on that policy, he has the endorsement as candidate for Governor of the Democratic organizations and the Non-Partisan League, the latter having refused endorsement of Herbert Hoover.

Maddock's political vagaries are indicative of the political cross currents in North Dakota. Smith found the situation confusing, with Democrats, Republicans and Non-Partisan Leaguers split over both State and national tickets. This signifies an independence in voting, upon which Democrats are counting.

Count on Wet Support

Democrats are counting also upon support of the "wets." Their strength is shown in the huge vote polled in June for repeal of the dry clause in the Constitution, which was defeated, 103,000 to 96,000, on the other hand the religious issue is a factor in North Dakota.

The special train stopped at Bismarck for an hour, and Governor Smith rode up to the State Capitol, under a banner across Main St. which read: "Hello, Al, North Dakota is for you."

There he visited the Dakota Governor in his unimposing office on the second floor of the small wooden capitol building.

Hard corns, soft corns, corns between the toes and callouses lift right off! You'll laugh—it is so easy and doesn't hurt a bit! Just drop "Freezone" on any tender, touchy corn. Instantly it stops aching; then shortly you just lift that old bothersome corn right off with your fingers. It works like a charm, every time. Seems magic!

WITNESS IS SOUGHT

Seek Friend of Auto Victim to Hear Story.

Deputy sheriffs and police sought Joe Ober, of Cincinnati, today to learn details of an accident west of the city late Tuesday night in which Frank Hogan, 40, of Shreveport, La., was critically injured.

Ober is said to have appeared at the Methodist Hospital, where Hogan was taken and said he was walking with Hogan when he was struck.

After learning that Hogan was still unconscious he left and police have no version of how Hogan was struck or who struck him.

When he swerved his truck to avoid striking an automobile at South and Delaware Sts., Tuesday, A. V. Cummings, 1242 N. Pershing Ave., hit a street car. He was cut on the hands and face.

Thus does Duane Dungan, president of the Hoosier Motor Club, sum up the presidential political situation.

LAUNCH MOVE TO PUT LEGION INTO POLITICS

Convention in San Antonio Oct. 8-12 Will Vote on Amendment.

By N.Y.A. Service

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 27.—The American Legion, which has been strictly a non-partisan organization, as far as politics is concerned, ever since it was founded, soon may cut loose from its old restrictions and enter the political arena whenever it sees fit.

That possibility arises from the fact that certain legion members are now preparing an amendment to the organization's constitution which they will introduce at the legion convention here Oct. 8 to 12.

The amendment, it is understood, would strike out the last sentence of article two, section two, of the constitution. That section now reads:

Special Bitter Fight

"The American Legion shall be absolutely non-political and shall not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles, nor for the promotion of the candidacy of any person seeking public office or permanent."

"No candidate for, or incumbent of, any salaried elective public office shall hold any office in the American Legion or in any department or post thereof."

Drake was arrested in a raid on a pool room at 2236 W. Sixteenth St., whose proprietor, David Dugger, also is under arrest in connection with the Canadian liquor haul. The other man in custody is Vinard Drake, 30, 2655 N. Harding St.

Five gallons of whisky were found in the rear of the pool room by police.

Police and Department of Justice operators are working on the theory the trio under arrest may be connected with the interstate auto theft ring under investigation by the Federal Grand Jury.

The automobile in which the contraband liquor was found, a Cadillac, was traced by police as having been stolen from St. Paul.

Who do you like, Hoover or Smith?

Take your pick, but don't make your motor cars rolling advertisements for either.

Thus does Duane Dungan, president of the Hoosier Motor Club, sum up the presidential political situation.

Then, of course, there will be that pre-eminent feature of all legion conventions—the big parade. This will come on the second day. The procession will climax its march by swinging past the historic Alamo, shrine of patriotism for scores of years.

In front of the Alamo will be the reviewing stand, occupied by National Commander Edward E. Spafford and distinguished guests.

CHARGE GARAGE FIRED FOR $6,500

Trucker Accused of Plot to Collect Insurance.

Wanton destruction of $15,000 worth of household goods of seven families entrusted to his care was one of the charges which the State today undertook to prove in Criminal Court against Clarence Armstrong, 811 N. Dearborn St., operator of the P. and A. Despatch, an interstate trucking concern.

The household goods were stored in Armstrong's frame garage, 1329 De Loss St., when it burned more than a year ago. The State charges that Armstrong set fire to the place to collect $3,000 insurance on the building and $3,500 on two trucks owned by his wife, Mrs. Gertrude Armstrong.

State witnesses declare Armstrong told them he had a modern, fire-proof warehouse, but found their belongings in ruins when the garage burned.

At least one family was without insurance, having been told by Armstrong that his insurance covered its goods.

Attorneys expected to complete the jury and start testimony this afternoon. The case will last several days, the State having sixteen witnesses and the defense asserting it will use forty.

Special Judge Frank Symmes is presiding.
